

“No Kings!”

By Kat Stansell

October 21, 2025

Gee...It Must Have Worked.!! America Has NONE.

From the online Left-Fest at the Orlando Sentinel this morning...

Elderly “blue dog” holding up a sign to “86/47” Trump.

Wonder if this pathetic old woman even has a clue. She is posting a not-so-veiled death threat to President Trump. In general, the use of “86/47”, first laid out by Comey on a beach, has triggered Secret Service investigations, arrests, and widespread condemnation as incitement to violence. I know that, when Obama was POTUS, Secret Service came to the homes of people who dared to even post a Facebook ‘threat’.

The above is a link to seventy-seven pictures of people who have ZERO comprehension of reality. OR the American Constitution. Essentially, mentally challenged people who have been led so far astray by the Marxists that they have taken leave of their senses. THAT’S a phrase this elderly activist might remember...

Had the Sentinel been on top of its game, they would have posted ‘86” pictures! Just sayin’.

Let me cut to the chase. The folks in these pics are completely LIB – optimized, the thinking portion of their brains having been removed by media lies.

Some of them look “old enough to know better”; i.e., those who went to school when real history AND THE US CONSTITUTION were taught. Yet, there are still the older “blue dog” democrats who believe that the Democrats are the party of the “little guy”. Never have been, never will be. Just one more reason that history is no longer being taught.

Too many have refuse to accept that they have been duped. Embarrassed? Ashamed? Some of the elders who are still “D”’s may still have enough morals and values, hidden away, that might allow them to feel shame. They need to search for them. Hard.

Increasingly, though, the remains of the Democrat Party, aka Marxists, are too mind-bent, over-dosed and under-educated to have what we know as morals. What their “leaders” (who are in the pocket of Soros, China, the Crown, et. al., ) tell them, they believe. Lucifer is their god.

“Take it to the Streets!” So, they do. Sound familiar? Yeah. Hence, displays of desperation and ignorance like “No Kings Day” occur.

I’ll stop writing now, so you will have time to look at those 77 pictures so proudly posted by a liberal paper in Florida. Enjoy.

There really ARE NO KINGS, and this public display of stupidity has brought that to the attention of the world, yet again. PS, the crowds were, by most counts, a whole lot smaller than organizers has predicted. Orlando, it all its glory, did have to close roads. Hopefully, to prevent “86’-ing” anyone.
