

President Trump Wisely Recognizes The Time To Be Vigilant Is Upon Us

Calling All Storm Troopers

If we're going to fight, we have to be armed. If we're armed, we have to know how to employ our particular weapon with strategic precision. Everyone has something they can bring into the fight. Just bring what you can.

Just like an army, there are a multitude of positions. And just like an army, every position matters. The Generals may be strategizing, while officers may be positioning, and infantry alternately waiting and advancing. Just as special teams have their place, so do things like communications, mapping, engineering, artillery, armor, legal specialists, electronic warfare, intelligence (gathering, processing, assimilating, briefing, etc.), chaplains, chemical warfare, transportation, etc. This means that wherever you are, whoever you are, and whatever you do, matter. You have an area of knowledge, skill and influence that you can work for the cause. Every single piece and player matters to the whole.

It helps to know what the Generals are planning, but they do not give their strategy in full form. They part it out to the specialists so the teams can move in their areas of expertise. We have to learn how to wait when it's a planning time, or special teams are moving into position, and we have to learn when to engage.

If you don't know where to start, start here: What's your area of knowledge, skill and influence? That's your role. Now find someone with a little more knowledge than you have and position yourself under them to learn. If you bypass them in your learning or skill, look for someone else to replace them with that you can learn from. This means you have to find people over you to follow, in part. So if it's a youtube channel, a strategist, an author, a website, just figure it out. If it's as simple as gathering information from a couple facebook posts, then researching them yourself, start there. But start.

Who do you influence? Start there. Is it your children? Your family, friends, co-workers, or a bigger audience? Start where you are. Begin using your knowledge to inform and couple it with your skills to be effective. Talk about what you know with those who will listen. What are your avenues of influence? Do you have facebook, twitter, a blogsite, a group of people who get together regularly, your church, co-workers break areas, an email list? Start there. Meme truths, post credible sources and sites, ask questions to get people to think.

Never stop learning. There's so much we don't know, so much that has been hidden. Keep gathering information. When a source proves to be faulty, drop it and find a more credible one. Keep your eyes open and your ears listening. You don't have to understand everything you're seeing or hearing, just pay attention. Sometimes it takes awhile to make sense. (Sometimes it never makes sense.) Double agents are scattered throughout. Try to confirm your research by multiple sources.

Simplify the current issues, and lead people to the details that fill in the blanks. Just pick an area you're familiar with and can both simplify (for general understanding) and expound on (to prove your assertions).

Familiarize yourself with pedogate/pizzagate, the Podestas and their connections with DC elites like the Clintons and Obamas. This is a core issue and a primary target for the Storm; this needs to be brought down. The Executive Order [E0] of 12/21 was a beginning step for this. The 13,605 sealed indictments from October 30, 2017 – January 26, 2018 play a huge part in this.

- Look at wikileaks Podesta files.
- Read the Executive Order blocking all property and assets from human rights violators here.
- Read a pretty extensive list of high profile resignations since the order was drafted.
- A thorough overview and explanation of the Podesta emails and their links to criminal and diabolical activities.
- You'll find concise but disturbing examples of the pedophile activities.
- An excellent compilation of corrupt and indicting Clinton and ilk emails.
- A pretty good list of websites relevant to above topics.

Understand the media is the arm of the Cabal. Familiarize yourself with Operation Mockingbird. Trace the media owners back to only a handful. Follow the money. Inform all peoples of the corruption of the media. Notice things like MSNBC and CNN immediately talking about "Russia" after the State of the Union address, trying to move attention where they want it, completely ignoring the actual state of the Union and citizen's reactions to the SOTU. Notice the talking points that are given to them to try to direct and control the national narrative the direction they want it to go. Begin to recognize and point out the manipulation, propaganda and glaring agenda.

Only watch the mainstream media to understand what the Deep State is trying to do. (They are run by the Cabal controlled CIA in large part, and the CIA feeds them their information.) Recognize this and you won't be fooled. Help other people recognize this. Follow people like Sarah Carter or John Solomon. Check in on Hannity, cross reference with some Jerome Corsi work. Keep updated with Q here. Get and stay informed, and help others be informed.

