Like a couple million other Americans I was watching Megyn Kelly's show (I drop in on those anchors a few minutes here and there) when the camera panned to what appeared to be a Dallas police officer face down on the pavement. My first thought was not again. Of course we all know how it turned out. The fruits of vile "entertainers" like Beyoncé and racist domestic terrorist organizations like Black Lives Matter who feed lies to the vulnerable aided by agenda driven politicians in DC and equally in the media was coming to fruition.

Beyoncé's so-called performance at the Super Bowl earlier this year was nothing but support for racist domestic terrorists like Black Lives Matter:

"However, police have argued that the imagery in the music video is anti-law enforcement, and her apparent tribute to the Black Panthers fell just as flat, given that group's history of tensions with authorities. Departments across the country have been discussing symbolic stands against the singer, whose video also featured imagery closely aligned with the #BlackLivesMatters movement. One scene in the "Formation" video features a young African-American boy in a hoodie dancing in front of a line of police officers wearing riot gear; then, the words "Stop Shooting Us" appear in graffiti on a wall." After Dallas Beyoncé tuned it down some. Likely she doesn't want sales of the poison she sells to suffer from her racial bias.

The Dallas PD is a very diverse police force. While watching the sickening horror last Thursday night I saw Asian, Hispanic, black and white men and women wearing police uniforms. They ran toward the gun fire while trying to protect the protesters. #BlackLivesMatter Protester Describes How Dallas Police Saved His Life During Shootings. Not one black person interviewed that night or the next night supported what the shooter did – except some sick racist punks who celebrated. BLM agitators joyful about slaughter of "pigs"

Rapper Young Buck Calls for 'Riot': 'Shoot Back at These Crooked A Police': "Rapper Young Buck released a violent anthem Thursday calling for riots and the murder of police officers as five officers were shot and killed at a Black Lives Matter protest in Dallas, Texas late Thursday night." I sincerely hope his punk ass gets a visit from the FBI.

When white Americans are killed by a cop, Caucasians in this country don't riot, burn down their own communities or ambush and murder innocent police officers who had nothing to do with a shooting in another state. Even when the shooting death of a white American by a black officer seems like homicide at first glance, there's no rioting. There's no accusations that black or white cops are hunting down white Americans.

In 2014, a black police officer shot a 70-year old vet who was white. The police officer thought Mr. Canipe's cane was a shot gun; it happened in North Carolina. Fortunately Canipe lived. The police officer started crying while waiting for back u-p and medical: "I promise to God I thought it was a shotgun," Knox said in tears." The shooting was captured by the police car dash cam. No charges for SC deputy who shot 70-year-old NC man: "In the split seconds he had to assess the situation in the darkness his fear was entirely reasonable," Solicitor Kevin Brackett wrote in a letter to the State Law Enforcement Division."

LA officers Norris Greenhouse Jr. and Derrick Stafford, both black, shot and killed a 6-year old autistic boy named Jeremy Mardis (race: Caucasian) in Marksville, Louisiana. Both were indicted by a grand jury last December to stand trial for murder. As outraged as the community was there was no rioting by white Americans. They didn't go downtown and burn businesses. They waited for an investigation to run its course. In that case which I am familiar with, the grand jury came to the right decision.

An Unarmed White Man Just Got Shot By A Black Cop, And Silent Hypocrisy Is Everywhere. The police officer was cleared as a justified shooting. Taylor's family were outraged and filed a lawsuit against the Salt Lake City police department. There was no rioting, no shooting of innocent black cops in either that community or in other states.

Militant blacks in this country as well as political whores in Congress like those who belong to the Black Caucus (no White Caucus allowed), white members of the media who suffer from the absurd 'white guilt' propaganda and toilet scum like Chairwoman Mao (don't know who coined that moniker), that would be Hillary Clinton, completely ignore statistics based on hard facts. Hildebeast actually thinks what happened in Dallas is the fault of white Americans: "I'm going to be talking to white people. I think we're the ones who have to start listening to the legitimate cries that are coming from our African-American fellow citizens," she said."

Thankfully, there are black Americans who stand up to the propaganda, both on tv and the columns they write. Those Americans are trying to get black Americans to understand about black on black violence and that white cops are not out there everyday hunting down black Americans regardless of their ages – something Hillary the Hun refuses to do because it wouldn't get her votes from the very segment of society she exploits.

