

Our Leaders Have Lost Their Cotton Pickin' Minds

By Frosty Wooldridge

Each night, we American citizens sit on our couches or kitchen table chairs to watch the insanity of what's happening to our troops in Afghanistan. Furthermore, we're watching an invasion of our southern borders. We're watching our country be conquered by the hands of our elected leaders.

Biden, who stands eyeball deep in intellectual dementia or some form of Alzheimer's Disease, cannot and will not make a convincing sentence or address to the American people.

His handlers won't tell us the truth that he lacks the mental acuity to lead this country. The generals show themselves to be incapacitated by their own incompetence.

The liberal news 'hides' all that transpires, all that maintains utmost secrecy and all that should be the facts.

If you have read Orwell's 1984, or Catch 22, or Fahrenheit 451, you realize that we are being led by a pack of people who have reached their Peter Principle zenith.

Who pays? Every soldier stuck over there in that goat-herder nation that is now dictating to us exactly what we must do to save some of our military people. Then, they will imprison the rest for ransoms into the billions of dollars. Imagine that! Imagine that we have elected fools, liars and cheats into the highest positions in the land.

General Milly or whatever his name is, stands out there with four stars of a general. He couldn't command a troop of boy scouts.

We've got Jen Psaki standing out in front of the cameras every day, pretending that she knows what she's talking about, but she doesn't have a clue as to what's really going on. In fact, she learns more on CNN and Tucker Carlson with Lara Logan than she knows from her hideout in the White House.

What's going to happen? It's called the "Darwin Solution." That means that they control us in Afghanistan, and we bow to them because they have all the power, all the brute force and all the weapons to make us crawl out of there like a dog that's just been beaten in a fight.

Who did this to us? For starters, G.W. Bush and Dick Cheney. Then, Bill Clinton continued the farce. After him, Obama bounced across the stage as if he knew what he was doing. He didn't. Later, Trump got talked out of leaving that God forsaken country because the Military Industrial Complex boys wanted to keep making money.

In my lifetime, the big military boys and bankers have kept us in useless wars in Korea, Vietnam, Desert Storm, Iraq and Afghanistan. All for what? All for money.

We've killed countless millions of people...all for what? All for money.

We really need to look at our national moral and spiritual stance in the world. This warlike behavior MUST stop with us. There's got to be a better way to stop the fraud of insider trading of Defense Contracts by people like Nancy Pelosi, Schumer and hundreds of career, corrupt, criminal politicians.

We've GOT to pass Term Limits to bring some kind of sanity to our own government. I am sick and tired of seeing such thieves continue for 30 and 40 years in Washington DC.

Finally, those people are out of their cotton pickin' minds. We must do something to stop them. We need our borders and we need our laws and we need to stop the invasion from the south and we MUST never get into a stupid foreign war in an INSANE Muslim land.

Does that make sense to you?

Is anyone in America thinking about these questions? Are we not galloping into America's twilight years?
