By embracing abortion pills and homosexual “marriage,” the Trump for president campaign is trying to make a deal with many of the global forces determined to take him out of the race.

This dramatic turn, as significant as Joe Biden's physical and mental decline, means that the anti-Christian social order is too strong for Trump to overcome and that he is making a deal with the devil to win the November election.

I have been covering the emergence of this “New World Order” since the first of my two books on the United Nations was published in 1995. In my second book, Global Taxes for World Government, I devoted a whole chapter, “Life Unworthy of Life,” to the U.N. Population Fund and other agencies engaging in a population reduction effort that used abortion and infanticide in Communist China and was being modeled and spread around the world. The phrase “Life unworthy of life” originated with the Nazis.

It has now come to the United States and Trump is embracing it.

“The Supreme Court just approved the abortion pill, and I agree with their decision to have done that, and I will not block it,” the former president said during his debate with Joe Biden, speaking about the Supreme Court allowing the consumption of deadly and dangerous abortion pills.

Not one of his three appointments to the Supreme Court, even the Catholics like Kavanaugh and Barrett, sought to block these dangerous drugs. In the case that went to the Supreme Court, U.S. District Court Judge Matthew Kacsmaryk had examined the history of chemical abortion, linking it to Planned Parenthood and “several well-known eugenicists,” a movement associated with the Nazis and other totalitarian movements.

Once there was a pope, John Paul II, who warned about these developments and trends. He identified a “Culture of Death” that “is actively fostered by powerful cultural, economic and political currents...” He called these forces “the powerful of the earth” engaged in a “conspiracy against life.” He decried the influence of “powerful international organizations,” a clear reference to the U.N. and the U.N. Population Fund. He referred to the 1994 U.N. Conference on Population and Development as being designed to “destroy the family” and was the “snare of the devil.”

This Polish pope’s anti-communism made him a target of an assassination attempt organized by the Russian KGB.

Since 1921, when Communist Russia legalized abortion, more than one billion babies have been murdered by abortion, including more than 60 million in the U.S.

Trump is an obvious target of many of these same forces but has decided, for reasons of political expediency, to make a deal with them. He has warned Republicans that opposition to abortion has “cost” the GOP politically. So he endorses abortion drugs and “state’s rights” on abortion, a formula that led to the first American Civil War when some states wanted to keep slaves and others wanted them to be free of bondage.

“This nation fought a terrible war so that black Americans would be guaranteed their God-given rights,” President Ronald Reagan said about the Civil War in the context of abortion. “Abraham Lincoln recognized that we could not survive as a free land when some could decide whether others should be free or slaves. Well, today another question begs to be asked: How can we survive as a free nation when some decide that others are not fit to live and should be done away with?”

The 2024 Republican platform has not only dropped support for a human life amendment to protect the rights of the unborn but has dropped opposition to so-called gay marriage.

Trump’s wife Melania, a Catholic, has hosted two fundraisers for “gay” Republicans that included homosexual “married” couples.

A participant in those events is Ric Grenell, a former Trump national security official who wants to use the power of the federal government to spread homosexuality to Christian and Muslim lands. It is a prescription for more conflict and wars that is sure to drive remaining Christian countries, especially in Africa, into the hands of the Chinese and the Russians.

Indeed, when he was Trump’s U.S. Ambassador to Germany, Ric Grenell went to the United Nations to promote what he called a global initiative to force all U.N. members to approve homosexual conduct. He was joined in this demand by Trump's U.S. Ambassador to the U.N., Kelly Craft, who lectured the 69 countries which have laws making homosexuality illegal. She told them that "human dignity" requires that every country on the face of the earth embrace the practice of homosexuality.

Years ago I wrote a major report on the homosexual infiltration of the Republican Party. Little did we know that President Trump would run on a very conservative platform and win in 2016 but now backtrack at this critical juncture in American history when he is seen as someone who can turn back the agenda of Cultural Marxism.

Even the current pope, Francis, a liberal on most issues, has nothing but disdain for the homosexual activists, accusing them of "faggotry" and infiltrating Catholic seminaries.

Commenting on the Republican sell-out on abortion, as reflected in the platform, Thomas Jacobson of the Global Life Campaign wrote, "It appears to me that these changes are for the idolatrous purpose of gaining power and control of the federal government by abandoning fundamental beliefs and principles that have defined Republicans from the launching of the Party in the mid-1800s. Abraham Lincoln, the first Republican president, would be shocked and deeply grieved, as I am this day."

Politically, the abortion holocaust is packaged in the attractive terms of "reproductive freedom" and "women's rights," giving women the "right" to destroy their own offspring and call it "progress." For some feminists, it has become a sacrament, a form of child sacrifice common during the pagan era of Moloch worship. They brag about it.

Rather than fight this, the Trump 2024 platform panders to the feminist vote.

Some of the current trends embraced by Trump were on display at a recent “Gay Pride” festival in Frederick County, Maryland, where exhibitors distributed abortion pill information and stickers proclaiming “Shout Your Abortion.” Vendors advertised the sale of marijuana while drag queens pranced in front of women and children. The event also featured a special “youth area” with a “Drag Queen Story Time” event.

This kind of Cultural Marxism is rampant in America and is the current face of the national Democratic Party.

What Trump’s people apparently do not understand is that pandering to the abortion, feminist, and gay rights lobbies runs the risk of alienating millions of conservatives and Christians.

On this basis, once the word gets out, Trump’s campaign could self-destruct in much the same way Joe Biden is falling apart on the world stage.