While President Obama Laments Dual Police Shootings, He Ignores Bloody Chicago

“Whatever the final facts in the two recent cases may or may not be, Obama's silence on the bloodletting in his adopted hometown is deafening. And shootings in Chicago, where his former Chief of Staff, Rahm Emanuel, is Mayor, have very little to do with confrontations with police.

“Race, on the other hand, is most certainly a major factor. Sadly, it is predominantly black on black violence in the Windy City, with the number of black victims this year, mostly between the ages of 18 and 35, four times higher than the death rate of all other races combined. In 2016, the Windy City has suffered 263 murdered blacks compared to only 60 Hispanics and 17 whites and other races...”The stats for 2015 and 2014 are similar in the lopsided representation of black shooters. In 2015, 94 of those identified as a shooter were black, 20 were Hispanic and 10 were white/other. In 2014, it was 99 black killers, 16 Hispanic and 12 white/others.”

Police officers are entitled to the presumption of innocence no matter how one might disagree when emotions are running high. Although that fairness in our legal system is not shared by some black Americans. During an interview session on FOX as the situation was unfolding in Dallas, the reporter ask if the officers involved in the shootings in Baton Rouge were entitled to the presumption of innocence. Blacks interviewed said no. There was video showing both shootings (Baton Rouge and Minnesota) – to a degree that is – and that's all that's necessary to hang the cops involved.

The shooting of Alton Sterling in Baton Rouge to me looks like a homicide. Deadly force can be used if an officer feels his life is in imminent danger, but if you watch the video, why couldn't two big officers subdue the man (reportedly they used a taser) instead of shooting him? If the investigation proves they murdered Sterling then they should go on trial. There are bad cops just like there are bad individuals in every sector of employment in this country. But, they should be treated equal under due process just like anyone else – regardless of their race.

The cop who shot Philando Castile (Minnesota) was not white, Jeronimo Yanez. I guess that doesn't matter to the herds out there now fanning the flames of hatred against white cops and Americans egged on by agenda driven racist organizations.

Black Lives Matter Protest, Disrupt Major Cities Throughout USA: "New Black Panthers and BlackLivesMatter activists protesting the deaths of Alton Sterling and Philando Castile were arrested and weapons were confiscated Saturday evening in Baton Rouge, Louisiana."

Some shootings are made 'high profile' by the media due to cell phones capturing some or even all of the shooting. But, they don't always tell the full story whether it's a black cop shooting/killing a white person or visa versa. That's why we have due process in this country. To protect the innocent from public lynch mobs. Yes, I can say that without being a racist. It is a figure of speech that's been around a long time and does not automatically mean what happened to innocent black Americans in the south for too long. In the old west 'lynch mob' was used when people took the law into their own hands and hung a horse thief without due process.

The racial cauldron out there was lit years ago by the racist criminal impostor in the White House and his buddy, former Attorney General Eric Holder. Barry Soetoro/Obama's sycophants out there as well as the race pimps in Congress. The media continue to deny it, but anyone who follows what's been going on in this country since 2009 can see the forest through the trees. We know who is behind the curtain pulling the strings. Think Marxist traitor, Valerie Jarrett for one. George Soros and his money funding militant black organizations. Race hustlers like Al Sharpton and Jesse Jackson reap the benefits while they manipulate blacks in this country to do their dirty bidding.

The people of Dallas and the governor of Texas have shown their support for all law enforcement:

Texas Lights Up Blue to Support Police. "The glow of the Texas Governor's Mansion bathed in blue light shined brightly to show support for not only the fallen officers in Dallas but all law enforcement officers in Texas.”

Dallas shootings: Police touched by outpouring of support. And, don't think for a moment it's all white folk. I watched interviews of black Americans in Dallas both the night of the slaughter and the next day. Not one of them supported killing police officers. Every one of them, men and women, said it was wrong and hurt their message. Many said pray for those officers killed and injured and their families. That needs to be the message across this country: Violence begets violence and doesn't solve a damn thing. The narrative being fed to black Americas that all white cops are racists has to be countered with facts, not emotion. This is so like the 1970s and the violence instigated by blacks who hate. I know because I was an adult during that time.

