

Republicans Must Grow A Backbone and Counter the Radical Socialist Democrats

Kelleigh Nelson

Socialism is when the rich get richer and the poor get poorer. When a person gets hungry, that's socialism too. Some might say that it's when the workers own the means of production, but this is all really an elaborate plot for us wealthy folks to keep bread for ourselves. –Karl Marx

Socialism is a philosophy of failure, the creed of ignorance, and the gospel of envy, its inherent virtue is the equal sharing of misery. –Winston Churchill

The reason this country continues its drift toward socialism and big nanny government is because too many people vote in the expectation of getting something for nothing, not because they have a concern for what is good for the country. –Lyn Nofziger (American journalist, conservative Republican political consultant and author)

Why, when socialists endorse the same collectivist ideas that have always led to tyranny, should we listen? And why is the Republican party so weak in retaliating against it? As I've stated time and again, the majority of Republicans are part of the same cabal as the Democrats.

Long ago old right conservative Republicans cherished both the U.S. Constitution and traditional morality, but those times have changed. Most conservatives were led astray more than half a century ago. They were deceived, not by overt liberalism/socialism, but by counterfeit conservatism which promoted liberal causes. Many of them now support abortion, drugs, homosexuality, pornography, policing the world's nations, the flagrant spending of tax dollars that has exponentially increased our debt, open borders and more. They are part of the same globalist establishment as their counterparts in the Democratic Party.

As such, many republican officials at the highest levels of our federal government and Department of Justice breached the trust of the people in an attempt to undermine Trump's presidency and remove him from office.

"Resistance" Began Early

The "destroy Trump coup" developed in the first 24 hours after the 2016 election following weeks of sometimes violent protests. The anti-Trump movement realized that simply shouting and causing public nuisance and property damage wasn't getting them what they wanted. It didn't take long for the members of the left to find impeachment was the best vehicle for their coup to drive the president from office.

Roughly five weeks before the presidential inauguration, Vanity Fair published an article by Emily Jane Fox headlined "Democrats are Paving the Way to Impeach Donald Trump." They focused on the family business, the D.C. Trump hotel and possible personal financial improprieties which now includes his tax records for years before his presidency.

By the day of the inauguration, January 20, 2017, the impeachment hunger was great enough that the Washington Post headlined Matea Gold's article "The Campaign to Impeach President Trump Has Begun." All of this disappeared after a few weeks when the fraudulent "Russian collusion" began, but now it's back in full evil glory.

Schiff and Impeachment

The Democratic Party, now headed by House Intelligence Committee member, Adam Schiff, is running the "impeach Trump show" regarding the President's legitimate and constitutional phone call to a foreign nation's leader. Can there be a more despicable two-faced liar than Adam Schiff, whether publicly reciting a transcript that he falsifies or even his cynical exploitation of his Congressional District's large population of 70,000 Armenian-American voters whom he manipulates annually?

Schiff purposefully lied to the public about what President Trump said in the released transcript of his conversation with Ukrainian President Zelensky. Schiff read an entirely different Trump conversation to the American public in which he created a false narrative about what was said and later claimed his "pretend conversation by Trump with Zelensky" was just a parody. This was no parody, and his false statements were purveyed to the American public by the right arm of the Democratic Socialists, the mainstream media and their flunkies.

The CIA traitorous whistleblower, who never listened to the President's conversation is being sheltered and hidden by the Democratic Socialists.

Senator Rand Paul told Bret Baier that according to the Bill of Rights and the Constitution, the sixth amendment guarantees anyone accused of a crime gets to face their accuser in court. And the Fraternal Order of Police claim Congress is violating "one of the most basic rights afforded to American citizens" as they attempt a coup by using impeachment to remove President Trump. Link

Republicans Rise Up

Congressman Andy Biggs (R-AZ) was the first to call out the attacks against our President by introducing a resolution to condemn and censor Rep. Adam Schiff.

Every House Republican signed onto Congressman Biggs' resolution. I was thrilled, and spoke with friends who all felt that Trump supporters wanted the Republicans to storm the secret meetings by Schiff being held in the basement and they did just that! They all walked down to the basement and stormed an illegal and unconstitutional action by Schiff and his comrades who are still angry that their socialist candidate Hillary Clinton lost the election to outsider and populist American, Donald J. Trump.

Senator Rand Paul made us proud when he spoke at President Trump's rally in Kentucky for pro-life Governor Matt Bevin. Here's what Senator Paul said, President Trump has great courage, he faces down the fake media every day. But Congress needs to step up and have equal courage to defend the president.

Hunter Biden made $50K a month. That's the definition of corruption, and we know he got it only because of his family connections.

We also now know the name of the whistleblower. The whistleblower needs to come before Congress as a material witness because he worked with Joe Biden at the same time Hunter Biden was getting money from corrupt oligarchs. I say tonight to the media, do your job and print his name!

And I say this to my fellow colleagues in Congress, to every Republican in Washington, step up and subpoena Hunter Biden and subpoena the whistleblower!

And I say to my colleagues, if shifty Schiff will not let Hunter Biden come, and if he will not bring the whistleblower forward, every republican in congress should take a walk and say, "This is a farce."

