Art. 1, Sec.8, Clause 11, U.S. Constitution, Powers of Congress: "To declare war...President: Art. II, Section 2, Clause 1: "The President shall be commander in chief of the Army and Navy of the United States, and of the militia of the several states, when called into the actual service of the United States..." (I would say saving American lives is being called into service for our people and country.)

United States Senate:

"The Constitution grants Congress the sole power to declare war. Congress has declared war on 11 occasions, including its first declaration of war with Great Britain in 1812. Congress approved its last formal declaration of war during World War II. Since that time it has agreed to resolutions authorizing the use of military force and continues to shape U.S. military policy through appropriations and oversight." (List contained here.) Think the stink of the lucrative war machine, NATO, and the corrupt United Nations (UN).

On the morning of April 20, 1986, Americans woke up to the news that Air Force F-111's (God's truth I actually sat in one that was used in that operation) and other support aircraft had carried out a full-scale raid on Moammar Khadafy in Libya. Why did Ronald Reagan order that precision bombing? A series of telex messages had been intercepted from Libya's East Berlin embassy right before and after a disco was bombed in West Berlin on April 5, 1986. Based on hard intelligence, Reagan cited "irrefutable" evidence that Libyan leader Moammar Khadafy was the brains behind the bombing and the decision was made to strike back.

This act of cowardice by terrorists killed two people, including an American GI; hundreds were wounded, including 50 to 60 Americans. Once Reagan was absolutely certain beyond a shadow of a doubt that Libya was responsible for this unprovoked act which led to the murder and injury of Americans, he acted without hesitation, saying, "I warned that there should be no place on earth where terrorists can rest and train and practice their deadly skills. I meant it. I said that we would act with others, if possible, and alone if necessary to ensure that terrorists have no sanctuary anywhere. Tonight, we have." We did act alone; France wouldn't even allow our aircraft to fly over their air space.

The guidelines for that mission were crystal clear: There should be minimal risk to our pilots and Navy Seals to reduce any chance of our own becoming POWs or killed. The target would be Khadafy; civilians would be spared as much as possible. But there was no mistake: Go for the kill and send a very clear and unequivocal message to anyone who dare harm our own. There was no informing the American people or the prostitute media ahead of time and that's the way it should be. Ever read Sun Zu's Art of War?

If the proof is there, our military go, get the job done and come home. War is ugly, but we have an indisputable right to strike quickly and decisively against anyone who hurts US whether it be a planned war, blowing up restaurants, barracks or OUR ships.

We did not invade that country and begin the process of destroying the culture of the indigenous population by forcing freedom killing “democracy” on them. Following our right to retaliate against any nation that kills or harms our own, Reagan did not engage in an endless and deceitful mission to “rebuild” Libya. Americans were not fleeced to the tune of hundreds of billions of borrowed dollars to provide “humanitarian aid,” build new schools or become friends with an enemy nation – a certain recipe for failure. It is not our responsibility or duty to “win the hearts and minds” of any foreign country or their people to fight some endless “war on terrorism.” Iran: Cut Off the Head (Mine) Feb. 5, 2024

28th Khobar Towers memorial ceremony: Remembering the fallen, June 25, 2024: “EGLIN AIR FORCE BASE, Fla. – “An explosion, heard from more than 20 miles away, rocked and decimated the walls of the barracks near King Abdulaziz Air Base as frantic screams of terror pour out of the building.

“On the night of June 25, 1996, 19 Airmen lost their lives while over 400 U.S. and international military and civilian members were injured during the Khobar Towers attack in Dharan, Saudi Arabia; 12 of the fallen were Nomads.

“Today, over 200 attendees from the 33rd Fighter Wing and local community gathered in remembrance of the men and women who made the ultimate sacrifice on the 28th anniversary of the Khobar Towers bombing.

“This year’s memorial included a guest speaker, the traditional wreath-laying, recitation of names, and the playing of “Taps”. The recitation of names was carried out by 19 current Airmen from the 33rd FW who were chosen to stand on behalf of the fallen, deliver the fallen member’s name, and render a salute.”

“Three years after 19 Americans died in a bombing at a Saudi

Arabian apartment complex, then-President Bill Clinton sent a cable that told Iran's president a secret that the 42nd president wasn't even willing to tell the American public: U.S. intelligence had ample evidence that Tehran was behind the deadly Khobar Towers terror attack.

