

Paul Ryan's Indefensible Support For The Deep State

*Neoconservatives seek socialist big government and champion American meddling in the rest of the world's affairs. The personal histories of neoconservative leaders confirm that many are anti-Stalinist socialists who despised the brutality inflicted on mankind by Lenin and Stalin, but who nevertheless endorsed socialism, especially the brand favored by Leon Trotsky. Their preference for having America become the policeman of the world is the stepping stone toward interdependence and eventual world government, two concepts which they enthusiastically favor. —William F. Buckley, Pied Piper for the Establishment by John McManus*

Furthermore, I am of the opinion that Carthage should be destroyed. —Cicero for Cato the Elder

We have a president who is doing more to “Make America Great Again” than any president in my lifetime, but the neocons in his own party are working with the democrats to destroy his chances of attaining every goal he promised to the American people. These neocon Republicans are actually helping to destroy the chances of maintaining their majority in both the House and Senate, and Speaker Paul Ryan is leading the pack.

Ryan is a neocon Trotskyite globalist establishment elitist, and as such is just as dangerous as the left. To understand today's traitorous Republicans, I urge everyone to read, William F. Buckley, Jr.: Pied Piper for the Establishment by John McManus. I have quoted heavily from this superb publication.

Neocon Trotskyites

As far back as 60 years ago, those who identified themselves as Trotskyites began to drift away and claim the title of democratic socialists. They gravitated to the liberal wing of the Democrat Party. William F. Buckley, a Council on Foreign Relations member, CIA agent, and Yale Skull and Bones man had emasculated conservatism's traditional meaning. Buckley partnered with the "father" of neoconservatism, former Trotskyite, Irving Kristol, father of Bilderberger member and NeverTrumper Bill Kristol.

The Democratic socialists then moved into the Republican Party as "moderates" and stole the name of conservatives. This is how the theft of true old right conservatism turned Republicans into what the majority of them are today. Despite Rush Limbaugh's adoration of Bill Buckley as a conservative, Buckley and Kristol gave us the likes of McCain, Ryan, McConnell, Flake, and hundreds of other so-called "moderates," including many of our past presidents.

Buckley made it clear in his 1952 Commonweal article that he recommended, "Big government...a totalitarian bureaucracy within our shores...and the attendant centralization of power in Washington." That is what neoconservatism is today. Buckley even applauded the "Gingrich revolution" allegedly a return to conservatism which never happened and never was intended to happen...more warmed over neoconservatism. The 1952 Buckley article reveals he was a totalitarian socialist.

Neoconservative Roots

The neocon roots to Leon Trotsky are obvious and cannot be ignored. Trotsky was murdered in Mexico in 1940 by one of Stalin's henchmen. In 1927, he had broken with Stalin and Lenin's head cracking and gulags favoring the imposition of Marxist socialism slowly and patiently. He was exiled from Russia in 1928 by his once close comrades. Trotsky and his followers wanted mankind to choose Marxist world government rather than having it forced on them. So, they used pens and the podium rather than guns and clubs. This is the gist of it all and what we're looking at today in the Republican party. Irving Kristol stated, "I regard myself as lucky to have been a young Trotskyite and I have not a single bitter memory."

Kristol later credited neoconservatism for helping to "modernize" the Republican Party by which he meant tearing it away from its Old-Right roots. Kristol heaped praise on both President Reagan and Newt Gingrich for paying tribute to leftist Franklin Roosevelt whose socialist mindset and administration destroyed the last remnants of the Old Republic. Folks forget that third-waver and CFR member Gingrich backed federal aid to education, land controls, foreign aid, NAFTA, GATT, the Mexican bailout, the Export-Import Bank, and almost every conceivable assault on U.S. sovereignty, the same things Bill Buckley supported.

Exporting "democracy" and opposing "isolationism" became the major neoconservative foreign policy goals, reflected in their almost universal support for sovereignty destroying NAFTA, the WTO, and United Nations "peacekeeping" missions. (Sam Francis, Neocon Invasion) Brit Hume and CFR member Vin Weber were convinced by Buckley that NAFTA was good!

Thus, the Republican Party was no longer interested in destroying the welfare state but intended rather to reconstruct it along more socialistic and interventionist lines. And all of the folks still lauding Reagan as the greatest president have not even looked at the legislation he signed and how detrimental it was to our Republic. I could write a book!

Sam Francis pinpointed Buckley's critical role in the neocon theft of the conservative label when he wrote:

...the whole concept of conservatism in America is virtually devoid of meaning, in large part because conservatives made the seminal error of allowing dilettantes like Mr. Buckley to define it for them in the first place. [Link]

Francis always noted the absence of any neocon reliance on the U.S. Constitution, a deficiency also evident throughout Buckley's long career. In 1995 he noted:

Almost none of the neo-conservatives showed any interest in American constitutionalism or federalist and states' rights issues, and arguments based on constitutionalism were muted in favor of the 'empirical' arguments drawn from disciplines like sociology and political science in which neo-conservative academics tended to concentrate. Speaker Paul Ryan

Paul Ryan has confirmed his neoconservative globalist stance and his indefensible support of the establishment. Lining up with the sycophantic and worthless Trey Gowdy, Ryan not only defended the FBI probe, but said that the FBI did nothing wrong in spying on the Trump campaign.

At the House Leadership briefing on 7 June 18, Ryan defended Gowdy, denied all of the evidence supporting spygate, attempted to subvert President Trump, and charted a legislative course toward disaster through amnesty for illegal aliens that could well destroy the GOP in the midterms.

