

Paul Ryan sabotages his own party with Trump tape

Reputation is what men and women think of us, character is what God and the angels know of us. –Thomas Paine

“In keeping silent about evil, in burying it so deep within us that no sign of it appears on the surface, we are implanting it, and it will rise up a thousand fold in the future. When we neither punish nor reproach evildoers... we are ripping the foundations of justice from beneath new generations.” –Alexander Solzhenitsyn

Those of us who follow politics seriously rather than view it as a game show do not look at Hillary Clinton and simply think, “first woman president.” We think for example, “first ex-co president,” or “first wife of a disbarred lawyer and impeached former incumbent,” or “first person to use her daughter as photo-op protection during her husband’s perjury rap.” –Christopher Hitchens

GOP Commits Suicide to Destroy Trump

In my recent article, regarding a statement Trump made almost a dozen years ago, I exposed the hypocrisy of the globalists. Six weeks ago, I heard that this was going to happen, and that there would be more attacks prior to both debates and the November 8th election. It is up to the American people to understand that the socialists want Trump destroyed because with him in our White House, their New World Order agenda will be curtailed. He has laid it all on the line to try to save this country, and that includes his business as well. Only our founders had the courage to do the same.

Concerning the tape, there was an expectation of privacy, and if you watched the video, Trump quite obviously did not know he was being taped. The Bush connection mentioned in my previous article is extremely suspect, but so is the NEVERTRUMP GOP.

It turns out that the audio had been edited to give the impression that Trump was being adulterous in his attempt to seduce the woman. Edited out of the audio is Trump saying that the incident with the married woman took place when he was a single man.

Said Jerry Falwell, Jr. in a recent address: "I think this whole tape... video tape thing was planned, I think it was timed, I think it might have even been a conspiracy among establishment Republicans who have known about it for weeks and who tried to time it to do the maximum damage to Donald Trump, and I just... I just think it just backfired on them."

Investigative journalist Mike Cernovich identified the source of the leak as Daniel "Dan" Samuel Senor, a close advisor to House Speaker Paul Ryan. According to Mike Cernovich, Donald Trump's get out the vote efforts have been sabotaged at every level by the GOP, sources reported. Some of the sabotage is obvious and clear, and others is subtler. Their motivations for sabotage vary from personal and professional jealousy to financial.

Jim Hoft of Gateway Pundit confirmed that GOP elites indeed had leaked the damaging audio.

Breitbart confirms Ryan and GOP globalists leaked the damaging audio.

Sabotaging Trump's Voter Registration Drives

Cernovich describes two ways in which Trump's political party is sabotaging his voter registration drives:

1. Bait-and-switch: Cernovich says that Trump volunteers have told him that when they went to their local GOP office to get out the vote, they were told to campaign for other GOP candidates. When the volunteers say they wanted to campaign for Trump, they were told to leave.

2. The big ignore: Other Trump volunteers said they'd show up to GOP offices only to find the doors had been locked. Their calls would go unreturned. All of which made it impossible to volunteer to get out the vote for Donald Trump.

According to Cernovich, the GOP was sabotaging Trump's efforts even well before the infamous "tape" was leaked:

The GOP's plan was to lose Pennsylvania, Florida, and Ohio. Then the "hit mic" video gave them an excuse to make their sabotage public. The "hot mic" video had no effect on voter sentiment, but it did give the saboteurs an excuse to publicly renounce Trump. Local offices were shut down, and Senators and Congressmen and other Republicans were told that endorsing Trump would lead to funding being cut off.

The GOP is committing suicide.

We are not electing a saint; we are not electing Messiah; and we are not electing a preacher; we're electing someone with the ability to stop the global agenda whose goal is to destroy America and make her into a third world country. In my opinion we are electing a man with a heart of gold who can save this country. Give up the judgment of this man and wake up.

There is nothing the socialists will not do to stop Trump; they are desperate to destroy him, and I'm talking about both the Democrats and Republicans. So, expect more to surface that will have a very negative impact on Mr. Trump.

Censorship

The Intimidation Game, How the Left is Silencing Free Speech, by Kimberly Strassel tells a big story we all need to understand. Whether America's citizens choose to believe it or not, we are being censored at every turn.

Gateway Pundit reported that Twitter recently censored 32 of Donald Trump's twitters, all of which were GOTO Battleground tweets about early voting.

Breitbart reported that the Senate is investigating Facebook suppression of conservative voices while amplifying leftist movements such as Black Lives Matters.

Facebook Censorship and the War on Free Speech, by Breitbart reports,

British journalist, Douglas Murray, looked at Facebook as a battleground in the war on free speech recalling a recent case in which the social media giant was "forced to back down when caught permitting anti-Israel postings, but censoring equivalent anti-Palestinian postings."

To this, Murray adds the disturbing September incident in which German chancellor Angela Merkel was caught on an open mike, asking Facebook CEO Mark Zuckerberg if he would help suppress "anti-immigration" postings... and he replied that he was already working on it.

It's clear enough that Merkel and the rest of her government believe the best way to handle the insane migrant disaster they've unleashed upon Europe is to forbid their citizens from complaining about it.

And Jihad Watch reported that Hillary Clinton's favorite world leader is Angela Merkel.