"Message to President Khatami from President Clinton: The United States Government has received credible evidence that members of the Iranian Revolutionary Guard Corps, (IRGC) along with members of Lebanese and Saudi Hizballah, were directly involved in the planning and execution of the terrorist bombing in Saudi Arabia of the Khobar Towers military resident complex," the 1999 cable declared.

"The United States views this in the gravest terms," the cable continued. "We acknowledge that the bombing occurred prior to your election. Those responsible, however, have yet to face justice for this crime. And the IRGC may be involved in planning for further terrorist attacks against American citizens. The involvement of the IRGC in terrorist activity and planning abroad remains a cause of deep concern to us."

Tiny (according to Paula Jones) limp dick, Billy Clinton did Nothing. Back to the article above by the great investigative journalist, John Soloman:

"When we hear that Iran is threatening, well, we're going to retaliate if you do something to us, we are already at war with Iran," former National Security Council chief of staff Fred Fleitz told the John Solomon Reports podcast on Wednesday. "Iran is already committing acts of terrorism, and did a major one as recently as 2024 when an Iranian agent was indicted but got away for trying to kill Trump before the 2024 election."

Chronic terrorism and two realities

"The communiqué, released decades later under the Freedom of Information Act, is a stark reminder of two realities that President Trump must review as he decides in the next few days whether to commit U.S. military action to Israel's war on Iran's nuclear facilities.

"The first is that Iran's theocratic government has waged a chronic terrorist war against the United States since first taking hostages at the U.S. embassy in Tehran during the 1979 revolution. They have claimed nearly 1,000 American lives when Iranian-backed IEDs that killed troops in Iraq and Syria are counted alongside terror attacks at a Marine barracks and U.S. embassies in Lebanon, Khobar Towers and elsewhere.

"Some attacks were thwarted, like a restaurant bombing in 2011 in Washington, D.C. targeting the Saudi ambassador to the United States, the kidnapping of an American-Iranian journalist and an assassination attempt against Trump last year that would have only added to the toll.

“When we hear that Iran is threatening, well, we’re going to retaliate if you do something to us, we are already at war with Iran,” former National Security Council chief of staff Fred Fleitz told the John Solomon Reports podcast on Wednesday. “Iran is already committing acts of terrorism, and did a major one as recently as 2024 when an Iranian agent was indicted but got away for trying to kill Trump before the 2024 election.”

“The second reality is that Democratic Party presidents like Clinton, Jimmy Carter, Barack Obama and Joe Biden have handled Iran’s deadly behavior mostly with kid gloves: nuclear deals (Obama), sanctions relief (Obama and Biden), $6 billion in unfrozen assets (Biden) and in Clinton’s case a secret offer to go easy on Iran for Khobar if it cleaned up its act.

“The United States has no hostile intentions toward the Islamic Republic of Iran and seeks good relations with your government,” Clinton’s cable told Khatami, dangling an offer of better relations if Iran simply brought to justice the plotters of the Khobar attack.

“Clinton’s offer unmasked years later was shocking because he kept the American people from fully understanding the evidence of Iran’s complicity in a deadly attack. The Clinton administration never filed criminal or civil action against the government of Iran alleging its involvement in the terror attack.” Read the rest; it’s what you were never told.

Clinton’s former Secretary of Labor, Robert Reich, USA Today, January 7, 1999: “The dirty little secret is that both houses of Congress are irrelevant.” Reich cut to the chase when he said that “America’s domestic policy is now being run by Alan Greenspan and the Federal Reserve and America’s foreign policy is now being run by the International Monetary Fund [IMF].” And, “...when the president decides to go to war, he no longer needs a declaration of war from Congress.”

Department of State. President Clinton

Text of a letter to the Speaker of the House and the President Pro Tempore of the Senate, released by the White House Office of the Press Secretary, Yulee, Florida, May 26, 1999

May 25, 1999

Dear Mr. Speaker: (Dear Mr. President:)

“On March 26, 1999, I reported that I had directed U.S. forces to commence military air strikes as part of NATO’s operations against the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia (FRY) in response to the FRY Government’s continued campaign of violence and repression against the civilian population of Kosovo. Each day we receive new reports of FRY security forces committing atrocities and forcing civilians from their homes. Currently there are more than 725,000 displaced Kosovars in Albania, Macedonia, and Montenegro, and hundreds of thousands of internally displaced persons within Kosovo.

