

Saving Our Country From Dystopian Oligarchs, Part 6 – America's Endgame

Remember, when something goes wrong in the circus, they send in the clowns to distract the audience. Well, something has gone very wrong with this circus, and the clowns are everywhere. –Anonymous

We have four boxes with which to defend our freedom: the soap box, the ballot box, the jury box, and the cartridge box. –Congressman Larry McDonald M.D.

It is terrible to contemplate how few politicians are hanged. –G. K. Chesterton

Those who expect to reap the blessings of freedom must, like men, undergo the fatigue of supporting it. –Thomas Paine

Once a digital currency is in place, government and/or Federal Reserve officials would have more power than ever to control, track and coerce individuals and U.S. businesses – likely without needing new laws approved by Congress. –Newsweek

An evil man will burn his own nation to the ground to rule over the ashes. –Sun Tzu

I love my country. I love the very idea of America. But our government has betrayed her people. If we don't fight back now while we still can, when food and water become scarce, our once civil society will turn uglier than Antifa and BLM riots. People who were once courteous and respectful will want what others have. Be prepared.

President John Adams told us, "Our Constitution was made only for a moral and religious people. It is wholly inadequate for the government of any other."

He was talking about the sewer we now call our federal government.

Americans who are awake, understand that Sars-CoV-2 was orchestrated by the World Economic Forum (WEF) with help from likeminded eugenicists and through WEF members whose tentacles reach into the very core of our government.

As a matter of fact, WEF has announced their plans for global taxation to fight climate change. Another way to rape the people and keep them in poverty.

Before I get to the heart of this article and the endgame of this wretched series, I want everyone to know that we still do not have all the answers or the truth. We have supposition by various physicians and scientists, but only the perpetrators know the reality of what they planned and executed.

Lies, lies, and more lies.

Who and what do you believe?

Was COVID-19 created by our Department of Defense and NIH and then shipped to Wuhan for completion? Was there ever any Sars-CoV-2?

The head of the Chinese Center for Disease Control admitted on NBC that they never isolated the virus.

Dr. Phil Febo has stated that Moderna and Pfizer never had the "isolated" virus in their labs. They used the sequence sent from China.

Denis Rancourt PhD discussed the evolving C-19 illusion in an interview wherein he stated the virus is an illusion. There is no such thing.

“Make no mistake, we are currently being assailed by a worldwide fraud of such scale and malevolence that it threatens our very existence as we know it on this planet ” – Dr Mark Bailey and Dr John B.

Dr. Michael Yeadon, former top scientific researcher and Vice President of Pfizer has read the full report by Drs. Bailey and John B. He states, “The only place where this report is, in my opinion, too tame is in the assessment of motives of those behind this global fraud.”

These men believe there never was a C-19 virus.

So, what caused the illnesses? We already know the hospital protocols were death knells to the patients. But what made people so sick that some died, even at home?

The year I turned five, my mother started reading me the very conservative Chicago Tribune. As previously explained, she was infuriated by a small article which stated the government had sprayed a flu virus over a portion of Chicago where we lived to see how it spread. That was 1951. Imagine what they can do today.

Experimentation on the American populace is nothing new.

There are two books everyone should read, Undue Risk: Secret State Experiments on Humans by Jonathan Moreno and Clouds of Secrecy: The Army's Germ Warfare Tests Over Populated Areas by Leonard A. Cole. (The DoD again.)

Our Downfall

Here is an amazing short speech. Seems few will watch a video, so I've transcribed it.

"We look in amazement at the processes under way in the countries which have been traditionally looked at as the standard-bearers of progress. Of course, the social and cultural shocks that are taking place in the United States and Western Europe are none of our business; we are keeping out of this.

"Some people in the west believe that an aggressive elimination of entire pages from their own history, 'reverse discrimination' against the majority in the interests of a minority, and the demand to give up the traditional notions of mother, father, family and even gender. They believe that all of these are the mileposts on the paths towards social renewal.

"The advocates of so-called 'social progress' believe they are introducing humanity to some kind of a new and better consciousness. Godspeed, hoist the flags as we say, go right ahead. The only thing I want to say now is that their prescriptions are not new at all.

