

ISIS, Sharia and the Worshipping of Lucifer

Finally, those on the left, so distressed because their candidate lost, (even though it has been proven she is a crook and has committed sedition against her country), are taking to the streets in full force even going so far as to admit they are worshipping Satan.

What holds more power than the word's that come forth from one's mouth?

I would like to remind the left and so called no-Trump Republicans who refuse to support their President, all the Executive Orders that Obama put his signature on applied to everyone. There was no notation at the bottom of the paper that stated this only applies to certain people. You are in as much danger of his orders being used against you as any of the rest of us.

Now you have also taken on the additional challenge of supporting the so called "in danger refugees". Are you going to feed, clothe, house and provide medical care for them? Most of you "squawker's" are in college and/or don't have a job. The working Americans are already carrying your fair share. You don't know anything about your country or really anything about those in office.

You believe the refugees should come here and be taken care of and I might add, with no background checks. The countries they are coming from do not keep records on the bad guys like we do – how are you going to know if they respect our country or if they want us murdered, paving the way for Sharia Law like in England where they have 80+ active Sharia courts. You do understand don't you that Sharia is NOT a religion, but Muslim law? Enough of those who practice Sharia have come right and said we are to die but then if you are now following Lucifer, it really is the same thing. Why aren't you willing to watch and learn from what has been happening in Europe?

You say they are all friendly and just a few have caused any problems. What if it is your child or parents who are in the line of fire the next time? Who are you going to blame? Lucifer? Police? Certainly, not yourself for supporting this evilness.

You throw in our faces that the churches are helping the refugees come over here and get settled, but you are so out of it you don't even know they are being paid for their efforts and after 3 months they get to walk away and the refugees are on their own. Once again, I ask you – are you going to feed, clothe, house and provide medical care for them? Take them into your homes and protect them against the rest of the “big, bad Americans”?

You relish in the good things about this country like being able to say what you like and then you follow the likes of someone like Linda Sansour, Palestinian Muslim who supports Sharia and Hamas.

I would like to introduce you to the “invisible” Awan brothers (Abid, Imran and Jamal and Imran's wife Hina Alvi) who had been hired during the Obama administration and were placed within the State Department.

Last week it was released the 3 brothers who had been hired during Obama's administration and were placed in the position to manage the IT offices for members of the House Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence were let go. Three members of the Intelligence panel and five members of the House Committee on Foreign Affairs were among the dozens of members who employed the brothers on a shared basis including Debbie Wasserman-Schultz.

Why haven't you heard about this from the "fake news networks"? Could it be they aren't willing to admit that ALL the Muslims in this country aren't "good guys" and some are even connected to CAIR, the Muslim Brotherhood and/or both?

The brothers are the very ones the media couldn't wait to claim they had been mistreated by the Trump administration. Shortly after Trump took office, and before Rex Tillerson was even confirmed as Secretary of State, a slew of State Department officials were removed from their positions (or were forced to resign) as part of an effort to "clean house" at the State Department. The whole affair was haphazardly covered by the media, especially by Jeff Bezos's blog, which insinuated that the departures were "an ongoing mass exodus of senior Foreign Service officers who don't want to stick around for the Trump era."

When push came to shove and the truth came out, it was revealed part of those who were removed from their positions certainly deserved to lose their jobs and make a trip straight to the jailhouse.

On January 29th, United States Special Forces executed an operation inside Yemen, against al-Qaeda in the Arabian Peninsula (AQAP), with the aim of gathering intelligence and killing leaders of the group. The raid was planned under the Obama administration, but the decision to execute the raid was "punted" to Trump, using the pretext of waiting for a "low loom" (moonless) night to execute the raid with maximum secrecy:

While the operation had been proposed, it was never green-lighted because Obama felt going into the mission would mark a “significant escalation” in Yemen and should be left to the next administration to decide according to the WSJ. In addition, defense officials expected the Trump administration to be more willing to approve dangerous missions, something that was almost certainly known by any remaining personnel who stayed on after Obama left office.

Though the raid was in many ways a success, the mission is shadowed by the death of Navy SEAL William “Ryan” Owens, (Seal Team 6) as well as injuries to three other servicemen. While the commandos did everything necessary to maintain the element of surprise, it appears as though AQAP adversaries on the ground had advance warning of the attack: “Initial reports are almost always wrong, but it doesn’t appear to be a failure of planning or intelligence,” said a former special forces officer.

Almost immediately, the raiding force on the ground took intense fire, according to the briefing paper and a senior military official. Occupants of the targeted house and its compound, along with their guard force, moved to a separate cluster of houses nearby where families, including women and children, were staying.

