

Israel In The Crosshairs: Part 1 – A Soviet Psy-Op Second to None

If you tell a lie big enough and keep repeating it, people will eventually come to believe it. –Joseph Goebbels

PRELUDE

The aftermath of Hamas' Simchat Torah surprise attack on Israel has left us with definitive answers to several questions.

- The vaunted Two-State Solution, previewed in Hamas' barbaric October 7th massacre of Israeli civilians, is dead in the water.
- Arab Muslims are serious about wiping Israel off the map.
- Jew hatred is alive and well.
- And yes, it can happen again.

These are troubling discoveries, but we ignore the truth at our peril. And in that spirit, I'm going to forge ahead by not only commenting on the war between Hamas and Israel, but also by revisiting the history underlying this conflict in my article to follow.

But first I'd like to take a proverbial bird's eye view of the whole situation.

There are three groups currently vying for world control. They are: the Chinese Communists, Muslim fundamentalists, and the Luciferian globalist elites with their plan for a New World Order/One World Government/Great Reset.

We might also include the Nazis' vaunted plan for a Thousand Year Reich—but though we're seeing Nazi eugenicist elements involving the mRNA vaccines, etc., we can include this element as a subset within the globalist NWO cabal—though to give the Nazi's their due, the whole global plan is both communistic and fascistic in nature.

The Davos Elites, aka the globalist cabal, are the ultimate people without a state, as they have no loyalty to their own countries where they hold citizenship. Indeed, they coined the phrase "citizens of the world"—but that's ostensibly meant for We the Serfs, as they prod us closer and closer to their planned Global Government. They clearly plan to be "rulers of the world," not mere citizens. But they have no army or navy of their own, so how are they going to conquer the rest of us?

In part through the United Nations, which they fund generously—think about those whopping donations from great "philanthropists" like Bill Gates, who gave $1.2 billion in 2022 alone, Warren Buffett, who donates lavishly to the Gates Foundation which funds the UN and the WHO, and Ted Turner, who's given $1 billion to the UN since 1997, etc. In fact, what they have is trillions of dollars and control of many governments through bought-and-paid-for government officials. As they say, money talks.

And of course we know they plan to force us all to use a digital currency they control, while monitoring and surveilling us 24/7, so they can zap us with Social Credit Score violations, giving them excuses to turn off our access to our money. Shades of the Mark of the Beast, and a dastardly underhanded way to starve the “dissidents” to death who refuse their enslavement.

Still, they have no physical force, no shock troops, no military of their own.

ENTER THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS AND MUSLIM JIHADIST ARABS

Hypothetically speaking, wouldn't it be possible for the Luciferian elites to fund and otherwise help to inflame the Arab Muslim world, including Hamas and the Palestinians? Why have there been so many fruitless wars in the Middle East in the past two decades or so? And why was Europe forced to open its stable countries to hundreds of thousands of so-called “refugees” all from Muslim countries—i.e. jihadist refugees? Just think what a mess UNHCR, the UN Refugee Agency, has made of Europe. At the very least, they've destabilized Europe already, making a thorough takeover that much easier—and with the added benefit from their perspective, of making impressive inroads on destroying Western Civilization.

THEN AND NOW

Recall what Communism under Castro did to the previously flourishing tropical paradise of Cuba, or how Iran prospered and flourished under the Shah, who westernized and modernized the country, gave women the vote, and the right to abandon the chador in favor of Dior New Look glamorous outfits from Paris, etc. Then came Khomeini, the militant Islamist, and suddenly women were not only deprived of many rights, but covered from head to toe in heavy chadors or hijabs, leaving only their eyes visible. No wonder so many fled to the West! It was as if Khomeini thrust them into a time machine that took them back to the 7th century.

These two ideologies, Communism and Islam—which is an ideology as well as a religion—both rule with an iron fist. The resultant oppression, misery and poverty of the people in such nations seems unavoidable. The common denominator? Tyranny—exactly what our Founders sought to guard against in America.

And speaking of America, remember when we learned Chinese soldiers were training in Canada, near our northern border? Or that hidden among migrants trooping into America over our non-existent southern border under O'Biden's regime, are military-aged men some of whom are from Muslim countries and likely jihadists? Do you think that the kind of killing spree and horrific massacre we witnessed on October 7th in Israel could never happen here?

