

Life Is Tough; It's Even Tougher If You're Stupid: John Wayne

“When once a Republic is corrupted, there is no possibility of remedying any of the growing evils but by removing the corruption and restoring its lost principles; every other correction is either useless or a new evil.” ~ Thomas Jefferson

At this time in history, the American people are being led by the most corrupt president ever to live in the White House. While he dodders through the day both physically, mentally and emotionally--we, the American people, are left to pick-up the nightmare that he has created on our Southern Border. We are left to pick up the pieces of Ukraine and Israel. We are left with the understanding that our basic citizenship has been erased. We are left with accelerating crime, accelerating violence, and accelerating denouncement of our country from within our country. We are left with terrorists within our midst. We're left with drug pushers in every city in America.

John Wayne said it succinctly: “Life is tough; It's even tougher if you're stupid.”

What about an entire country devolving into sheer stupidity, ignorance, and loss of common sense? What do you do when our own leaders won't or can't lead? What do you do when our own governors and mayors of our states and cities break our most basic laws? What do you do when our national leaders refuse to enforce the U.S. Constitution?

The mainstream media ignores reality of the short and long-term consequences of Biden's dementia.

"We can evade reality, but we cannot evade the consequences of evading reality" ~ Ayn Rand

Well, the morons running New York City, Detroit, Michigan, Minneapolis, Minnesota, Denver, Colorado, Miami, Florida, Los Angeles, California and San Francisco--are discovering you cannot evade the consequences of reality. They invited "reality" into their cities, and now, that reality is destroying the existence of their own citizens. We're talking the reality of our destroyed educational systems. We're talking about the fear of walking down a city street. We're talking about 100,000 drug-overdose deaths annually. We're talking about $100 billion in shoplifting, annually in the USA.

Writer Steve Rossiter said, "For at least the last 50 years, Americans have evaded the reality that all levels of American government are fraught with criminally corrupt individual officials both elected and Deep State employed "corruptocrats." This insidious corruption involves all three branches of government from the top of the federal government down to local political party central committees."

Can you name the most corrupt of those people in Washington DC? I can: Joe Biden, Kamala Harris, Nancy Pelosi, Maxine Waters, Charles Schumer, Ms. Jackson Lee, Ilhan Omar, Rashida Tlaib, Hillary Clinton, and list grows. Who are the most stupid? Maxine Waters leads the pack, but Georgia's Hank Johnson thinks too much weight on one side of the Island of Guam would tip it over.

As a 27 year old staff attorney for the House Judiciary Committee, Ms. Hillary Clinton suffered firing by her supervisor, lifelong democrat Jerry Zeifman who said, "She is a liar. She was unethical and dishonest. She conspired to violate the Constitution, the rules of the House, the rules of the committee and the rules of confidentiality."

If you remember the murders at the U.S. embassy in Benghazi that suffered a terrorist attack that killed four people, her reply, "What difference – at this point, what difference does it make?"

Barack Obama continued the cover-up of his incompetence in not fortifying the embassy and ignoring all calls for help. Good men died because of malfeasance and ineptitude.

In my own state of Colorado, House Member Lauren Boebert must prove herself an infantile, non-descript, and totally inept politician.

Following her are my two U.S. Senators: John Hickenlooper and Michael Bennet. Both veteran politicians who have done more to harm Colorado and America with their open borders lawlessness. But then, look at your own two senators and House member--the majority of them refuse to enforce our laws.

Rossiter continued, "No matter what it is called, it's bribery none the less. The quickest way to assess the degree of bribery an elected official has accepted is to compare his or her net worth prior to entering office and current net worth. No matter whether the elected official is in the administrative branch of government, the legislative branch of government, or elected to the judicial branch of government, if the individual's net worth increases more than a reasonable person would expect it to do on their government salary, corruption is likely in play. When corruption is in play, that bribe money becomes more important than the job they were hired to do by the voters."

"Show me a man that gets rich by being a politician, and I'll show you a crook.” ~ Harry S. Truman

Notice that Nancy Pelosi has LIVED in Congress for three decades, uses military private jets to go home on weekends, and is worth over $100 million from insider trading on defense contracts. Ever wonder why she voted to keep Afghanistan and Iraq Wars going for 20 years?

Lord Acton said, “Power corrupts; absolute power corrupts absolutely.”

Our country stands eyeball-deep in debt, violence, lawlessness, 40 million plus illegal aliens, corruption, drugs and worse--yet we keep voting those corrupt people back into office year after year, decade after decade.

“Experience hath shewn, that even under the best forms of government those entrusted with power have, in time, and by slow operations, perverted it into tyranny.” ~ Thomas Jefferson

How much longer will this country last?
