

Quitters Never Win

By Lex Greene

March 9, 2023

When I was a kid, most of us were raised to understand that "quitters never win, and winners never quit." But for a few generations now, kids have been raised with no mention of such a blatantly obvious reality, instead raised on participation trophies for just showing up. Even worse, they were raised to see winning and losing as a negative concept.

But when it comes to the defense of freedom, liberty, justice, peace, prosperity and national sovereignty and security, nothing matters more than winning that war, for today and all future generations!

Sports didn't exist just for fun and entertainment. They existed to inspire and teach people to work hard and strive to be the best they can be. Team sports existed to teach people at a young age how to work together with others and succeed (win) as a cohesive unit with a common purpose.

But in recent years, whole generations have been taught by federalized education to be quitters, people who can't work together for common interests, and attack anyone who dare suggest that winning is an important part of life. As a result, we now have a nation of federally trained losers who can't even take care of themselves, entirely incapable of working together with others, even as their very life and liberty hangs in the balance.

It's no secret that "there is strength in numbers," which begs the question, why are 300 million Americans afraid of less than a 1000 politicians currently wrecking their lives and country at breakneck speed? Furthermore, as the people's strength only exists in numbers, why is everyone sitting on their hands alone, claiming "there's nothing they can do?"

Of course, working alone, trained to quit before they even start, they are right, there is nothing they can do. That should make everyone ask themselves, "why am I working alone, and how do I hope to win when I won't even fight?"

It's not a secret that "a house divided against itself cannot stand." Or, that two actions are essential to winning anything...first you must start, and then you must finish.

For our Founding Fathers, winning was a non-negotiable item. It still is...

For years now, I have been deeply concerned that a majority of Americans may no longer be capable of freedom and self-governance. All recent evidence would suggest that my concerns are quite valid. Anyone who thinks for a second that January 6, 2021, was an "insurrection," has no clue what an insurrection is and as a result, they may learn it the hard way, staring down the muzzle of a real insurrection someday.

A growing percentage of our population has been raised (by sissies) and dog-whistle trained (educated) in Marxism, the opposite of freedom, to be good little government slaves. Another growing segment has been mass media trained to "go-along to get-along," even when it may cost them their lives. Last, the "awake" segment of our population has been trained to remain so divided that there is no way they can unite to fight together, even when they may lose everything for failing to do so.

For one reason or another, most Americans quit before they start. Others may start, but get demoralized along the way, and fail to ever finish.

FREEDOM HAS NEVER BEEN FREE – AND IT NEVER WILL BE

If it's "free stuff" you're interested in, you will be required to trade your freedom for it.

Freedom is paid for in both blood and treasure. If you're willing to unite and use your treasure to fight for freedom, you can avoid some of the bloodshed. But if you're not willing to use your resources to avoid bloodshed, the battle for freedom will end with massive bloodshed and at that point, "winning" will be defined only by who spilled the most blood.

Most Americans have been Pavlov trained to believe that "nothing can work, we're just doomed." Or that "there is no peaceful solution, we will have to start killing people." These ideas lead them to quit before they ever start. They aren't waiting and prepping for the worst to come...they are making the worst come!

A plethora of peaceful ideas have been floated over many years, most of them bad ideas that simply cannot work.

- Why is anyone focused on amending the constitution instead of simply enforcing it?
- Why is anyone thinking about seceding from the Union, withdrawing from the Constitution and Bill of Rights?
- Why does anyone think the States can amend the Constitution other than through Congress, when Article V clearly states that they cannot?
- Why does anyone think that their weekend hunting buddies (little militia) stands a chance against the U.S. Military, much less China, Russia, North Korea, and Iran in a fire fight?
- Why are people shocked when bad ideas never work?

But the reality that these are all deeply flawed ideas doesn't mean that there are no viable ideas. Are these ideas being advanced by political operatives to prevent the people from ever uniting behind viable actions? I personally believe that in many cases, these are controlled opposition movements intended to mislead well-intentioned citizens, keeping them in the bleachers and off the field, waiting for someone else to do something!

But the point is there are real viable ideas, peaceful ideas, and methods of regaining control of our unconstitutional runaway government. The trick is to get people UNITED IN ACTION behind those ideas before there is nothing left but all-out war.

It's a FACT, winners never quit – – and quitters never win!

If you think it can't be done, then you won't do it!

If you believe you will fail, then you won't even try!

If you don't know what to do, you assume that no one else knows what to do either!

These aren't just false beliefs...they are far more dangerous than that! They are self-defeating beliefs. They are a sure way to lose, every time, and eventually, everything!

I'm under no illusion that this commentary can change the hearts and minds of deeply trained losers.

I'm just hopeful that this commentary can help unify WINNERS, so that together, we can defeat our internal enemies while we still can.

My email is below... losers need not apply or even bother commenting. I couldn't care less what you think about anything! All WINNERS are welcome though. Let's just get on the same ACTION page so we can win together!

If you're offended by truth...think about that a minute. If you're no longer offended by evil insanity, give that some thought! These are errors that only YOU can correct!

Maybe if I try my hand at poetry to knock a few heads together here...

*Mirror – mirror on the wall, who's the dumbest of us all?
Those too stupid to live free...or those who know better, but are too cowardly?*

Just as "Faith without works is DEAD," so is so-called patriotism void of any action or sacrifices!