Armed women also fired on the U.S. and Emirati forces. “There were a lot of female combatants who were part of this,” said Navy Capt. Jeff Davis, the Pentagon’s chief spokesman. “We saw during this operation, as it was taking place, that female fighters ran to pre-established positions – as though they had trained to be ready, and trained to be combatants – and engaged with us.”

While most knew about the Yemen raid, most did not know about the dismissal of the three Awan brothers, Abid, Imran, and Jamal Awan. On February 2nd, they were abruptly removed from their positions of managing information technology for the House Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence. Though they were initially suspected merely of stealing equipment, a connection with the previously-hacked computers of Representative Debbie Wasserman Schultz (D-FL) revealed something far more sinister: Because of the positions the brothers held, it gave them direct access to our military secrets, just like the one that had just taken place.

I would like to add these “men” were all receiving an annual salary of over $160K a year when the average is well under $100K even for those who have worked there for years.

I am at this moment so very proud of my President and his acknowledgment of William “Ryan” Owens and his service to our country in his address to Congress. His address to Williams wife Corrine was heartfelt and sincere. Her emotion and love for her husband very apparent. Too many are gone that Americans have no idea who they are. Trumps remarks to Owens wife will stay etched on the hearts and minds of Americans who care for a very long time.

The fake news media has been more interested in spreading what they hoped was the news rather than what actually was the news. My friend, Captain Joseph R. John (Navy-Ret.) recently wrote an article stating he believed the Muslim Brotherhood “fifth column” has “infiltrated U.S. Government,” and if he is correct, the Awan brothers could very well be a part of this infiltration.

If in doubt of Captain Johns statement, go do your own research and look up all the Muslims that Obama placed in key positions within our government during his term in office.

One of the three Democratic lawmakers who employed the Awan brothers and who is on the HPSCI is Rep. Andre Carson D-IN who is a ranking member on the Emerging Threats subcommittee and also serves on the Department of Defense Intelligence and Overhead Architecture subcommittee. He is also a Muslim who has what the Center for Security Policy \(CSP\) calls "extensive and longstanding ties to organizations and individuals associated with the Muslim Brotherhood."

Two years ago, the center documented those ties in a paper that said:

"Among those with whom Rep. Carson has been involved as a guest speaker, panelist, fundraiser, recipient of funds, etc., are: The Council on American Islamic Relations (CAIR) and several of its chapters across the country; the Islamic Society of North America (ISNA); the Islamic Circle of North America (ICNA); the Muslim American Society (MAS); and the Brotherhood's new proto-political party, the U.S. Council of Muslim Organizations (USCMO)."

The Justice Department named CAIR and ISNA as unindicted co-conspirators in the 2008 Holy Land Foundation trial, a criminal plot to provide material support to Hamas terrorists. USCMO and ICNA were also implicated. Federal prosecutors referred to MAS as the "overt arm of the Muslim Brotherhood."

In case you are not aware, in 2010 there was a "CALL TO JIHAD" by Anwar Al-Awlaki.

Just today CAIR was caught storing a huge weapons cash in a Florida mosque to be used for training for Hamas. This is supposed to be a place of worship for these supposed “PEACEFUL” Muslims who practice Sharia. Don’t you believe ISIS when they say their game plan is to murder all who do not believe in Sharia?

Rumors have long been out there stating Muslims were using their Mosque’s for training facilities and more than just worship to Mohammad. It is true that if Muslims living in this country do not support Sharia and want to live among us peacefully they should be welcomed. However, members of the radical groups both within and without our country have time and time again stated if we do not believe in Sharia we are “infidels” and “infidels” are to die.

This same mosque has been calling for churches to be gun free zones. CAIR’s Florida Regional Operations Dir., Nezar Hamze has been very busy spreading his thoughts and ideas about guns to the very people most likely to use them against Americans. The Society of Sarasota and Bradenton not only is anti-American, but they support suicide bombers and their families.

Why is it the Democrats and Satan worshippers only want Conservative Christians to not have any guns? Just what do you suppose would happen if the NRA was giving talks at our local churches or gun classes?

Hired by Obama and deeply embedded within the Muslim Brotherhood and other organizations, you need to be aware of how close these men are to you and your government.

Arif Alikahn, Former Department of Homeland Security Assistant Secretary for Policy Development: Now a Distinguished Visiting Professor of DHS and Counterterrorism at the National Defense University, Alikahn also served as Deputy Mayor for Public Safety for the City of Los Angeles where he reportedly derailed the LAPD’s efforts to monitor the city’s Muslim community – particularly its radical mosques and madrassas where certain 9/11 hijackers were said to have received support. He is affiliated with MPAC, which has called the terrorist group Hezbollah a “liberation movement.”