"It may come as a surprise to some people, but Russia has been there already. After the 1917 Revolution, the Bolsheviks, relying on the dogmas of Marx and Engels, also said they would change existing ways and customs and not just political and economic ones, but the very notion of human morality and the foundations of a healthy society.

"The destruction of age-old values, religion and relations between people, up to and including the total rejection of family (we had that too), encouragement to inform on loved ones – all this was proclaimed progress, and by the way, was widely supported around the world back then and was quite fashionable, same as today.

"The fight for equality and against discrimination has turned into aggressive dogmatism bordering on absurdity when the works of the great authors of the past – such as Shakespeare – are no longer taught at schools or universities because their ideas are believed to be backwards. The classics are declared backward and ignorant of the importance of gender or race.

“In Hollywood, memos are distributed about proper storytelling and how many characters of what color or what gender should be in movies. This is even worse than the agitprop department of the Central Committee of the Communist Party of the Soviet Union. Countering acts of racism is a necessary and noble cause, but the new ‘cancel culture’ has turned it into ‘reverse discrimination,’ that is reverse racism.

“The obsessive emphasis on race is further dividing people, when the real fighters for civil rights dreamed precisely about erasing differences and refusing to divide people by skin color. I specifically asked my colleagues to find the following quote from Martin Luther King: ‘I have a dream that my four little children will one day live in a nation where they will not be judged by the color of their skin, but by their character.’ This is the true value. However, things are turning out differently there.

“By the way, the absolute majority of Russian people do not think that the color of a person’s skin or their gender is an important matter. Each of us is a human being. That is what matters.

“In a number of western countries, the debate over men’s and women’s rights has turned into a perfect phantasmagoria. Zealots of these new approaches even go so far as to want to abolish these concepts altogether. Anyone who dares mention that men and women actually exist, which is a biological fact, risk being ostracized. ‘Parent number one’ and ‘parent number two,’ and ‘birthing parent’ instead of mother, and ‘human milk’ replacing ‘breast milk’ because it might upset the people who are unsure about their own gender.

“I repeat, this is nothing new; in the 1920s, the so-called Soviet Kulturetraegers also invented some new speak believing they were creating a new consciousness and changing values that way. Not to mention some truly monstrous things when children are taught from an early age that a boy can easily become a girl and vice versa. That is, the teachers actually impose on them a choice we all supposedly have. They do so while shutting the parents out of the process and forcing the child to make decisions that can upend their entire life. They do not bother to consult with child psychologists – is a child at this age even capable of making a decision of this kind?

“Calling a spade, a spade, this verges on a crime against humanity, and it is being done in the name and under the banner of progress. Well, if someone likes this, let them do it. I have already mentioned that, in shaping our approaches, we will be guided by a healthy conservatism.

That was a few years ago, when passions on the international arena were not yet running as high as they are now although, of course, we can say that clouds were gathering even then. Now, when the world is going through a structural disruption, the importance of reasonable conservatism as the foundation for political course has been skyrocketed – precisely because of the multiplying risks and dangers, and the fragility of the reality around us.”

This monumental speech was given by Russian President Vladimir Putin when he met with the members of the Valdai Discussion Club in October of 2021.

Love him or hate him, his words ring true.

Yet, no politician in America has uttered such profound truth.

Quite obviously Mr. Putin is watching the disintegration of a once great culture and society into the same depths of depravity and evil that his nation underwent in the 1920s.

“The most effective way to destroy people, is to deny and obliterate their own understanding of history.” (George Orwell)

The Battle

So much has happened in the last 20 years to destroy our once Godly and blessed country, but America has been targeted for infiltration and destruction from her very inception.

Can we take it back from the evil ones? Holocaust survivor Vera Sharav tells us, “There are far more of us than the 500 to 2,000 of them.

When we look at our seven-year War for Independence, how many took up arms to fight for freedom from Great Britain?

According to statistics from the U.S. Census Bureau, in July 1776, an estimated 2.5 million people lived in the 13 colonies.

How many soldiers served in the war? Over the course of the war, about 231,000 men or 9.24% served in the Continental Army, though never more than 48,000 or 1.92% at any one time, and never more than 13,000 or .52% at any one place. The sum of the colonial militias numbered upwards of 145,000 men or 5.8%. Link

There may have been even more colonists who favored independence, but did not go to war. Here is the list from youngest to oldest who served. Future President Andrew Jackson actually fought in both the Revolutionary War, at age 9, and the War of 1812. Our fifth U.S. President was James Monroe, and he served at the age of 18.

