

Saving Democracy?

Aside from the constitutional fact that the United States isn't actually a pure "democracy," but rather a Constitutional Representative Republic, which guarantees every citizen and member state "a republican form of government" in Article IV – Section 4 of the U.S. Constitution, today's constitutional illiterates claim to be "saving democracy" when in fact, they are the greatest threat to democracy in the USA.

Article IV – Section 4 – "The United States shall guarantee to every State in this Union a Republican Form of Government, and shall protect each of them against Invasion;"

To be fair, a "republic" is a specific type of "democracy."

- The power of government is held by the people.
- The people give power to leaders they elect to represent them and serve their interests.
- The representatives are responsible for helping all the people in the country, not just a few people.

In the case of the USA, the Constitution does not create of government by "mob rule," wherein any simple majority is free to dictate to the rest of the people without any limitations.

Our government must represent the will of the majority, while not infringing upon the equal rights of any minority. To accomplish this, our republican form of government is very limited in its authority via the terms and conditions in the contract or compact known as the Constitution. Our government is further limited by the Bill of Rights, a document enumerating several specific prohibitions of government authority.

Political activists are characterized by their stated belief structure and political ideals. Today's "democrats" hold the following beliefs.

- No basic Right to Life
- No Right to Individual Liberty, but rather "collectivism" via mob rule
- No national sovereignty
- No national security
- No Constitution or Bill of Rights
- No economic freedom, for the "greater good" of taxpayer dependents
- No of, by, or for the people at large, but rather for special interest groups
- No sanity, common decency, or Rule of Law
- No "free speech"
- No protection of personal or public property
- No Right to keep what you earn
- No legal citizenship, or even who can and cannot legally seek public office
- No Right to real Justice, just a focus on so-called "social justice"
- No racial equality, just endless racial divisions

You get the point, right?

We are talking about a group of people who cast aside their duly nominated Presidential candidate and voted for the undemocratically installed candidate last year, Kamala Harris. Is it even possible to be more undemocratic than that?

They want you to believe that they simply "hate Trump" (and Musk too now), when in reality, they hate YOU and ME, and everything about our country. They want you to think they only hate Trump, when in fact, they hate all 77,302,416 Americans who voted for Trump to Make America Great Again.

The “Hands Off” astroturf rallies over the weekend prove that this group of people represent only the most ill-informed segment of our population. Video after video shows how these individuals have been Pavlov trained to do the street bidding of their anti-American politicians and real Nazis like George Soros and the WEF. These folks are not intelligent enough to realize they are mere pawns for their political kings and queens, sent into the streets armed with nothing but real fears based upon a constant diet of outright lies.

Let’s be generous and say that the “hands off” Soros/DNC astroturf operation put a million Americans in the streets last Saturday... that’s a tiny fraction of the 77.3-million that voted for President Trump three times in a row. Why do they think they have a right to dictate policies they don’t even understand, to the whole country?

But let’s get very real for a moment!

What good did you think could ever come from a society wherein a majority of voters believe in an alleged right to murder their own children for mere social convenience?

Did you really think that people who refuse to protect their own children would ever vote to protect you or your children from evil?

Do you really believe that people who voted for undemocratically installed candidates last year, give a damn about “democracy?”

Do you believe for even a second, that people who don’t care about the lives of rights of their own children, give a damn about yours or mine?

If you do, then you’re as foolish as they are!

These people do not just hate Trump and Musk, they hate YOU! They hate everything you stand for. They couldn't care less that you "democratically elected" Trump, or that the only authentic way to "save democracy" is to root out all crime, corruption, and waste in our government.

They want the only unelected branch of government to rule over the "democratically elected" President, because that is the only place they have power now, while crying "nobody elected Musk." Well, nobody ever elected a single federal judge either!

Face it, this group is too stupid and evil to properly rule over their own lives, but they demand the power to rule over yours.

They do not care how they get that power. They are every bit as evil and corrupt as their leaders.

This isn't just about what we do at election time. It's about what we can accomplish between elections, to secure our own country and root out evil everywhere we find it.

All it takes for evil to prevail, is for good people to do nothing!
