

Islam Is Not Compatible With Civilized Society, Part 4

Roger Anghis

Assimilation into the American culture is not allowed under Islamic law. They are only allowed to have allegiance to their false god, allah. Please don't write me emails complaining about that statement. People have told me that muslims, Jews and Christians all worship the same God. No, they don't! Jews and Christians do but muslims worship a false god. My God says to love your enemies, Matthew 5:44 but the quran says to kill the unbelievers, strike the heads off of unbelievers, instill terror in unbelievers: quran 2:191; quran 47:4; quran 8:12.

A cleric, Zakir Naik, stated: Entire world will be converted to a single nation with islam as the only religion, Mecca as the capital and quran as the official constitution. It has already begun. From this, we can see what their game plan is. Looking at what is happening in Europe confirms this is their plan. They demand that cultures be replaced with their shariah law. In Germany they are demanding that the nation ban alcohol or they will continue the sex attacks! Germany needs to ban alcohol if it wants to prevent further sexual violence and to help North African migrants integrate into society, a Muslim pressure group has claimed.

Commenting on the Cologne sex-attack controversy, MuslimStern, which has 20,000 followers on Facebook, said its mission was to 'highlight the way the media was using the incidents to promote racism against minorities'.

The group complained that the female victims had brought the unwanted attention to themselves by dressing in a manner that North African men were not accustomed to.

The group claimed: 'You cannot expect to chuck a naked antelope in front of a lion and not expect it to react. It is mind-boggling that with so much time spent teaching children about sex at school, they completely forget to pass on this basic biological fact.'

As a consequence of the attacks, they urged the German government to introduce a ban across the country on the consumption of alcohol.

The group also blamed women for getting attacked by inciting the young men.[1] Just because a male muslim can't control his sexual urges his host nation has to completely change their culture to please the migrant muslim. Insane! If you don't think they will try to enforce that part of their ideology here think again. Remember in Dearborn no dogs and no women without bedsheets. It's coming!

Another disgusting and barbaric aspect of muslim immigration is honor killings. Over 95% of honor killings in the world are done by muslims. As much as we might try to deny it, radicalized religion is everywhere in the world today. This includes the United States. Honor killings in America do happen and it happens more than people might think. Honor killings can happen for a wide variety of reasons, but the purpose is the same: to restore a perceived injustice to the reputation of a family where religious edicts have been violated.[2] They believe that it is acceptable to kill a son or a daughter that simply disobeys the father's demands. If they become too westernized, wear the wrong clothes and the list goes on. The majority of muslims in America want shariah: The poll finds that the majority of Islamic Americans agree that Muslims should be able to forego the Constitution and be governed instead by Sharia law. That's right, Sharia.

The same Sharia that says you can't draw Muhammad, or insult him, or question his having slaves or being a pedophile. The same Sharia that says you must sympathize with terrorists. The same Sharia that says all Jews must be eliminated. The same Sharia that says you must convert, or you must die. THAT Sharia.[3] In Texas, a mayor found out that a shariah court was in existence and she shut it down which infuriated the muslims. The intense national spotlight on Islam has shifted to Irving, where Mayor Beth Van Duyne has accused mosque leaders of creating separate laws for Muslims and the City Council voted Thursday to endorse a state bill that Muslims say targets their faith.

The dispute has made Van Duyne a hero among a growing movement that believes Muslims are plotting to take over American culture and courts. "It fuels anti-Islamic hysteria," said Zia Sheikh, imam at the Islamic Center of Irving. "Her whole point was to rile up her supporters. ... The problem is we become the whipping boys."

The mayor stands by her statements, including an interview with former Fox News host Glenn Beck last month, when she said Sheikh and other imams were "bypassing American courts" by offering to mediate disputes among their worshippers according to an Islamic code called Sharia.

The mediation is advertised as voluntary, nonbinding, and in harmony with the law. But it has led Van Duyne to back a bill by state Rep. Jeff Leach, R-Plano, that would forbid judges from using foreign law in their rulings.[4]

Again this is valuable information that most news agencies will not cover leaving Americans uninformed. This is why we must be involved and demand that our government tell us of these security threats so we can be prepared if need be to defend ourselves. That time is coming and only the informed will be ready. The question is, will enough be informed and prepared to successfully defend what we hold dear? Migrant muslims are trying to remove all that we stand for. Little by little they win. They've made restaurants stop serving pork, not allowing dogs in some places and even met with some city councils and demanded that no Christians proselytize anywhere near a mosque yet they proselytize anywhere they want.

We must stand our ground! Even our flag offends muslims. My question is if it offends you, why are you here? Leave! A Muslim landlord demanded that Asian-American, Duy Tran, remove the American flag which Tran flew immediately after moving to the apartment complex. "I'm gonna leave my flag there, as an American, until she shows me proof that I don't have the right to leave my flag there," He shot back. (via The Political Insider)

Duy Tran says his landlord approached him shortly after he moved in, demanding he remove the flag hanging off his balcony – because it was a threat to Muslims!

"What really stunned me is that she said it's a threat towards the Muslim community," he told reporters in disbelief, adding, "I am not a threat towards nobody."

The disgusting request was made just before our Independence Day celebrations. Other apartments in the complex featured proud displays of red, white, and blue.

Managers at the apartment complex refused to respond to questions from the local media. They justified their demand by referring to the safety of the community.[5]

In Uganda, you can't say Jesus is the son of God in the presence of a muslim because it offends them. Buried in the concluding paragraphs of a Christmas Eve Washington

Times report about Muslims in Uganda forcing Christians to convert to Islam was the extraordinary revelation that in that country, Muslims now consider any public statement of the Christian Faith to be a calculated insult to Muslims, for which they can justifiably exact revenge. This is, or should be, sobering news for the comfortable Christians of the West who have made an idol out of “interfaith dialogue” and fastidiously avoid saying anything remotely critical about Islam, even as the Muslim persecution of Christians continues worldwide. [6]

It is in Uganda today. It will come here very soon. In a civilized society, there isn't this kind of a demand to eliminate entire cultures to appease immigrants. If that is what they are going to demand, I suggest we get rid of the immigrants. This is America, not a third world sandbox that hasn't gotten out of the 7th-century ideology that has it trapped.
