

Refuse Accepting the Refuse

Donald Trump in 2015 disturbed the monolithic mainstream media and its mindless mass followers who amass their manipulated misinformation in the belief that Mexico is not sending their best here, but just the rest. Insofar as that goes, Mexico isn't rounding them up as much as they come here of their own volition because they can't deal with the pervasive corruption and crime below the border, so they seek a more amenable means of existence here. Also, the US represents an appetizing source of freebies and bennies they've been told – correctly! – that they can filch out of our system without consequence.

But that is not by any means, the whole story. The Pew Research Center says that only 37% of 2021's nearly 1.7 million encounters at the border were with Mexicans. Since 2015, there have been huge increases in human traffic – and especially child sexual trafficking – from such nations such as Ecuador, Brazil, Nicaragua, Venezuela, Haiti, and Cuba, with their massive masses of peons yearning to breathe free, gain ersatz liberty, and enjoy the side benefits of Yankee/gringo/white privilege. And now, there has been a 700% increase in Chinese nationals, mostly military age males, crossing the border in just the last year. Blue America's newly sanctified sanctuary cities are the putrid petri dishes "culturing" our border disorder having become so by virtue of their criminally insane mayors and attorneys general. They let the criminals run wild in America's once fashionable and favored locales and one soon finds that they are not-so-slowly turning into favelas* (*third world shanty towns) featuring the homeless, the addicted, the drunk and the criminal with a side order of garbage and a topping of urine and feces as their main features. Black New York City Mayor Eric Adams supposedly has had enough, as locales such as Texas keep funneling so-called asylum seekers into Adams' bailiwick, turning it into The Big rotten Apple.

Meanwhile, late-comers hit the NYC jackpot when the overflow were housed in deluxe accommodations in fancy hotels at enormous taxpayer cost! However, expect no gratitude from the wicked or the invaders as it appears that some of the migrants have overcome their boredom while living in their up-scale facilities by throwing objects at passersby. As well, they are reprising Woodstock in mid-town Manhattan without the rock music (maybe salsa?), the merriment, or the mud outside the decaying Roosevelt hotel where they brawl in the streets, or lounge around making life miserable for the actual city residents. This is so perversely ironic because the one-time iconic Roosevelt house band, Guy Lombardo and his Royal Canadians used to officially welcome the New Year by belting out "Auld Lang Syne" to the appreciation of the nation from the Roosevelt's grill room. The band's motto was, "the sweetest music this side of heaven," a uniquely smooth style of pop. There's no way the libbers can smooth over what New York is now becoming! The city is losing important revenue as the upscale businesses are bailing out. But this actually started during the BLM "rallies" (riots) when iconic stores such as Tiffany's were looted without any response by New York's "men in blue!"

Nonetheless, Mayor Adams, President Biden, and every elected official to the left of Marjorie Taylor Greene seems not to care about the metastasizing mess here and in other blue sanctuary cities. Adams has a hot potato in his hands. His recourse would seem to be to pack them off to the Twin Cities or other locales that would still welcome them with that upper Midwest stoicism still in play today. As well, there is always the possibility that their numbers may drop if they are sent in any quantity to Chicago where the death rate is only slightly lower than that of the Civil War! Maybe the Texans will show the Big Apple some pity and send the next wave of migrants to the Minnesota Twins directly. That “next wave” is reputed to be the untouchables and such ilk from India, an unfortunate lot that one wouldn’t wish on anyone, even Mayor Adams. Thousands are beginning to pour into the US, in a tableau reminiscent of the final scene in the classic book, “The Camp of the Saints,” a scenario that is about to be reprised for real. These people are known to be sordid and sadistic, have very low IQs, and their per capita income of $2,085 would not go very far at today’s inflated prices. But even so, there’s no way we can keep them out now.

The left always acknowledges plausible grounds for asylum for anyone and everyone – as long as they’re not white European Christians. The “reason” may be presented as climate change or political persecution or economic hardship or all three. Everything is considered a qualification to open the borders and the wallets of the good ol’ USA and its people; no substantiation of causes is required. On July 25, a federal judge struck down the Remain in Mexico rule, such that asylum seekers need only set foot on US soil to earn the privilege of filing an asylum claim. How thoroughly did the Department of Homeland Obscurity, er, Security screen the 1,018, 004 persons obtaining permanent resident status in 2022? Many of them tossed away their identification papers before crossing into the US. Does that answer your question? But the fact is that no sort of screening matters anymore. Why? Because the laws don’t matter, the Constitution doesn’t matter, the will of the people is a joke and our politicians put themselves and each other in office by maintaining the show of what were once called elections. At this rate perhaps what is entering now might well become the best we have!
