

It's Not Our Government in DC

By Lex Greene

The time has come for all Americans to come to terms with the reality that the government in DC is not our government right now. Almost no one in DC power is of, by, or for us! Only fools honestly believe that “the people” elected these anti-American criminals currently in charge.

For starters, a government for the American people would live within the authority we granted it in the Declaration of Independence, the Constitution and Bill of Rights...our Charters of Freedom. This government isn't even close in this regard. 80% of what the federal government is doing today is unconstitutional on its face. The machinery built by taxpayers to protect and defend the People and our Constitutional Republic is being used to destroy it all.

A government for the American people would not...

- Spy on and track its lawful citizens
- Attempt to disarm its lawful citizens
- Destroy our economy
- Start wars all over the globe
- Leave billions of military assets to the Taliban
- Make excuses for known terrorists, like Hamas, Islamic Jihad, Hezbollah, and Iran
- Negotiate with terrorists
- Falsely accuse rally goers of an insurrection
- Collapse the US Dollar
- Fund known terror states and their proxy jihadis

- Promote an ongoing foreign invasion of our country
- Silence free speech
- Use federal force to punish those of opposing political views
- Control all mass media including social media
- Force and coerce human gene (mRNA/DNA) experiments on its people
- Try to eliminate all political opponents
- Assassinate whistleblowers
- Undermine and manipulate legitimate elections
- Work to dumb down and drug up all future generations
- Encourage the murder of innocent children in the womb
- Fill college lecture halls with anti-American Marxist professors
- Promote thousands of blatant lies as if they become truth, once spoken often enough

Once again, the list could go on for quite a while here, but if you don't get the point by now, you never will.

The current US Federal Government is not currently of, by, or for the American people...any of the American people. It has become entirely destructive of its sole intended purpose and right to even exist.

In the USA, "all political power is derived from the consent of the governed," us... As established in our first founding document, "We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain inalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness." – "That whenever any Form of Government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the Right of the People to alter or to abolish it, and to institute new Government, laying its foundation on such principles and organizing its powers in such form, as to them shall seem most likely to affect their Safety and Happiness."

Every day for decades now, I have received mail from deeply concerned Americans asking “How can this be? How can this happen? How is this able to continue?”

The answer is always the same...so long as good people do nothing in the face of evil, those with evil intent can do anything they want. It won't stop until someone stops it.

But for more than a hundred years now, the American people have failed to be “forever vigilant” in protection of their own freedom. While we were busy making a living, raising a family, enjoying the fruits of our labor, our country was stolen from us, right out from under our noses.

After more than a century of neglect by the People themselves, we now have so many problems in so many different areas that a vast majority of citizens feel “there's nothing we can do.” To be certain, at this late date, the challenge of regaining control of our own country is a daunting task at best. Yet, two things remain true – quitters never win, and winners never quit.

You can't finish a race if you won't leave the starting gate – or win the race if you quit before you cross the finish line.

Saving our Constitutional Republic isn't a sprint or 40-yard dash, it's a marathon. One person can't do the job. A team of determined citizens have to do the job. Politicians don't want the job and neither do the lawyers sitting on federal courts across the country. There's no one to save the people but the people themselves, and there never has been.

The truth is, throughout human history, there has never been a government deserving of the people's trust. Americans are just learning this again, the hard way.

“When in the Course of human events, it becomes necessary for one people to dissolve the political bands which have connected them with another, and to assume among the powers of the earth, the separate and equal station to which the Laws of Nature and of Nature's God entitle them..."

The attacks on our freedom, peace, and prosperity, even the fundamental Right to Life itself, from the halls of our own Federal Government, far exceed those that drove our nation's Founders to declare our independence from King George and England 247 years ago.

What happened on July 4, 1776, was a true "insurrection" to overthrow British rule in our country. What happened on January 6, 2021, was not even remotely close to any form of an insurrection. The events of that day were labeled an insurrection by those who should be overthrown today, allowing them to use treason statutes to prosecute political opponents. Even the FBI concluded its investigation with "there's no evidence of an insurrection or even an organized riot."

Americans haven't just been missing in action in terms of being forever vigilant in protection of their own freedom, many have been missing in action when it comes to raising their own children as well. That's why we see thousands of young students so easily manipulated into our streets in support of the most blood-thirsty brutal terrorists to ever roam the earth.

But the good news about being the problem is we can also be the solution. We held the power to allow this hell to exist. Therefore, we hold the power to stop this hell by simply turning an about-face and doing the opposite of what we have been doing for decades. Our silence can no longer be our consent.

The future of this country does not rest in the hands of corrupt criminal politicians unless the People allow it to rest in their hands.

Once we know we are headed in the wrong direction, all we have to do is reverse direction. When what we've been doing, or not doing, brought us to where we are today, to go the opposite direction means we have to change course within ourselves.

Personally, I don't care what political party someone affiliates with. They are either pro-America or anti-America, and both are found in all political parties today, including the so-called "independents."

It's either AMERICA FIRST ALWAYS... or it's the end of the America we once knew.

The choice isn't left to any politician or judge... it's in our hands.

America always has been and always will be what we make it, or what we allow it to become! The buck stops with us!
