

Republicans: Get Some Spine And Support Your President

Marilyn Barnewall

MEMORANDUM TO: STILLBORN ELECTED REPUBLICANS
FROM: TRUMP VOTERS
SUBJECT: GET SOME SPINE AND SUPPORT YOUR PRESIDENT
DATE: From November 2019 THRU November 2020

Below is displayed a human spine – otherwise known as a backbone. I explain what it is (though a child would recognize it) because you appear to have forgotten what it means to have a sufficient amount of backbone TO STAND UP AND PUBLICLY SUPPPORT OUR REPUBLICAN PRESIDENT. On November 8, 2016, about 63 million Americans voted to elect Donald John Trump as President of the United States of America.

Hillary Clinton won 232 electoral votes and President Trump won 306. That's called a political victory for Donald Trump. You remember the Electoral College, right? It's that bothersome part of the Constitution that prevents New York, Pennsylvania, Florida, New Jersey and California from being able to ignore citizen opinions of the remaining states by preventing them from determining election results based only on popular vote. Populous states have numbers greater than ours but the Constitution protects the other 45 states from having the political views of a few forced upon them... thanks to the Electoral College.

I bring the above to your attention because you have been so quiet – almost like a coward who doesn't want to be seen – during the past three years since President Trump won the election. His win was constitutional. You remember the Constitution, right? Sure you do... you took an Oath to protect and defend it from enemies – foreign and domestic.

Your silence during the past three years while President Trump has been mercilessly attacked by socialist Democrats who did not and will not accept the outcome of the legitimate 2016 election concerns and troubles me. You must agree with them or you'd be defending your President. One of the primary things that made America the strongest nation in the world is the peaceful transition of power. Since a peaceful transition of power did not occur in 2016, your silence makes me wonder if you support these domestic attacks against our President and our Constitution.

Wikipedia published a pretty thorough list of Never Trumpers. It, of course, does not contain the large listing of FBI, CIA and other intelligence agency employees who actively and often surreptitiously and aggressively oppose(d) President Trump. It does give evidence as to why the only way Trump will ever be able to function as effectively as other presidents is to hire a totally new contingent of people to serve him at State while finding marbles the current State Department's socialist liberal bureaucrats can play with to fill their time. They seem to think they know better than Trump and the voters how to run the American government.

I would offer in opposition to Wikipedia's list of Never Trumpers the names (if I had them) of the 63 million American taxpayers who voted for Donald Trump – who pay your far too high salary. They are the ones who count. In case you've forgotten, it is we the people who are sovereign in America, not government.

My stupid Senator, Cory Gardner, attended the first Never Trump meeting at Sea Island called by William Kristol whose father, Irving, wrote the book defining neo-conservatism (to which the Bush family subscribed). Irving Kristol, through his 20s was a believer in communism and created neo-conservatism to move politicians on the right to the left... and succeeded. His son, William, founded The Weekly Standard, a magazine designed to lead conservative voters to the left. He succeeded – for the short-term.

We voters understand Joe and Hunter Biden. We know what quid pro quo means and we understand the difference between real bribery and let's pretend political games. If there is anyone to thank for the awakening of the American people, it is Adam Schiff. His violations of the Rule of Law and his exploitation of the Constitution as he dragged know nothing witnesses in front of the American public achieved what I quoted in a News Wih Views article about WWII on Memorial Day 2011:

“On January 9, 1942, Japanese Admiral Isoroku Yamamoto (whose idea it was to attack Pearl Harbor) wrote a reply to a letter from Hiroyuki Agawa (see The Reluctant Admiral). In the movie Tora! Tora! Tora! Hollywood reduced Yamamoto's comment after Pearl Harbor to: ‘I fear all we have done is to awaken a sleeping giant and fill him with a terrible resolve.’

“In reality, here is what Yamamoto said: ‘A military man can scarcely pride himself on having ‘smitten’ a sleeping enemy; it is more a matter of shame, simply, for the one smitten. I would rather you made your appraisal after seeing what the enemy does, since it is certain that, angered and outraged, he will soon launch a determined counterattack’.”

In short, what Adam Schiff has done is anger and outrage 63 million or more people who voted or who wish they had voted for Donald Trump in 2016. You will just have to wait until next November to see the result of our counterattack.

Your silence and lack of support for President Trump is a direct insult to all of us who want him as our President. We may not like things about him, but we see what he is doing – things you have refused to do for years – and we like it. We didn’t vote for him to be our priest or pastor or rabbi. We may not like his Tweets and think it undignified but we understand because of media bias and outright lies about the President, it is the only way Donald Trump can make sure his supporters hear his side of the story.