“Dallas Police chief's son shot dead a policeman before being fatally fired at by officers in a haunting string of gun violence relating to the top cop which has also left his former partner and brother dead.” His son was killed on Father's day. Chief Brown is a black American. I saw all the press conferences. The look of anguish on his face over five of his police officers slaughtered, seven others injured and two civilians shot was heart breaking. His personal loss is almost beyond words.

The Dallas shooter said he worked alone, but obviously had bigger plans: "Today bomb-making materials, guns and a bullet proof vest were found Johnson's home. Police confirmed that investigators were analysing his personal journal of combat tactics to see if it gave any indication over why he carried out the attack. A police spokesman said: "During the search of the suspect's home, detectives found bomb making materials, ballistic vests, rifles, ammunition, and a personal journal of combat tactics."

Freedom Watch founder Klayman files class action against

Obama, Farrakhan, Holder, Sharpton, Black Lives Matter over incitement, threats and killings of law enforcement and others
Lawsuit Filed In Dallas, Texas Today

(Dallas, Texas, July 9, 2016). "Today, Larry Klayman, a former prosecutor for the U.S. Department of Justice, founder of Judicial Watch and now Freedom Watch, and a former U.S. Senate Candidate in Florida, filed as lead plaintiff a class action lawsuit to redress the incitement, violence and killings of law enforcement and others, as occurred last Thursday in Dallas, Texas. The class action complaint filed today in the the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Texas (Klayman et. al v. Obama et. al, Civil Action Number 3:16-cv-2010)...Klayman had this to say upon the filing of this class action complaint:

"It's time that law enforcement, such as the plaintiffs in this case, including myself, come forward by peacefully attempting to use the legal system to redress the incitement, threats and killings provoked by the defendants in this class action case. I am hopeful that I will be joined by other law enforcement to join in the suit. For too long, law enforcement and others, including white and non-white Jews and Christians, have remained silent, scared to speak and act, for fear of being branded racists over the fear of being threatened and harmed by the defendants and their accomplices. This must stop and justice must be done to preserve the integrity of our great nation and to avoid an all out race war that will destroy the freedom that our Founding Fathers dedicated their sacred honor, their fortunes and risked their lives for."

The full list of defendants are: Barack Hussein Obama, Louis Farrakhan, Eric Holder, Al Sharpton, Rashad Turner, leader of the Black Lives movement, Opal Tometi, co-founder and leader of the Black Lives movement, Patrisse Cullors, co-founder and leader of the Black Lives movement and #blacklivesmatter network, Alicia Garza, same as Cullors and Deray McKesson, leader of the Black Lives movement. Larry should have added

“leaders” of the New Black Panthers. (Deray McKesson was arrested in Baton Rouge. Photos of the ‘black power’ useful fools.)

I read the entire complaint. He didn’t miss anything. While the complaint is long, I hope you can find the time to read it. I don’t know how this will do in the courts with so many activist judges on the bench, but I commend Larry for filing the suit. Go after the head of the snake and the enablers. Just like I wrote in my column regarding illegal aliens: Illegal aliens: declaring war on the enablers

Americans of all races and ethnic categories: Join together and reject the racism of thugs who are little more than domestic terrorists intent on anarchy and starting a race war to further their evil agenda. We do not want our country to turn into a war zone.

[Just a short note about 9/11 and Smart Electric Meters. The cost of America’s undeclared “war” (invasion) in Afghanistan has now reached $1 trillion borrowed dollars – massive debt heaped on us all based on what happened on 9/11. Regular readers of my column know I continue to press for the truth about the events of 9/11. Military grade nanothermite is not a conspiracy theory. It was found and tested from the rubble at the twin towers. A new, powerful film has been released: The Anatomy of a Great Deception. Just released: New Expanded Global Edition. For full disclosure I receive no compensation, but I want you to get a copy (or a few) and share it with others or give a copy as a present. I've purchased half a dozen copies and given them to individuals I believe seek the truth. It's very powerful simply because it's one 'ordinary' man's story who ask a simple question that led him to a not so simple journey. There is factual information in this film that many have never heard about but everyone should. Just a suggestion, order more than one and give one to a friend.