Because of the 12/21 E0, a lot of people have disappeared, whether it be from their positions of leadership [see the list in the third bulleted point] or from life, or just a huge shaking of the tree – but these are things that show us the strategies of the Storm to bring down the wicked players are working. Eric Schmidt (Google) was the first resignation after the E0. Recall that Schmidt was Hillary’s “main outside advisor”, overseeing and running HRC’s computer technology and funding.

[Have you noticed how many assets Rothschilds are selling lately? Rushbrooke estate (England), St. Barts estate (Caribbean), an Austrian estate, five Geneva Switzerland properties [being sold by the bank], over 31% of its shares in Apache, and they cut their investments with Home Depot and Revlon – these all in the last year, most of them in the last two months. (To the tune of over $293 million in real estate alone.) What could be motivating the sale of so many assets? And at fire sale prices??]

Underscore the treasonous activities going on. The DNC and Hillary paid for a (fake) dossier to falsely accuse their opponent. They and BO weaponized the DOJ and FBI to bring their opponent down. These are not just scandals, this is treason. This is an attack on the foundations of our nation! This is illegal, unethical and immoral activity, and blatant disregarding the rule of law. This should be accounted for at every level. We are not a banana republic. We have a Constitution to enforce the rule of law at the upper echelon. The 5,000 text messages off the phones that went missing are gross negligence of duty on the surface, but really it’s tampering with evidence and obstructing justice. [Just like the “missing” emails off HRC’s illegal server.]

These things are anti-American. They are counter to our laws, our foundations, our Constitution. They are acts of war against American itself. They are treason. We have a responsibility to our Republic. If the highest offices in the land are not held to the same standard of our laws, our laws are powerless. If our laws are powerless, they are worthless.

When President Trump spoke at his inauguration, he said:

*Today's ceremony, however, has very special meaning. Because today we are not merely transferring power from one Administration to another, or from one party to another – but we are transferring power from Washington, D.C. and giving it back to you, the American People.

This is how it should be. This is why we, the American people, must stand for what's right and good in our government. We have to hold their feet to the fire and require that those in political power uphold the law. But this is not as it has been, as President Trump pointed out:

For too long, a small group in our nation's Capital has reaped the rewards of government while the people have borne the cost.

Washington flourished – but the people did not share in its wealth.

Politicians prospered – but the jobs left, and the factories closed.

The establishment protected itself, but not the citizens of our country.

Their victories have not been your victories; their triumphs have not been your triumphs; and while they celebrated in our nation's Capital, there was little to celebrate for struggling families all across our land.

That all changes – starting right here, and right now, because this moment is your moment: it belongs to you.

It belongs to everyone gathered here today and everyone watching all across America.

This is your day. This is your celebration.

And this, the United States of America, is your country.

What truly matters is not which party controls our government, but whether our government is controlled by the people.

January 20th 2017, will be remembered as the day the people became the rulers of this nation again.

The forgotten men and women of our country will be forgotten no longer.

Everyone is listening to you now.

You came by the tens of millions to become part of a historic movement the likes of which the world has never seen before.

At the center of this movement is a crucial conviction: that a nation exists to serve its citizens.

On January 20, 2017, President Donald J. Trump gave the rule of the nation back to its citizens. We have a responsibility with that if we want to reap the rewards of the liberty that come with it. Trump and many, many others have set a plan to expose the illegal activities of the usurpers of the nation of America. And they have enlisted our help. If we do not help now, and they fail in their mission, it will be on our shoulders and we will bear the cost.

So take up your positions! If we don't respond, the nation that our President gave back to its citizens, the nation that he defined as existing to serve YOU and me and future generations of Americans, that nation will morph into the socialist, communist, treacherous and tyrannical nation that its usurpers have plotted it to be.

When Trump ran for President, he wisely recognized the time that was upon us that Samuel Adams warned about: "If ever a time should come when vain and aspiring men shall possess the highest seats in Government, our country will stand in need of its experienced patriots to prevent its ruin.” This is the time experienced patriots are needed. This is the time to respond.
