

Are the CFR conspirators trying to overthrow Trump

In a previous article I explained how the CFR globalist conspirators created the Central Intelligence Agency only to protect and advance their own interests, and how the Agency has never worked for the American people.[\[1\]](#) It seems that currently they are using their CIA to overthrow President-Elect Donald Trump.

Granted, this is not the first time the CFR conspirators have used the CIA to overthrow world leaders who don't comply with their wishes. Just a few years after they created the CIA in 1948, they used it to overthrow the Prime Minister of Iran and the President of Guatemala.

Initially, the CIA was structurally divided into four different directorates: Intelligence, Support, Administration, and Plans, each one headed by a Deputy Director. Eventually the Directorate of Administration disappeared, and the Directorate of Science and technology was created. As is everything related to the CIA, however, the name "Directorate of Plans" was intentionally highly misleading. It actually had to do with the armed branch of the CIA, the one devoted to covert military operations of sabotage, subversion, terrorism, and psychological warfare.

After the end of World War II, Allen Dulles served as a government consultant in matters of intelligence. In 1948, after the CIA's "failure" to forecast Colombia's Bogotazo riots of April 9, 1948, Dulles was appointed to chair a three-man commission responsible for assessing the U.S. intelligence system and the CIA's failure to predict the Bogotazo.[\[2\]](#)

The Dulles Report of 1949 (also known as the "Dulles-Jackson-Correa Report”) was a hatchet job on CIA Director Admiral Roscoe Hillenkoetter. It held Hillenkoetter responsible for what it considered a major and ongoing failure in intelligence coordination.[\[3\]](#) It is interesting to see that the common explanation for CIA’s alleged “failures” –not connecting the dots for lack of inter-agency communication– was an excuse invented less than a year after the Agency was created and the CFR conspirators have consistently continued using it ad nauseam. One of the latest examples was the 9/11 Commission Report.

Hillenkoetter was a professional military man, the first CIA Director and the third Director of Central Intelligence of three short-tenured directors of a transitional organization called the Central Intelligence Group –the first two had been Admiral Sidney Souers and General Hoyt Vandenberg. When in the spring of 1947 the Central Intelligence Group was renamed Central Intelligence Agency, Admiral Hillenkoetter, who was not under the control of the CFR conspirators, became CIA’s first Director.

As a result of Dulles’ biased report and his conspiratorial activities behind the curtains, supported by undersecretary of State Robert Lovett (CFR-controlled, Skull & Bones) and Robert Blum (CFR), an aide to Defense Secretary James Forrestal (CFR),[\[4\]](#) in October 1950 Hillenkoetter was substituted by General Walter Bedell Smith, a CFR member.[\[5\]](#) A year later, in 1951, Dulles was made CIA’s Deputy Director for Plans, the CIA’s clandestine arm in charge of covert operations.

Two years later, in 1953, CFR agent President Dwight D. Eisenhower appointed Allen Dulles Director of Central Intelligence and CIA Director. Finally, the CFR conspirators were in full command of the aberrant monster they had created: the CIA. The very same year he was appointed CIA Director, Dulles and his Wall Street masters used the CIA to overthrow the Iranian nationalist leader, Prime Minister Mohammed Mossadegh.

In 1928 the Rockefeller's Standard Oil, the Royal Dutch-Shell, and the Anglo-Iranian Oil Company had formed a powerful oil cartel. But Mossadegh nationalized Iran's oil production, breaking the oil cartel. This action sealed Mossadegh's fate. Some American oil companies, in which Dulles was directly involved, feared their interests had been threatened by Mossadegh's nationalist views. In 1953 Dulles used the newly created CIA's covert action branch to overthrow Mossadegh by a CIA planned and executed coup d'état. The CIA had used its covert action capacity not to protect the interests of the American people, but the interests of the CFR conspirators.

✖ The Iranian operation was so successful, that they repeated it a year later. In 1954 the CIA planned and executed Operation Ajax, the coup d'état that overthrew Guatemala's democratically-elected head of state President Jacobo Arbenz. The reason for this was not because Arbenz threatened the American people but because, a few months after being elected, he nationalized some unused land owned by the United Fruit Company.

Allen Dulles and his brother John Foster Dulles were partners in the Wall Street law firm of Sullivan & Cromwell. Among their important clients was the Rockefeller-owned United Fruit. With John Foster Dulles heading the State Department and Allen Dulles heading the CIA, they were the czars of Eisenhower's foreign policy, and they made sure that the interests of Sullivan & Cromwell clients weren't ignored.

The Guatemalan coup, which cost American taxpayers $20 million (a considerable amount of money at the time), was perhaps a setback for American interests in Latin America, because it reinforced the image of an imperial U.S. forcibly affecting the destinies of her Latin American neighbors. It was, however, a total success for CIA director Allen Dulles and his powerful CFR masters.

The Mossadegh and Arbenz operations were so successful that the CFR conspirators have repeated the same procedure again and again with good results. Some years later they repeated it again in Chile.

In 1973, after a long process of destabilization carried out by both the CIA and Fidel Castro, democratically-elected Chilean President Salvador Allende was overthrown by a coup d'état. The Agency had run a powerful propaganda campaign against Allende, directed at convincing the conservative middle classes that Allende was a Stalinist would-be despot and a tool of Moscow and Castro. On his part, Castro carried out a propaganda campaign directed at convincing the Left that Allende was not radical enough.