But regardless of what evils the jihadist Muslims and Communist Chinese may yet inflict on other nations, I believe at present they are dangerous pawns in the hands of the psychopathic billionaire "elites." It remains to be seen if either or both of the Frankensteinian monsters that currently serve the elites' purpose, will turn on them in the end.

ISRAEL IN THE CROSSHAIRS, PART ONE: A SOVIET PSY-OP SECOND TO NONE

Suppose I were to tell you that the entire narrative about the Palestinians having lost their country was a fiction, a contrivance—a psy-op designed to enlist people's sympathy for the Arabs living in Gaza and the West Bank, and to provoke anger towards Israel. In that case there would be no "Palestinians" since there never was a country called Palestine—a region, yes; a nation, no.

Who then would the Arab residents of Gaza be? Mostly Egyptians. And the so-called Palestinians in the so-called West Bank? Mostly Jordanians.

And if this were true, would you regard the current situation in Israel in the same light? Here's another question:

If there never was an Arab country named Palestine, then what would be the meaning of the phrase, "From the river to the sea, Palestine shall be free"? It could only mean one thing: that Israel, the country nestled between the Jordan River and the Mediterranean Sea, would be eradicated, leaving no Jewish state in the Middle East.

One more point to underscore: if there was no nation of Palestine, there was no country stolen from the so-called Palestinians.

Well, hang on to your hats—it just so happens that the seemingly fanciful propositions I listed above are actually true.

Dr. Thomas McCall explains it thus:

It was not until the Romans crushed the second Jewish revolt against Rome in 135 A.D. under Bar Kochba that Emperor Hadrian applied the term Palestine to the Land of Israel. ... He took the name of the ancient enemies of Israel, the Philistines, Latinized it to Palestine, and applied it to the Land of Israel. He hoped to erase the name Israel from all memory. Thus, the term Palestine as applied to the Land of Israel was invented by the inveterate enemy of the Bible and the Jewish people, Emperor Hadrian.

... the original Philistines were not Middle Eastern at all. They were European peoples from the Adriatic sea next to Greece... the original "Palestinians" had nothing to do, whatsoever, with any Arabs.

Victor Sharpe, author of the four-volume work Politicide: The Attempted Murder of the Jewish State, sums it up this way: "Arafat twisted history and reality to disinherit the indigenous native Jewish people of the land."

He quotes British author Melanie Phillips:

For decades, the Arabs have promoted the big lie that they are the indigenous people of the land, that the Jews were the colonizers who deprived them of their rights and that the Israelis continue to oppress and practice "genocide" against them. Every part of that is not only untrue but it is the "Palestinians" who seek aggressive conquest and the Israelis who are victims of their terror.

And Joseph Farah, founder of WND.com and a Christian Arab himself, has this to say:

There has never been a land known as Palestine governed by Palestinians. Palestinians are Arabs, indistinguishable from Jordanians (another recent invention), Syrians, Iraqis, etc. Keep in mind that the Arabs control 99.9 per cent of the Middle East lands. Israel represents one-tenth of one per cent of the landmass. But that's too much for the Arabs. They want it all.

THE SOVIET/COMMUNIST CONNECTION

This begs the question: Who got the ball rolling regarding this fictional narrative? So let's take a look at the origin of the Palestinian psy-op that by now is deeply ingrained in the media and the public square.

As described in great detail by historian David Meyer

Levy in his book History Upside Down: The Roots of Palestinian Fascism and the Myth of Israeli Aggression, the psy-op got its legs in the late 1960's when radical Muslim Yasser Arafat was told by North Vietnamese leader Ho Chi Minh's General Giap, "Stop talking about annihilating Israel and instead turn your terror war into a struggle for human rights. Then you will have the American people eating out of your hand." Worked like a charm...

Though we have to give the Soviets credit for originating the fiction of the victimized Palestinians. It was pure Soviet disinfo, hatched along with their creation of the Palestinian Liberation Organization (PLO)—one of their many fake "liberation" organizations in the 60s and 70s, along with those the Soviets pursued in Bolivia, Colombia, and Armenia.

Moreover, Egyptian-born Arafat, soon to become the leader of the PLO (Palestinian Liberation Organization), was coached by the masters, including Romanian Communist dictator Ceausescu. Here's a telling fact:

In the PLO Charter preamble they actually had to use the phrase “Palestinian Arab People” to exclude those Jews who had retained a presence in Palestine since Biblical times and had been a majority population in Jerusalem as early as 1845.

