

Muslim Rashida Tlaib in Our House of Representatives: A Jihadist

Thankfully, The U.S. House of Representatives censured Jihadist and Palestinian Rashida Tlaib, (D-MI) for her obscene support of Hamas' brutal slaughter of children, mothers and the elderly in Israel on October 7, 2023.

Once elected, she wrapped herself in the Palestinian national flag outsider office. In fact, her Palestinian flag stands equal to Old Glory outside her office in Washington, DC. Is she an American who swore on the Bible to uphold our U.S. Constitution? No! She is a Muslim anchor baby who swore herself into office on her bible, the Qur'an.

In other words, Tlaib lacks any loyalty or affinity to our country, our laws, our Constitution, our allies, or our freedom of religion. If given the power, she would kill every last Jewish person on this planet. That's the mandate brought to her by the Qur'an.

That's ironic because in an Islamic country, she could be "honor killed" if she stepped out of line from her husband's wishes. She wouldn't be allowed to drive a car. Muslim women in Muslim lands cannot ride a bicycle or swim with men in a swimming pool. If they do swim, it must be with a full pajama suit on their bodies. She would have suffered female genital mutilation by the age of nine. Her elders would have provided a marriage partner without consulting her. At the local mosque, she would not be allowed to worship with the men. She would be assigned to the back door and the basement. In other words, Islam proves itself the most tribal, racist, misogynistic and brutal religion on the planet.

Daniel Greenfield, journalist for JihadWatch.org wrote, "Civilized nations have spent generations trying to convince themselves that the primary religious and national impulses of the Muslim world come down to more than conquest and mass murder. The horrors of the past few years in Afghanistan and Israel both came down to the mistaken belief that you could negotiate and reach an agreement with Jihadist movements. Unfortunately, there is no 'moderation' in Jihad."

We keep thinking that Muslims in America will 'moderate' to Western Enlightenment, when in fact, they remain on their same mandate to "Convert or kill all non-believers." If given any chance to freely kill Jews in America, Rashida Tlaib would be America's Hitler. It's that plain and that simple. She stated exactly that in her obscene speeches to drive the Jews from the Jordan River to the Mediterranean Sea. Please note: she said NOTHING against Hamas when they slaughtered 1,400 Jewish women, children and babies.

As a high school student, I learned about bullies. They will torture you with name-calling, pushing, shoving, and punching. You can't reason with them. You can't hope they will respond to your kindness. They don't care about rules, civility or humanity. They will kick your ass for the pure fun of it. They will make your life miserable for as long as they can get away with their brutish behavior. They will make fun of you until you bash them in the mouth. How do I know? Several bullies back in high school picked on me incessantly until I responded like "Rocky." Every time I see them at our high school reunions, they remember me.

Look what Hitler did to the Jewish people. Look what Hamas did to those Jewish children, mothers and babies. Look what all of the Muslim world would do to Israel if they could.

Almost beyond sickening and beyond comprehension, all the college kids supporting genocide against the Jewish people of Israel, blame the Jews for Gaza's problems, when in fact, the Jews vacated Gaza in 2005. The Muslims in Gaza created their own problems as to food, water, sewage and living in an organized and viable society.

At the same time, those same college students want to stamp-out "free speech" provided in the First Amendment. This past week in Ventura County, California, one of the supporters of Palestine knocked over and killed an elderly Jewish man on the street. Not one single Muslim supporter came to the aid of the dying man.

Greenfield added, "It is a fundamental error to view Hamas as an "extremist" group. It is an arm of the Muslim Brotherhood whose political parties rule a number of Muslim countries. Its political organizations also dominate Muslim communities in America and Europe. Most of Al Qaeda's leaders were also members of the Muslim Brotherhood. The myth of a split between political Islam and militant Islam, between moderate and extreme Islamic movements was always just that...a myth." Islam remains brutal to its core just as its founder, Muhammed.

"The Jihad is the defining force of Islamic political and religious life," said Greenfield. "Much as with Communism, coexistence with it is impossible." The same with Islam, no "ifs", "ands" or "buts." They will kill you in an instant to serve their Qur'an and those 72 virgins.

We, the American people, need to understand that with every Muslim immigrant allowed into the United States, we are setting ourselves up for another 9/11 in some form. Those Islamic zealots mean business 24/7. They aim to win by bullying us, lying to us, getting elected to national offices like Rashida Tlaib, Corey Bush, Ilhan Omar, Keith Ellison, Magid (Obama's Sharia Law czar), Barack Obama and hundreds more across America. They tell us that they will make America an Islamic Caliphate. We're just too naïve, too generous, and/or too stupid to listen to their intentions. Obama said it in his book, "When the winds blow harshly, I will side with the Muslims."

Finally, "The Jihad made Islam possible," said Greenfield. "It is also what gives it meaning. It is the precarious reality that colors all relationships with the Muslim world. We have learned to ignore it at our own risk. And every time we unsee it, people die. They die by the dozens, the hundreds and the thousands...9/11 as one example. And the killing and the dying happen because we mistake what is at best a Cold War for a rich relationship. We think that we are building bridges when we're really welcoming invaders."

How do you deal with political-religious Islamic bullies/fanatics? You bash them in the mouth, and you don't allow them into your home or country.
