

Is God Protecting Trump?

Our media are concerned about the hurt feelings of Kamala Harris. She doesn't like the "personal attacks" on her intelligence. Even the "conservative" channels focus on this, suggesting that President Trump take a different tack. This is a man targeted by "personal attacks" that included an attempted assassination and yet he is the one who has supposedly gone too far by questioning the intelligence of the Democratic nominee.

Her public statements, when they are not scripted, should make anyone question her ability to run a country, let alone her vice-presidential office, which had a turnover rate higher than 90 percent.

In a previous job, she threw around "F-bombs" and constantly berated her staff, a father of one of her interns said. As Attorney General of California, he said, she had instructed her entire staff to stand every morning as she entered the office and say, "Good Morning General." His son was "given instructions to never address Harris nor look her in the eye as that privilege was only allowed to senior staff members."

If the media had taken the issue of Joe Biden's intelligence seriously, we might have been spared his three years of war, inflation, and moral decadence. A noted plagiarist who stole ideas and even speech lines from other people, including British politicians, he was openly devoted to the New World Order, which he (or his ghost writer) had written about in the Wall Street Journal. That “New World Order” was a system benefitting America’s enemies, especially China.

For her part, Kamala failed the bar exam, and it is not hard to find critical references to her as a “ho” who got ahead politically after having a personal relationship with San Francisco political figure Willie Brown.

Trump’s personal life has been the subject of extensive media coverage and even one of several lawsuits engineered by his political enemies. Our media cheer these on, hoping for his ruin. But the situation involving the former president changed dramatically when he was almost shot to death.

By any objective measure, this kind of “personal attack” raises the stakes. Yet, our media would prefer to drop this subject, when it should be the defining issue of the campaign. Why did they try to kill Trump? Who was behind it?

Regarding these attacks, I am a journalist and certainly not a Bible prophecy expert. But I am intrigued by the Philadelphia Church of God, which is not my church, but offers some unique insights through its publication The Trumpet into why he survived.

A student of Bible prophecy, Richard Palmer of The Trumpet had appeared on my (censored) YouTube television show years ago predicting that Donald J. Trump would return to the White House so that America could have one final chance to save the world from the approaching apocalypse.

Because of our growing influence as an alternative source of news and information, this program and hundreds of others were censored by YouTube. We were also targeted by such groups as the Southern Poverty Law Center and the Council on American-Islamic Relations. We have now launched a new channel on the Rumble platform.

The new issue of The Trumpet has a very interesting article on official federal involvement in the attempted murder of President Trump, an issue that must be front and center in this campaign. After all, how can we have a free and fair election if one side wants to bankrupt, jail, and/or kill the other?

How is it fair to require that Trump continue to campaign for office when the evidence indicates the federal agencies under the nominal control of Biden/Harris engineered the assassination attempt?

The Trumpet had predicted, after the stolen election of 2020, that President Trump would return to the White House, but its new issue looks at God's intervention in Butler, Pennsylvania, to save his life, in the context of the prediction they made.

The analysis in the article in The Trumpet titled "The Truth About the Assassination Attempt" is positively masterful. Here are the key points:

- ...no previous assassination attempt has been this preventable.
- The sheer number of security failures at this event was so staggering, it seems they had to have been deliberate. At the very least, federal agencies and law enforcement cleared the way for the gunman to get an open shot. As disturbing as this notion is, nothing makes sense unless someone on the inside wants Trump dead.
- As more of these details come out, the more improbable it is that the Trump assassination attempt was merely a series of independent "innocent" mistakes.

"It's been over two months since the assassination attempt," notes author J.C. Hawkins. "We know less about what happened than we did a month ago. Obviously, the cover-up is going very well. The longer it drags on, the more questions go unanswered."

He adds, "In other high-profile shootings and major crime events, the FBI traditionally has held press briefings to update the public on the status of the investigation. That hasn't happened in this case."

The latest facet is that the body of Thomas Crooks, the alleged would-be assassin, has gone missing. It was reportedly cremated at the direction of the FBI.

Rep. Clay Higgins comments, "The FBI cleaned up biological evidence from the crime scene, which is unheard of."

J.C. Hawkins says, "Why haven't we heard about whether the ballistics from the two surviving shooting victims match Crooks' weapon? That seems like a very easy question to resolve. Yet, we've heard nothing about it."

Assuming Thomas Crooks was the would-be assassin, The Trumpet article says:

- It is certainly possible the FBI or another government agency manipulated Thomas Crooks into an assassination plot while the Secret Service made sure the roof was unguarded...someone on the inside must have alerted Crooks to a preplanned security vulnerability.

When you analyze what happened, you must add to the mix, along with the FBI and the Secret Service, the CIA.

These federal agencies are infiltrated by our enemies, as the evidence clearly shows. A good place to start is the article, "Espionage Against America," listing 30 significant spy cases impacting the U.S. since 1960.

The so-called "Deep State" is a nebulous term, but can be easily defined and many of its members named, since they suppressed the Hunter Biden laptop story before the 2020 election. Their letter, used by Joe Biden in his own defense, demonstrated that the intelligence agencies strive to be in command and control of our political system, including the major media companies, and that Joe Biden and/or members of the Biden family are their agents or assets.

Trump stands in their way because he threatens to expose them.

Today, of course, Kamala Harris is their candidate, another empty vessel linked to the political power structure in San Francisco, what author Daniel Flynn called “Cult City,” dominated by such figures as communist Carlton Goodlett and communist Jim Jones and his “People’s Temple,” whose followers committed mass suicide in Guyana.

The “Honorable Willie Brown,” then a California State Assemblyman and sponsor of the political career of Kamala Harris, was listed as “Master of Ceremonies” at a Peoples Temple benefit dinner, titled, “A Struggle Against Oppression.” A guest speaker was Goodlett, a Lenin Peace Prize winner and Soviet agent of influence.

Incredibly, there is a street in San Francisco, Dr. Carlton B. Goodlett Place, named after this communist, where City Hall is located. Long-time Democratic House Speaker Pelosi praised Goodlett after his death as a civil rights leader. She engineered Biden’s ouster, to make way for Kamala.