These men were all exposed in
“Rumors of War III”

Salam al-Marayati, Founder and Executive Director of Muslim Public Affairs Council (MPAC): Marayati is an Iraqi immigrant who drew national attention over a decade ago when then-House Democratic Leader Richard Gephardt nominated him to serve on the National Commission on Terrorism. Backlash over al-Marayati’s defense of Hezbollah and other Islamic groups prompted a withdrawal of the nomination. The Center for Security Policy reports that MPAC was formed in 1986 as the Political Action Committee for the Islamic Center for Southern California, one of the largest Wahhabi mosques in the country. While MPAC later fractioned-off, one of the founders of the Islamic Center, Hassan Hathout, was a senior member of the Muslim Brotherhood who also spent time in Egyptian prison.

Mohamed Elbiary, Homeland Security Advisory Committee Member: He is the former president of the Freedom and Justice Foundation, which was billed to “promote a Centrist Public Policy environment in Texas by coordinating the state level government and interfaith community relations for the organized Texas Muslim community.” He spoke at a 2004 conference in Dallas praising the “Great Islamic Visionary” Ayatollah Khomeini. Most recently he is famous for leaking highly sensitive intelligence documents to a media outlet in Texas.

Rashad Hussain, State Department Special Envoy to the Organization of Islamic Cooperation: The Global Muslim

Brotherhood Daily Report uncovered that Hussain spoke at a conference sponsored by the Muslim Brotherhood affiliate, the Association of Muslim Social Scientists. An internal Brotherhood document dubbed the Social Scientists as one of “our organizations and the organizations of our friends.” Hussain also spoke at the Prince Alwaleed Center for Muslim-Christian Understanding of Georgetown University, which reportedly receives Saudi funding and is directed by Muslim Brotherhood advocate, John Esposito. In 2004, Hussain also participated in the Muslim Students Association’s annual conference, a group founded by the Muslim Brotherhood and known as one of its front-groups. The report also asserts that many of the Student Associations’ nearly 600 college chapters “have engaged in extremism and the group closely collaborates with the other Brotherhood fronts.”

Imam Mohamed Magid, Homeland Security Countering Violent Extremism Working Group Member: He is a Sudanese-born president for the Islamic Society of North America (ISNA) with alleged ties to the Muslim Brotherhood. ISNA’s parent is the Muslim Student Association. ISNA completed a $21 million headquarters in Indianapolis using funds raised in part from Muslim Brotherhood.

Eboo Patel, Obama Administration Advisory Council on Faith-Based Neighborhood Partnerships: Patel spoke at a Muslim Students Association and ISNA convention, appearing on a panel alongside Tariq Ramadan, grandson of the Muslim Brotherhood’s founder, and Siraj Wahhaj, who was named as a possible co-conspirator in the 1993 World Trade Center bombing and has defended the convicted WTC bombers. Wahhaj allegedly advocates the Islamic takeover of America.

And let us not leave out – Huma Abedin, Deputy Chief of Staff to Secretary of State Hillary Clinton: Perhaps most famous for being wife of the disgraced former congressman Anthony Weiner, Huma Abedin appears to have family ties to the Muslim Brotherhood. In an interview with FrontPageMag, anti-Islamist author Walid Shoebat explained that Huma's mother, Saleha Abedin, is involved with the Muslim Brotherhood and that Huma's brother, Hassan, sits in on the board of the Oxford Centre For Islamic Studies (OCIS) where he is a fellow and partners with other board members including "Al-Qaeda associate, Omar Naseef and the notorious Muslim Brotherhood leader Sheikh Youssef Qaradawi; both have been listed as OCIS Trustees."

And the beloved Valarie Jarrett! And finally, Khizr Khan – you know the Dad at the DNC convention whose son died over 12 years ago – Some Gold Star family. Khan is a promoter of Islamic Sharia Law in the U.S. He was the co-founder of the Journal of Contemporary Issues in Muslim Law (Islamic Sharia). Khan's fascination with Islamic Sharia stems from his life in Saudi Arabia. During the eighties Khan wrote a paper titled Juristic Classification of Islamic [Sharia] Law. In it he elucidated on the system of Sharia law expressing his reverence for "The Sunnah (the works of Muhammad) – authentic tradition of the Prophet Muhammad.

The truth and real reason Khan does not like Trump is because his law firm "specializes" in and is financially and legally deeply tied to the industry programs of selling EB-5 and H-1B visas as a means for foreigners to buy a position into this country. Khan's law firm is making millions from these types of scheme's.

Instead of attempting to crucify Your President for what he said, how about trying to digest Khan's deep ties to not only the Muslim Brotherhood, the Saudi Arabia government, international Islamists investors through his law firm, but the Clinton's and the Clinton Foundation. How about paying attention to TRUTH?

Every American in this country has a right to protect their families and property – the Constitution and Bill of Rights give us those rights – that which the liberals wish to throw away so freely.