“At their recent Summit in Washington, NATO Heads of State and Government made clear that the Alliance will not allow this campaign of terror to succeed. Until such time as Belgrade meets NATO’s conditions, the allies intend to continue – and intensify – air operations against the Yugoslav war machine. As part of intensifying NATO’s operations, and in response to a request by SACEUR, I have directed deployment of additional aircraft and forces to support NATO’s ongoing efforts, including several thousand additional U.S. Armed Forces personnel to Albania in support of the deep strike task force located there. I am also directing that additional U.S. forces be deployed to the region to assist in humanitarian operations.

“As I mentioned in my April 7 letter, it is not possible to predict how long these operations will last. The duration of the deployments depends upon the course of events in Kosovo, and specifically, on Belgrade's acceptance of the conditions set forth by the United States and its allies.

"I have taken this action pursuant to my constitutional authority to conduct U.S. foreign relations and as Commander in Chief and Chief Executive.

"I am providing this report as part of my efforts to keep the Congress fully informed, consistent with the War Powers Resolution. I appreciate the continued support of the Congress in this action.

Sincerely, WILLIAM J. CLINTON (Keep them informed but no declaration of war was voted on by CON-gress.)

Bill Clinton was impeached by the U.S. House of Representatives on Dec.17, 1998. On Feb. 12, 1999, Clinton was acquitted by the U.S. Senate. In the meantime, and in record time by Hollywood standards (70 days start to finish) a movie was made titled Wag the Dog; 23 nominations, 2 Oscar wins. "Shortly before an election, a spin-doctor and a Hollywood producer join efforts to fabricate a war in order to cover up a Presidential sex scandal." "I did not have sexual relations with that woman, Ms. Lewinsky." Bill Clinton, Jan. 26, 1998.

But it was too late. The media was sitting on it (Michael Isikoff) and then along came Matt Drudge, the 'little blue dress' with slut Billy's semen on it and the rest is history as they say. Didn't matter much as it didn't take long for Hildebeast and Billy to become very wealthy and live like royalty after they left office. Selling out your country can be very profitable.

The targeted country in that great movie (Okay, I can't stomach Robert DeNiro but the movie is well worth watching) was Albania. Huh? Back in Jan. 1998, Robert Ebert did a great

piece about the movie. Probably millions of Americans have never heard of it because it was so long ago. But, as I turned 76 yesterday and been writing since 1998, I remember what was going on in the sewer called Washington, DC and the quickly emerging sex scandal by pig serial adulterer, Billy Clinton, his favorite cigar and a 22-year-old intern. You can watch the movie free on line here.

As Americans following the political attempts to impeach President Trump, the American people got a good lesson on how slow political theater and dirty tricks with the courts can take.

I used to go to the movie theater but quit decades ago because most of what Hollywood had to offer was/is titties, badly distorted history and weak, uninteresting (to me anyway) trash. Long, long ago I did go see Top Gun with Tom Cruise; never saw him in a movie before. Years passed and I then saw his movie, A Few Good Men (outstanding). Way back in 2013, I broke down and went to the movie theater with two friends to see ARGO with Ben Affleck. Won Oscar for Best Picture of the year and deservedly so; based on a true incident. Last time I've been to a movie theater.

Fast forward. Top Gun: Maverick with Tom Cruise was released in mid-2022. I didn't go to the theater to see it although it was a huge hit. I haven't owned a propaganda box (TV) for nine years so I subscribed to Netflix and Hulu. One day doing some research, I discovered the lying, cheating POS impostor president, Hussein Obama and that thing he's married to had signed a deal with Netflix for approximately $45 million bux. I immediately cancelled my subscription.

I really wanted to see Top Gun Maverick so I rented it on Amazon Prime. I was recovering from spine fusion surgery at the time so I couldn't do much when I got home from the hospital. Best $4 bux well spent. Bad ass movie, oh, boy. It is uncanny the similarity between that 2022 movie and what happened with Operation Midnight Hammer.

I bring this up because while doing some research the other day, I found this video clip from Top Gun: Maverick. Hold on. Why? Because while Iran isn't mentioned in the movie, our pilots were going on the most dangerous mission ever for them: Take out underground nuclear sites and come home (and yes, there is snow in Iran). During Operation Midnight Hammer our fighters met no resistance as Trump pulled an 'art of the deal' but it was an extremely dangerous mission. Thankfully, all our military and those who were part of Operation Midnight Hammer came home safe and sound.