Tell me truly how many of our letters to the editor actually get printed? Very bloody few! I know, because I write a great many of them, and when one is printed, it's heavily edited.

Censorship is what occurs in communist countries like Red

China.

Hillary and Russia

Quite obviously the second debate was profoundly owned by Trump. He controlled the entire evening and refused to allow the moderators or Hillary to upstage him or deny him the equality he was denied in the first debate.

This time he won, hands down!

What infuriates me with the Clinton owned media, and the unending lies every time Hillary opens her mouth, is the statement that Trump and Putin are good friends. There is no substantial connection whatsoever between Trump and Russia. Yet, both Hillary and the media continue to claim one. This is psychological projection, which incorporates blame shifting. I've mentioned this twice before, but I bring it up again because there is a much deeper connection on record with Hillary Clinton and Russia than with Donald Trump.

Assange has reported that there is an extremely well-documented pattern of when Hillary Clinton was secretary of state, the people, companies, governments, who wanted a decision by the secretary of state in their favor, made large donations to the Clinton Foundation or in some other cases made business deals with people around Hillary Clinton.

One particular instance is the approval by Secretary Clinton of selling 20 percent of the US-Iranian reprocessing rights to a Russian company to be exported to Russia. At that time, a large donation was made by those Russian interests to the Clinton foundation.

Russians gradually assumed control of one-fifth of the world's uranium production with the help of Bill Clinton and his wife, Secretary of State Hillary Clinton, resulting in a flow of millions into the Clinton Foundation. [Link]

It would be nice if someone would explain to Americans why the Clintons aren't in prison for arranging the sale of a US uranium mine to Russia, but then, this is just one of their infractions.

Hillary's Emails

Thirteen cell phones and five IPADS and confidential government secrets sent over private email servers...and Hillary says it was "a mistake." One of those emails actually got an Iranian scientist, who was a spy for the U.S., murdered.

She actually destroyed these phones and IPADS after they were subpoenaed! Well, Hillary, you've put American citizens working undercover overseas in jeopardy, and you've put American secrets in email servers that were hacked, and we know you didn't even care. We also know you had your staff strip the "confidential headers" off emails and then send them through your personal accounts.

The State Department claims none of the emails now marked classified were labeled as such at the time they were sent. However, one email thread from June 2011, appears to include Clinton telling her top adviser, Jake Sullivan, to send secure information through insecure means.

Nixon should have never been impeached, and he should have retained his presidency. Hillary, on the other hand, has lied, cheated and deceived the public her entire life, and Trump is right, she should be in prison.

Globalist Republicans Pull Trump Endorsements

Well, really, these Republicans didn't want Trump as the candidate anyway. They'd rather have Hillary Clinton as president to continue their New World Order agenda. These phonies tell the public the congress would stop Hillary from pushing through her goals for America, but the sure as heck didn't stop Obama, did they!

Here is the list of those who have denounced or pulled their endorsements of Trump.

I have to laugh at Ted Cruz because he never sued the Inquirer over its story about his many affairs.

Marco Rubio is on the list as well, and there are pictures all over the web of his gay foam parties.

Then there's that upstanding righteous man John McCain, who divorced his first wife after her car accident that left her a cripple. The Huffington Post reported he's called opponents and colleagues "shheads," "aholes" and in at least one case "a fing jerk," but that's not the least of it. Check the article, he called his wife a vile name in public.

We know where Willard Romney and Jeb Bush stand, and Toomey is an anti-gunner...the list is filled with others who should be ousted from politics. The Bush family has already announced they're voting for Hillary. Not one of them is pure as the driven snow, yet they act holier-than-thou as though they've never said or done anything that wouldn't pass public scrutiny and the light of day.

Conclusion

Newt Gingrich said, "My only advice to Republican leaders is simple. In the end, you either help defeat Hillary Clinton, or you help elect Hillary Clinton. I think, to sit on your hands, to find some pretense because Donald Trump isn't pure enough, so you're willing to have Hillary Clinton get elected, is an enormous disservice to the country and to the future of our children and grandchildren." He added that any Republican not favoring Donald Trump should resign from the Republican party and become a Democrat.

Gingrich is right. These Republicans obviously wouldn't mind more supreme court justices like Ginsberg, Sotomayer, or Kagen.

In the second debate, the moderators ignored the other major leak of last week, of Clinton's speech to Brazilian bankers where she confessed she "dreams" of a "hemispheric common market with open trade and open borders." Trump is right again, she's all for the "gold standard" TPP, and destroying more American jobs.

Our culture has been radically changed with nearly eight years of Barry Soetoro, aka, Barack Hussein Obama. Hillary would literally and totally destroy the few vestiges of freedom which are left.

She has made it plain she hates "everyday Americans." She's called us deplorables, and she means it.

There is massive collusion. It exists between Hillary and the main stream media, the Department of Justice, and the White House...all of whom are doing Hillary's bidding.

I don't know many people who could stand up to the onslaught of hatred that Mr. Trump has put up with since he announced he was running for president. He is fighting the biggest battle of his life, not only to save the country from total destruction, but he's also fighting for his family and his business. It certainly does take courage and a spine of steel. Pray for Mr. Trump and his entire family, and pray for our nation, because if Hillary Clinton wins, Mr. Trump won't be the only one who loses.