It was not a coincidence that John McCone (CFR), a former CIA Director, headed ITT, one of the U.S. corporations actively involved in the coup. Also, war criminal Henry Kissinger (CFR) played an active role in the coup against Allende.

But the CIA's nefarious activities have not been limited to actions abroad. Despite the fact that the CIA is not supposed to act in US territory, CFR agents infiltrated inside the Agency have used it to overthrow at least two American presidents: John F. Kennedy and Richard Nixon, and were very close to overthrowing President Reagan to bring their secret agent George H.W. Bush into the White House.

What is new, however, is that the CFR conspirators are currently using the CIA in a desperate effort to overthrow not a sitting US president but a President Elect. Now, in order to fully understand why the CFR conspirators are planning such an unprecedented thing we need to really understand what really happened in the past presidential election.

If you believe what the mainstream media and the disinformers of both sides of the Repucratic coin are trying to make us believe, the past election was a victory for Republican candidate Donald Trump over Democratic candidate Hillary Clinton. Moreover, it was a victory for conservative Americans in their fight against liberal, progressives.

Nothing could be farther from the truth. The result of the past election was not a victory for Donald Trump. Actually, it was a calamitous defeat for the forces behind the New Gay World Order, particularly the CFR conspirators and their minions.

To top it off, Trump's election by the American people has coincided with the Brexit, the growing collapse of the European Union, Russia's strong opposition to their New Gay World Order, the CFR's failure to overthrow Assad in Syria to give control of the whole Middle East to extremist Muslims, the refusal of Philippine's President Duterte to play their game, and the Colombian people's rejection of a Peace Accord with the murderous, corrupt FARC guerrilla.[\[6\]](#)

No wonder the CFR conspirators are so nervous and concerned about their future. It seems, though, that they still refuse to accept the reality of their defeat and are desperately planning to avoid at all costs that Donald Trump becomes the next president of the United States – even if to avoid it they have to push America into a nuclear Armageddon. The CIA, Obama, and their lapdog John McCain, a traitor and one of the most despicable characters of American politics, are working hard to push America into it.

Currently, the same people who told us that Saddam Hussein was stockpiling weapons of mass destruction in Iraq are now desperately trying to delegitimize Trump by claiming that the Russian government influenced the results of the election. Moreover, impostor Barry Soetoro has declared that he plans to stay in Washington D.C. with Michael in order to create a “shadow government” to fight President Trump.[\[7\]](#) Now, given the fact that Soetoro is a mentally-retarded moron, one has to conclude that his “shadow government” will be fully under the control of the Invisible Government controlled by the Wall Street bankers, oil magnates and CEOs of transnational corporations ensconced at the Council on Foreign Relations in Manhattan.

Nevertheless, we should not be surprised by the globalist conspirators' knee-jerk reaction. They have plenty of reasons to be scared to death.

It is evident that one of Trump's goals is to disassemble the New Gay World Order machinery the globalist conspirators have so carefully been assembling during the past hundred years. An investigation of Obama's true place of birth may bring him to a long vacation in a federal prison and will automatically invalidate all his executive orders and maybe even his nominations to the Supreme Court. An investigation into Hillary's shady deals through her Foundation may send her to join Obama. An investigation of McCain's activities at the Hanoi Hilton may uncover his dirtiest secret. An investigation of the roles of George W. Bush, Dick Cheney and other CFR members in the 9/11 events may bring stiff penalties to them and their accomplices. Even worse, an investigation of the treacherous role of the Council on Foreign Relations may result in its destruction.[\[8\]](#)

Obviously, the CFR conspirators cannot risk these possibilities. For them, preventing a Trump presidency is a matter of life or death.

During a 1992 interview with Sarah McLendon, at the time a senior journalist of the White House press corps, George G.W. Bush told her: "Sarah, if the American people ever find out what we have done, they would chase us down the street and lynch us."[\[9\]](#) Well, currently a large majority of the American people has found out, and apparently the CFR conspirators have not yet realized that the only person who stands between them and the lynch mobs is Donald Trump. He is their only chance they have to solve this problem in a legal, civilized way.

So, the traitorous CFR conspirators should tread carefully, and not underestimate Trump and his allies. The fact that he has already selected for this cabinet several prestigious retired military officers indicates that he is prepared for any contingency, including an attempt at coup d'état.

The best the CFR conspirators should do is accept their defeat, keep their agents and puppets under a tight leash, and avoid an incident that may bring them dire consequences.

In his study of the first years of the CIA, The Central Intelligence Agency: An Instrument of Government to 1950 (University Park, Pennsylvania: The Pennsylvania State University Press, 1990), Arthur B. Darling, the Agency's first official historian and a scholar of honor and integrity, heavily criticized the Dulles-Jackson-Correa report. When Allen Dulles became CIA Director in 1953 he restricted access to Darling's study, which was not made public until 1990.
4. Forrestal eventually became one of the CFR's strongest critics, but at the time of the Hillenkoetter affair he was still under the control of the conspirators. Like many CFR critics, Forrestal committed suicide under strange circumstances.

5. In honor to truth, at that time even some CFR members were not fully under the control of the CFR conspirators. I think General Bedell Smith was one of them.

6. According to some analysts, the main reason why the “No” won the plebiscite was because of the several mentions of special treatment for LGBT people. Given the fact that the initial document allegedly was created in Cuba, I have the feeling that it was actually written at the CFR.