That movie was released May 27, 2022. Operation Midnight Hammer took place during the night of June 21, 2025. Trump with the few he absolutely trusts and knows how to keep their mouths shut pulled a fast one on the evil leaders in Iran. In other words, a select handful pulled a bait and switch and bombed the hell out of underground nuclear facilities Iran should never have. No civilians in Iran were targeted, period.

I'm not talking about nuclear power for commercial use (and households) which Iran agreed to years ago. I'm talking about a group of maniacs with their finger on the button while chanting "We hate America". Must be very difficult for the thousands of Jews who live in Iran; yes, they do. Why do Jews still live in Iran? – "Despite heightened tensions with the West and strict Sharia laws, 9,000 Jews still live in Iran—and they have no plans to leave anytime soon.", Feb. 17, 2025. A lot of history there.

Too many Americans don't really have any understanding of the political party known as Islam. It is not a religion but dressed up as one to control the masses and here in the U.S. to hide behind the First Amendment. Challenging Sharia Law means challenging Islam as a religion, (Mine) October 13, 2012: "And, speaking of mosques, this little booklet is in almost all mosques in the U.S.: Jihad in Islam. Do check page 5 of the 37 page booklet: “But the truth is that Islam is not the name of a ‘Religion’, nor is ‘Muslim’ the title of a ‘Nation’. In reality Islam is a revolutionary ideology and programme which seeks to alter the social order of the whole world and rebuild it in conformity with its own tenets and ideals.

“Muslim’ is the title of that International Revolutionary Party organized by Islam to carry into effect its revolutionary programme. And ‘Jihad’ refers to that revolutionary struggle and utmost exertion which the Islamic Party brings into play to achieve this objective.”

If you read the whole thing, you’ll get a clear understanding of the goals of Islam. It is a political party hell bent on forcing every human on this earth to “worship” their putrid ideology.” Rest at link. For the last decade muslims have turned “blue” American cities into their crap holes, allegedly gotten elected to Congress and judges. If God forbid and I was in front of a muslim judge, I would absolutely refuse and demand a non-muslim judge.

Not to mention: I’m a Christian pastor who was born in Egypt. Here are 3 facts I learned about Iran’s nuclear obsession – “Attacks by Israel and the United States against Iran’s nuclear facilities have dealt a serious setback to the clerics’ nuclear ambitions—but don’t be misled”, June 29, 2025: “But the leaders of Iran are committed to a death-cult ideology—and to a nuclear showdown with Western civilization. Here are three key facts that show why Iran’s radical clerics will never abandon their nuclear obsession:” Rest at link. (Just like communists: They lie through their teeth and have never met the truth.)

Dimwits and dirty traitors can hate Trump, which they do but one thing that cannot be denied: Donald Trump does not want more wars and senseless killing between countries in the Middle East. He truly does want countries to work out their differences without killing tens and tens of thousands of not just military, but civilians. One can only pray the bombing of those underground nuclear facilities can be the beginning of peace in the region. Now it's up to the people of Iran to bring freedom to their country just as those who sacrificed their lives to birth these united States of America.

The media whores and RINO's will continue with their spin not much damage was done by OUR courageous pilots who flew those planes for almost 40 hours, guided missile submarines, -fueled in the air and with precision sent 14 30,000 pounds 'bunker busters' – all done without a single leak. The way it should be. So, the media whores and useful fools out there can continue their childish yelling and foot stomping. But mission completed and now (until something new is barfed up by the Democrat/Communist Party USA) all the legal experts (a few great ones out of the trash heap) will talk about whether Trump violated the Constitution by pulling off that secret mission. Iran has been funding savages (terrorists) for decades killing Americans. Perhaps now their allies and surrounding countries as well as innocent humans can convince their maniac mullahs and Khomeini it's time to stop all the killing and work together for peace and prosperity. Probably not:

Last question for you: If you knew what Trump, Hegseth, Rubio, Gen. Dan Caine and a few others – not to mention the UN Atomic Energy Watchdog – have known about Iran's hidden underground "innocent" nuclear power labs and their goal to wipe us off the face of the earth (along with Israel), would you have ordered Operation Midnight Hammer? Just remember: All infidels must die if they don't become muslims according to their propaganda and thirst for murdering and killing innocent humans including children since the 1400's.