Trump supporters were pleased to see such actions, but more is needed to save the Republic from ultimate constitutional disaster and the continuous corruption by the Democratic Party.

Republican efforts are noted, but the recent elections spell trouble for 2020 as the Democrats are working overtime to make sure the country turns blue.

Kentucky Governor Bevin

Democratic money and dirty tricks were behind the recent election losses. Kentucky Governor Matt Bevin was the only republican to lose in that state's election. Republicans won every other statewide race by a considerable margin. Democrat Andy Beshear won the gubernatorial spot by a narrow margin of 4,000 votes.

Unfortunately, Governor Bevin was not only sabotaged by Libertarians, who won over 20,000 votes for candidate John Hicks, but by a failure of Republicans to vote for Bevin despite their straight line votes for every other Republican in the election. Governor Bevin was a strong pro-lifer, but it has been alleged that he was unpopular for a number of reasons. People thought of him as a carpetbagger from Colorado and that he wasn't really in tune with the culture of Kentucky.

Nevertheless, a look at the county-by-county map in Kentucky compared to an Electoral College map of the United States, looks like Bevin would have won Kentucky handily. The blue liberal enclaves in the cities are where the democratic voter turnout was high and cost the Governor his second term.

Virginia Goes Blue

Former Attorney General Eric Holder has had his first electoral success for the democrats to dominate state legislatures. They won both chambers of the legislature adding to the governor's control. After next year's census, Virginia's legislative district lines will be redrawn. That redistricting will likely cement Democratic dominance for the next ten years.

Holder launched the National Democratic Redistricting Committee which is committed to the domination of electoral map-making through the courts and legislatures. They've won with litigation changing maps they didn't like. They plan on doing the same in another 11 states next year. Previously Republicans had done the same thing after Obama was elected in 2008.

Holder's campaign is "sue to blue" and has yielded major gains for Democrats. Judges appointed by Democrats actually helped by striking down previous Republican maps.

In Virginia, Democrats spent at least $54 million, outspending Republicans by $12 million. Michael Bloomberg, Tom Steyer and George Soros and their organizations spent more than all outside Republican contributors combined.

Republicans must get involved in the state elections. The Democrats are keeping them occupied with their unconstitutional impeachment inquiry against the President. Holder and his gang intend to flip one chamber in each state, deadlocking Republicans and Democrats and throwing questions to the courts. Republicans need to get state judges elected who refrain from meddling in the redistricting function which the U.S. Constitution assigns to the state legislatures.

Holder will face a harder task in Florida, Georgia and Texas, as Virginia was already trending blue, but the threat to the GOP is real. If the Republicans don't take up that challenge soon, they're going to lose for another decade. We certainly can't afford that.

Soros has already launched a super pac for democrats according to paperwork filed with the Federal Election Commission. He has seeded the 2020 campaign fund with $5.1 million.

Here is Open Secrets list of the individuals who have dipped deepest into their own pockets for campaign contributions to federal candidates, parties, political action committees, 527 organizations, and Carey committees. Only contributions to Democrats and Republicans or liberal and conservative outside groups are included in calculating the percentages the donor has given to either party.

Demonic Hatred

Yes, that's what this is, demonic hatred not only of President Trump, and the fact that he was elected over the chosen corrupt Democratic candidate, but hatred of his supporters. The attacks on this President have been endless, and here are just a few.

First was the spying by Obama's henchmen and the creation of the phony dossier by Christopher Steele, paid for by the DNC and Hillary, then the immediate call for impeachment before Trump was even inaugurated. In short order, the attack on General Michael Flynn by the partisan FBI agents successfully removed Trump's perfect choice for National Security Advisor.

Ron Johnson, chairman of Homeland Security and Government Affairs Committee made a study of Mr. Trump's first 18 weeks in office. He found the administration had faced 125 leaked stories, one leak each day containing information that is potentially damaging to national security. Former FBI Director James Comey made sure before he was fired to leak confidential information and see to it that the Russia collusion hoax was started.

Rosenstein appointed Comey's good friend, Robert Mueller to spend millions of tax dollars and over two years investigating our President knowing it was a criminal deception by the left. Now we're into the impeachment for a legal phone call to another head of state by President Trump. Congressman Schiff is in charge of the impeachment inquiry circus to destroy President Trump's chances of reelection in 2020.

Today we learned that former U.S. Ambassador to the United Nations Nikki Haley, is claiming two former cabinet members tried to recruit her to help undermine the president. In a recent interview, Haley said former Secretary of State Rex Tillerson and former White House Chief of Staff John Kelly confronted her in a closed-door meeting to enlist her in opposing President Trump. She told them to speak directly to the President.

Haley will detail the alleged meeting in her soon to be released memoir, "With All Due Respect."

The Washington Examiner reports that a group of medical experts who claim President Trump's mental health makes him dangerous and unfit for office is seeking to testify during House impeachment proceedings.

The group, comprising four psychiatrists, a clinical neuropsychologist, a neurologist, and an internist, are planning to announce their availability next week to members of Congress and the media. They'll also be available to consult privately with members of Congress, with 2020 Democratic presidential candidates, or with members of Trump's cabinet.

Conclusion

Can we win? I don't know, but we surely need strong conservative Republican warriors and as I see it, there are only a handful...
