

Islam Is Not Compatible With Civilized Society

Roger Anghis

One of the most ridiculous things I see in the form of a bumper sticker is the one using religious symbols spelling out Coexist. I don't know why but I don't think I've ever seen a man driving a car with that sticker. I'm not trying to be sexist, just truthful. It is obvious that the people that have that sticker don't have the ability to think for themselves. I'm not being rude, I'm pointing out the obvious.

If one takes the time to even lightly research the history of islam, they would scrape that sticker off of their car because there is no historical evidence that islam can co-exist with other religions. The only time they do is when there are so few islamists that they have no ability to be the force they want to be.

People say that they are 'co-existing' in America now so they can co-exist. Looking at the statistics they are one of the smallest minorities in America. Recent political debates over Muslim immigration and related issues have prompted many people to ask how many Muslims actually live in the United States. But coming up with an answer is not easy, in part because the U.S. Census Bureau does not ask questions about religion, meaning there is no official government count of the U.S. Muslim population.

Still, based on our own survey and demographic research, as well as outside sources, Pew Research Center estimates that there were about 3.45 million Muslims of all ages living in the U.S. in 2017, and that Muslims made up about 1.1% of the total U.S. population. [1] Even though they are a very small minority it hasn't stopped them from flexing their muscle here. Keep in mind that muslims immigrate for only one reason and that is to begin the take over of the government where they immigrate. A document was found in Falls Church, Virginia in 2004 that explains, in part, their overall plan: The following is the official document from a 1991 meeting which outlines the Muslim Brotherhood's strategic goals for North America. The document was entered as evidence in the 2008 Holy Land Terror Funding Trial. Federal investigators found the document in the home of Ismael Elbarasse, a founder of the Dar Al-Hijrah mosque in Falls Church, Virginia, during a 2004 search. Elbarasse was a member of the Palestine Committee, which the Muslim Brotherhood had created to support Hamas in the United States.

"The process of settlement is a 'Civilization-Jihadist Process' with all the word means. The Ikhwan [Muslim Brotherhood] must understand that their work in America is a kind of grand jihad in eliminating and destroying the Western civilization from within and 'sabotaging' its miserable house by their hands and the hands of the believers..."

"[W]e must possess a mastery of the art of 'coalitions', the art of 'absorption' and the principles of 'cooperation.'"

"A list of our organizations and the organizations of our friends" – This is where the Muslim Brotherhood listed its front groups in the U.S.. Note that prominent organizations like CAIR, ISNA, ICNA, and others are named here. [2]

If we don't stay awake and pay attention to what is going on we will lose this great experiment called America. I am ashamed to say that my generation, the baby boomers, are the ones that let this get way too out of hand. We have not paid attention to who we put in office, the laws that they passed and have allowed this nation to go in a direction that our Founders would find appalling.

For those that think that muslims don't have the take over of America in mind need to hear the words of the founder of CAIR Omar Ahmad: According to a local newspaper report, Omar Ahmad, a founder of CAIR, told a conference hall packed with California Muslims in July 1998 that Islam isn't in America to be equal to any other faith, but to become dominant.

The reporter paraphrased Ahmad saying, "The Quran ... should be the highest authority in America, and Islam the only accepted religion on earth." [3] This is the comments of an organization that has a goal. They have denied that Omar made this comment but the reporter and the paper stand by their story.

When looking at the principles of islam there is no one that is sane that can state that this ideology, I cannot call it a religion, is in any way compatible with any civilized society. They have never assimilated into any society that they have migrated to. Once they reach a certain percentage of the population, they begin to assert their influence wherever they can. They are to a point in America with just the 1.1% that they have begun to make certain statements concerning their supposed superiority over other religions and peoples. CAIR leader Mustafaa Carroll said that Muslims are above the law of the land and Sharia law supersedes the U.S. constitution. [4] He is telling those that follow that ideology that the laws of the land do not pertain to them because they are governed by shariah which in their opinion is above any law anywhere. They deny this saying that are to obey the laws but they also ignore them and follow their so-called holy book.

The imams, muslim 'spiritual' leaders, in America preach hate from their pulpits and declare that they can operate under shariah law with impunity. U.S Imam Abu Ammaar Yasir Kazi is a college professor at Rhodes College in Memphis, TN., who The New York Times Magazine describes is "one of the most influential conservative clerics in american islam. "He educates followers of Muhmmad to commit rape, theft, and murder in the United States. and he has not been arrested for inciting violence or hate crimes.

In his lectures to college students at an American college on American soil, Kazi compares Christians to feces and urine saying they are the "most evil of evils. "He shows his students to engage in jihad and fight all unbelievers until they convert to islam. Those who refuse to convert to islam, he says, should have their lives and property taken.

"Property," according to the Qur'an, includes women and children, which also includes taking women and children as sex slaves.

Kazi is not an extremist. He's actually teaching exactly what Muhammad said about jihad, conversion, Christians and Jews, as recorded in the Qur'an. [5]

This is the mindset that we are dealing with. It will be a battle for our culture, religion, and way of life and it may have to be violent.
