

Mr. President, Please Give Up on a Nobel Peace Prize

President Trump's "peace plan" for the Middle East will fail, for the same reason he cannot stop the war on Ukraine – Russia. Vladimir Putin uses violence and terrorism to achieve his goals, and this will never stop until his regime is replaced.

President Reagan recognized Soviet Russia as the evil empire and Russia serves the same purpose, even without "communists" officially in charge, in the world today. The history of Russia as an evil force in the world is documented in our new report.

Israeli Prime Minister Netanyahu understands this, even if Trump does not.

As we wrote two years ago, in a column titled "The Hidden Hand in World Events," one cannot understand world events without acknowledging the hidden hand of the Soviet KGB in the Muslim movement. It was the subject of a report my group America's Survival published many years ago and was written by former KGB officer Konstantin Preobrazhensky.

It is time to acknowledge the link between the Russian invasion of Ukraine and Russia-backed Iran's support of the Hamas invasion of Israel.

Even if Hamas was truly disarmed, that still leaves the Palestinian Authority (PA) in charge of the West Bank.

Mahmoud Abbas, the head of the PA is also head of the PLO, the Palestine Liberation Organization, and was trained at Russia's Patrice Lumumba University. Hamas and the PLO seek the destruction of Israel and both operate as clients of Russia, Iran, or both.

In this context, the release of Charlie Kirk's letter defending Israel is worth reading, for he documents how the Jewish state is being targeted with disinformation and propaganda, much of it being disseminated by Russia and various communist and Muslim groups around the world. He said, "Israel is getting CRUSHED on social media and you are losing younger generations of Americans, even among MAGA conservatives."

Meanwhile, Charlie Kirk's visit to South Korea, shortly before his death, requires some commentary as well. He recognized that this long-time U.S. ally has been taken over by Communist Chinese sympathizers, including the new president, the current leader of the Democratic Party by the name of Lee Jae-myung, known as "China Lee" because of what critics call the "reflection of his dangerous pro-China orientation."

Kirk went to South Korea to rally support for the anti-communist and pro-American conservatives in that country.

According to a 9-page analysis of the "Left-Leaning Bias of the Lee Jae Myung Administration," citing its suppression of conservatives, the bias even extends to "government policies and enforcement measures" and other "unfair actions" against certain religions, particularly Christianity.

In a letter in the Wall Street Journal, Nicholas Eberstadt of the American Enterprise Institute made the following points:

- President Lee Jae Myung, elected in June, comes from the far-left wing of the left-leaning Minju (Democracy)

Party.

- Lee faces criminal charges for allegedly instructing businesses to channel millions of dollars to the North while he was governor of Gyeonggi province in 2018-21.
- Since assuming the presidency, Mr. Lee has welcomed back pro-North officials last seen in the bad old days of U.S.-ROK tensions 20 years ago.
- Lee's party raised its flag at the 100th anniversary of the Chinese Communist Party in 2021 in Beijing.
- The speaker of the ROK National Assembly—also of Minju—attended Xi Jinping's military celebration, along with Vladimir Putin and Mr. Kim Jong Un.
- Seoul police now threaten their own citizens for desecrating the PRC flag.

As you may recall, if you studied history, the Communist Chinese intervened massively on the side of the North Korean regime. American casualties of the United States during the Korean War (1950-1953) have been estimated at 54,260 dead including 33,643 “battle deaths.”

The U.S. settled on a stalemate in Korea, after American General Douglas MacArthur was prohibited from taking the fight to the communist-controlled Chinese mainland. He was fired by President Harry Truman, a Democrat who decided on a policy of containment of, rather than victory over, communism.

As if this isn't bad enough, the Times of Israel reports that the U.S. peace proposal for the Middle East “encourages Palestinians to remain in the Strip and provides for the creation of a pathway to a future Palestinian state...”

Moscow will be pleased.

“The plan,” as we predicted in the book, Red Jihad: Moscow's Final Solution for America and Israel, “is for Russia and the United States to eventually force Israel to embrace a United Nations plan for a nuclear-free Middle East. That would mean Israel giving up control of its defensive nuclear weapons to the world body.”

This can now easily happen because Trump has fallen into a trap in which he is now betting on Arab support for his peace plan, from some of the same states he made business deals with during his trip earlier this year.

Meanwhile, President Trump is threatening New York City with a termination of federal aid if they elect as mayor a Marxist Muslim by the name of Zohran Mamdani. The real danger is not his proposal for government-run grocery stores but another 9/11 staged by Iran-oriented Shiite Muslims, of which Mamdani is one, this time by detonating a dirty bomb using nuclear materials smuggled in from Iran.

At his Monday news conference, Trump speculated that Iran, which he bombed, could one day join his peace plan for the Middle East. He is Whistling Dixie. The Iranians who have tried to kill Trump and other top U.S. officials want revenge, not peace.

Peace isn't coming to the Middle East and Europe if Russia continues to wage war against Ukraine and Israel.