Fence sitters made up the largest group, just like today. Loyalists were probably about as many as those who favored independence.

The patriots were more successful in attracting support, especially after Thomas Paine's publication of "Common Sense" which stirred newfound American nationalism.

The American Revolution separated neighbors, friends and families, just as today's politics have done. Even the son of Benjamin Franklin remained a loyalist. William Franklin rarely spoke to his patriot father after the war.

Surely there are more than 3.5 million Americans who are today's patriots.

Our Mission

America's End Game for the 21st Century is a blueprint for saving the country. The authors are LTG Thomas McInerney USAF (Ret), MG Paul E. Vallely US Army (Ret) and David Goetsch, a Marine Corps veteran and member of the Florida Veteran's Hall of Fame.

Our politicians have feet of clay. They are part of the problem; they're owned by lobbyists, and the majority of both parties could care less about their constituents.

What are the people to do?

- Pray without Ceasing! Study His Word. As a Judeo-Christian nation, we need to return to our first love with a new beginning of obedience to our Creator. It won't be easy, as the clergy have been infiltrated, but be fearless in speaking the truth.

We must please God, not man. Our society has degenerated into perversion and debauchery...but if we heed His commandments, pray for His help and seek His wisdom, He will guide us.

- Do NOT Comply! That goes for masks, lockdowns, "vaccine" injections. It also means we do not comply with historical revisionism, with the destruction of our statues, monuments and classical books. Get your children out of the government indoctrinating schools, away from Critical Race Theory, the 1619 Project and sexual deviancy.

If every physician had said no to the hospital protocols, to masks, to jabs, the hierarchy would have stood down. If every female sports team would say no, they're not competing against a pretend woman who has an X and a Y chromosome, they could win.

Numbers mean strength.

Reject socialism/communism/fascism. Stand for freedom. America's local, state and federal leaders showed us their lust for dystopian power when our God given rights were abolished for a virus 99.8% of the people recovered from with proper care.

Diana West's latest article, Comply and Humanity Dies, tells us the New World Order's digital slavery has cranked up. The European Commission and WHO launch the landmark digital health initiative to strengthen global health security.

- Tell Others! Strike up conversations with strangers. I can't tell you how many friends I've made by speaking with other women in grocery stores. When masks were forced by every business, I did not comply. When I would see others without masks, I'd comment, "It's nice to see your face." Talk to your family, your neighbors, your friends. If they reject the truth, dust off your sandals and move on.

There is too much apathy. Too many are still only interested in watching the gladiators in the coliseums while chugging beer and reclining. Meanwhile the nation is collapsing around us and the chains are tightening.

How can we be silent when WEF is telling America that by 2025, we must seize all family farms and burn the cattle?

To be silent is to consent.

The stakes are impossibly high, but living in fear and degradation isn't living at all; it's existing. Too many died by the hands of evil. Will we stand against it, or will we become their slaves? Our 21st Century politicians know all about how to make people afraid of trying to do what they know is the right thing.

What America has done to her people. Lord, forgive them.

Conclusion

We don't know if we are facing the Day of the Lord, but we do know it is spoken of throughout the Lord's Word. Here are just a few of the verses...

Deuteronomy 4:30; Zephaniah 1:14-18 calls the Day of the Lord "Tribulation"; The wrath spoken of in Isaiah 26 spans the entire second half of the Tribulation; Jeremiah 30:7 teaches that the Tribulation lasts until the end of the 70th week; Job 10:28-29; Ezekiel 30:3-4; Amos 5:18-20; Habakkuk 3:16 calls the Day of the Lord "Tribulation"; Joel 3:16-18; Daniel 12:1-2; Romans 2:5; Matthew 24:43-44; Luke 12:39-40; Revelation 22:5.

The things we need to do sound too simple, but they're a lot of hard work. Pray without ceasing, do not comply and tell everyone.

As in the days of Noah must have been horrible, but I believe this is worse. Prepare as best you can, but tell no one you've prepared.

This isn't a civil society anymore. When people run out of food and water, they'll rob, steal, rape and murder to get what they need. Most will NOT be meek.

Stand tall, hold firm, and keep the faith.