The lame duck speaker chose to side with the Deep State and defy our president and the American people by pushing amnesty. Ryan played toady to the open border globalists and signaled he will deliver for his masters on K Street, Wall Street, the business roundtable, the Koch brothers, and the Chamber of Commerce to assure open borders and amnesty for illegal aliens. Ryan sold out a long time ago. Breitbart published an article on Paul Ryan's "open-borders" stance back in October 2015. It stated that Rep. Luis Gutierrez endorsed Paul Ryan for Speaker of the House and that drew new attention to Ryan's two-decade history of pushing for open border immigration policies. A previously little noticed 2013 video of Ryan and Gutierrez stumping for Sen. Marco Rubio's amnesty bill in which the two make a candid pitch for unlimited immigration shows just how far Ryan is willing to go to push for open border policies.

One wonders how long Republicans will put up with Paul Ryan who seems hell-bent on destroying the party's chances in 2018.

GOP donor, Mike Fernandez is demanding DACA amnesty and threatening to withhold funding from Republicans who won't back the DACA discharge petition. He has even convinced a cabal of other open border mega donors to join him.

The House said NO to Ryan's amnesty sellout this week, but he'll try again next week. Instead of the four deal, discharge petition which essentially surrendered control of the House to the Democrats and with it a sure approval of amnesty legislation, Ryan has now agreed to two bills.

One bill is the Goodlatte Bill that Ryan's been breaking promises on allowing to come to the floor for a very long time and the other is one that is still being crafted, a last minute forced alternative to the amnesty only bill that blatantly defies the wishes of the people. The details will be debated in a closed-door Wednesday morning meeting.

Anti-Trump Ryan

A month before the 2016 election, Breitbart confirmed that Paul Ryan and GOP globalists leaked the braggadocio locker room audio of Billy Bush and Trump. They didn't care if they destroyed Trump and elected Hillary.

In the recent Omnibus bill, Speaker Ryan wouldn't give the President a dollar to build the wall, he took money away from immigration and customs enforcement and reduced the number of border agents enforcing immigration law. He wants to raise the retirement age to 70 and cut funding to both social security and Medicare which he calls "entitlements." We have paid into both all our lives and we deserve to get our money back, money that is taxed twice on social security; these are not welfare entitlements!

Ryan has made it clear who owns him throughout his speakership. He is a servant of lobbyists, globalists and the establishment neocon Trotskyites and he has continually undercut the President.

Ryan and the DOJ

Congressman Matt Gaetz says there is no defense for Ryan siding with the DOJ and FBI against those in the Congress who are working for transparency and accountability. For a year Devin Nunes has been asking for the documents that go to the very heart of the Russia hoax. Gaetz said they have never seen the documents showing why this investigation even began. Unconscionable!

The Australian diplomat, Alexander Downer lied and said the information came through the Australian ambassador to the U.S. and that's how it got to the FBI, but it isn't true. One liar gave information to Peter Strzok who has already been demoted because he was the head of the NeverTrump movement at the Deep State. There is no way any criminal prosecution could ever be brought against this president based on the bias and mishandling of evidence. Instead of Ryan standing with the conservative caucus members and putting the focus on the refusal of the FBI to turn over documents so that Congress could perform their oversight duties, Ryan instead defends the FBI and the Deep State. So many have called for a second special counsel but the silence from the speaker is deafening.

If Speaker Ryan won't stand with the Congress in this fight over the essentials in our Republic, not weaponizing our intelligence against a presidential campaign, then Congress definitely needs to look at other choices. I would suggest Devin Nunes or Louis Gohmert.

Paul Ryan has never stood up and defended the President and said there is no evidence whatsoever of Russian collusion. Vice President Pence is close friends with Ryan and has been since his 12 years in Congress. It was Pence who endorsed Ryan in 2016 before President Trump.

Rep. Devin Nunes gave Deputy Attorney General Rod Rosenstein a 12 June 18 deadline regarding documents concerning the FBI's alleged informant looking into any Russian ties to President Trump's 2016 campaign. If he did not comply with the Congressional subpoena and hand over the evidence of the Obama administration's efforts to spy on the Trump campaign, he would be held in Contempt of Congress for obstructing the investigation. The next step would be impeachment and removal from office.

Rod Rosenstein believes he is above the law, and perhaps he is since GOP leaders are blocking Devin Nunes from making good on his contempt/impeachment threat. Paul Ryan is refusing to let Rod Rosenstein be held accountable.

Conclusion

Speaker Ryan is an obvious Deep State neocon Trotskyite. We need a motion to vacate the chair of Speaker Paul Ryan. Members of the Freedom Caucus forced Speaker John Boehner to step down in 2015, and now they need to do the same with Ryan.

The Obama appointed Inspector General's report is out this afternoon and I suspect little will come to light regarding corruption and illegalities by the DOJ/FBI. Rod Rosenstein and FBI Director Wray want Congress to trust them about the FBI's actions in 2016. That would be easier if not for daily continual proof that they are withholding documents from Congress, and even when they release them, they are heavily redacted to prevent embarrassment or exposure of potential illegal activities.

Congress created the DOJ, they have oversight of the creature they created, and they fund that same creature. Rosenstein has allegedly threatened several of the oversight committee.

Furthermore, I am of the strong opinion that President Trump should declassify all these pertinent documents. He should also call Sessions, Rosenstein, and Wray into his office for a long discussion regarding the status of their positions.