In other words, in the region referred to as “Palestine”—which is basically a synonym for The Holy Land, The Promised Land, Zion, and Israel itself—there were Palestinian Jews, Arabs and Christians.

Interestingly, Arafat proved an unruly pupil at first, fixated on obliterating Israel and impatient with the Soviet subterfuge. But he eventually got with the Soviet program after Ceausescu worked on him:

Romanian Communist dictator Ceausescu, at Soviet urging, persuaded Arafat to abandon his claim of wanting to annihilate the Jews in Israel in favor of “liberating the Palestinian People” in Israel.

That it was a deception was admitted by PLO members themselves. For instance, in 1977, in an interview for a Dutch newspaper, PLO board member Zahir Muhsein stated that... there is no such thing as the “Palestinian People”, that the term’s use is a political ploy, and there is no quest for political self-determination –as soon as the Jews have been wiped out, sovereignty would be turned over to Jordan.

And Hafez Assad is on record stating that prior to 1964, Arabs we’re told are Palestinians, called themselves “citizens of Greater Syria.”

All this and more can be found in an article by Wallace Edward Brand, entitled, Soviet Russia, the Creators of the PLO and the Palestinian People. Through Soviet Orwellian doublespeak, jihad became “liberation,” and tiny Israel surrounded by hostile Arab Muslim nations became an “oppressor,” while the jihadists were recast as freedom fighters and oppressed victims, in a seemingly diabolical inversion of reality.

Ion Mihai Pacepa, the highest ranking Soviet defector of all time, was one of Arafat's coaches. Here's his revelation from a conversation he had with KGB Chairman Yury Andropov:

According to Andropov, the Islamic world was a waiting petri dish in which we could nurture a virulent strain of America-hatred, grown from the bacterium of Marxist-Leninist thought. Islamic anti-Semitism ran deep. The Muslims had a taste for nationalism, jingoism, and victimology. Their illiterate, oppressed mobs could be whipped up to a fever pitch.

Lt. Gen. Ion Mihai Pacepa, Red Horizons, Washington, D.C.: Regnery Gateway Press (1987)

CHRONICLES OF A COMMUNIST SPY CHIEF IN ROMANIA

Ion Mihai Pacepa is a former three-star general in the Securitate, the secret police of communist Romania, and was a trusted advisor to the Romanian President Nicolae Ceausescu. He defected to the United States in July 1978 after receiving a grant of political asylum by U.S. President Jimmy Carter. He subsequently worked with the American CIA in operations against the former Eastern Bloc of Cold War communist nations. His book RED HORIZONS details his role as a top aide to Ceausescu in the 1970s and his fateful decision to defect from Romania, knowing he would become a target for assassination by paid undercover agents of the Ceausescu regime. He now lives somewhere in the United States under an assumed identity. Pacepa's book has been published in 27 countries and was made into a documentary film for Hungarian television. It has been said that most of the accusations made against Nicolae and Elena Ceausescu at their 1989 trial, at the end of which they were executed by firing squad, came word-for-word from Pacepa's book.

shocking confession:

"In the mid 1970s, the KGB ordered my [Rumanian intelligence] service, the DIE- to scour the country for trusted party activists belonging to various Islamic ethnic groups, train them in disinformation and terrorist operations, and infiltrate them into the countries of our "sphere of influence.” Their task was to export a rabid, demented hatred for American Zionism by manipulating the ancestral abhorrence for Jews felt by the people in that part of the world.

In the mid-1970s we also started showering the Islamic world with an Arabic translation of the Protocols of the Elders of Zion, a tsarist Russian forgery that had been used by Hitler as the foundation for his anti-Semitic philosophy. We also disseminated a KGB-fabricated “documentary” paper in Arabic alleging that Israel and its main supporter, the United States, were Zionist countries dedicated to converting the Islamic world into a Jewish colony.

We in the Soviet bloc tried to conquer minds, because we knew we could not win any military battles. (Emphasis mine.)

And conquer minds they did, as one can see today by reading anti-Semitic and pro-Hamas articles galore in the news and online, and many more in readers’ comments. In fact, I’ve come across whole websites that spew the anti-Semitic rubbish about Zionists planning to take over the world, as well as people referring to the long-debunked “Protocols of the Elders of Zion” as if they’d just found the Holy Grail.

Of course myths die hard, and this one has become so entrenched many people will likely experience cognitive dissonance when learning the truth, and be tempted to shut it out. Nevertheless, it is essential to understand the actual facts if we’re to keep our moral compasses pointed to the true north.