Your silence and lack of support for President Donald Trump makes you a Stillborn Republican (thanks to Coach Dave Daubenmire for the term “Stillborn Christian” which inspired me). That, in turn, results in conservative voter actions like:

1. Do not vote for Stillborn Republicans for re-election.

Wait, that means a liberal socialist will be elected to replace you. What’s the difference between a liberal socialist and a Stillborn Republican? Very little. You both serve the system, not the people. Liberals want one world government via socialism; establishment Republicans appear to want one world government via fascism. The end result is the same.

2. The Republican National Committee (RNC) will receive less money from conservative voters. Those of us who think for ourselves will, instead, send our contributions directly to specific candidates of whom we approve... directly to Trump, directly to those who believe as we believe. So you'll get less money for your re-election because there will be less. The RNC obviously does not support President Trump (regardless of what it says) because if it did elected officials (dependent upon RNC funds for re-election) would have been told to publicly support the President. You would do it because your re-election depends on RNC money.

3. We will withhold from both Republicans and Democrats our votes from those who are too stupid or uninformed on the Constitution that they refer to our nation as a "democracy." The United States of America is a Republic, not a democracy. It is, of course, dangerous for establishment and Stillborn Republicans to remind the people they are sovereign in their own nation. The people, not the government, are sovereign in this country.

That's just a beginning list. We'll add to it as we go. This Memorandum is merely advanced warning of what you can expect next election season – which begins January 2020.

So what of the Adam Schiffs of the world? We learned long ago about people like Adam and their relationships with snakes.

For example, John F. Kennedy, a Democrat President before they became socialists, was on his way to give a speech in 1963 in Dallas on the day he was assassinated. Here are some of the comments from that speech never given in Dallas 56 years ago:

“The very word ‘secrecy’ is repugnant in a free and open society; and we are as a people inherently and historically opposed to secret societies, to secret oaths and to secret proceedings...

“For we are opposed around the world by a monolithic and ruthless conspiracy that relies on covert means for expanding its sphere of influence – on infiltration instead of invasion, on subversion instead of elections, on intimidation instead of free choice, on guerrillas by night instead of armies by day.

“It is a system which has conscripted vast human and material resources into the building of a tightly knit, highly efficient machine that combines military, diplomatic, intelligence, economic, scientific and political operations.

“Its preparations are concealed, not published. Its mistakes are buried not headlined. Its dissenters are silenced, not praised. No expenditure is questioned, no rumor is printed, no secret is revealed.”

You can read President Kennedy's entire planned Dallas speech here. Looking at Adam Schiff's behavior with his secret meetings, concealed preparations, use of diplomats who are part of the global operation to testify before the Intelligence Committee (which is the biggest oxymoron in the world) last week are part of what Democrat President Kennedy intended to talk about that dreadful day in Dallas.

We read The Washington Examiner and know Joe and Hunter Biden were involved in far more than Ukraine and China. We know an “investment firm linked to Hunter Biden received over $130 million in federal bailout loans while his father Joe Biden was vice president and routed profits through a subsidiary in the Cayman Islands, according to federal banking and corporate records reviewed by the Washington Examiner.” If you are unaware of this recent occurrence, use the link and read the entire article. The article further said:

“Financial experts said the offshore corporate structure could have been used to shield earnings from United States taxes.

“Rosemont Capital, an investment firm at the center of Hunter Biden’s much-scrutinized financial network, was one of the companies approved to participate in the 2009 federal loan program known as the Term Asset-Backed Securities Loan Facility, or TALF.”

We understand that the Trump Administration’s greatest strength as it enters into the re-election cycle is the economy. We see evidence already that the economy is being set up to either falter – or, perhaps totally collapse. Nothing is too low for establishment politicians, in their insanity-driven attempt to get Donald Trump out of the White House, not even to crash the entire economy. I predict that the socialist Democrats will attack Trump’s greatest strength: the economy.

It would be little surprise to those of us with financial and economic backgrounds to learn that Adam Schiff’s “investigation” and witnesses were an attempt to divert the attention of American voters from what is really going on in the financial community. Schiff failed – not just with financial experts, but with everyone. The ratings were so low even CBS gave up carrying the hearings. The ridiculous Democrats running for President could also be a diversion. Most of us “out here” cannot believe that these Democrats running for the Presidency were mostly elected to office by American voters.

This is just a message to let you know that those of us who write for publications not attached to the fake media are on to what’s going on and will keep the public apprised of it and will offer them suggestions – as I have offered you today.

Stillborn Republicans, beware the Ides of every month in 2020.
