

Saving Our Republic from the Invasion

Well, what do you know? Trump won! How do you feel? What is the Golden Age of America? How does the other half of the country feel? When will we all get on the same page?

One talking head said, "If you're in the Super Bowl, and Tom Brady gets injured, you do not put in a quarterback who has never played a down or thrown a pass. In other words, you don't put Kamala Harris into the presidency when she has never done anything to earn the spot. She wouldn't know what to do, how to do it, or how to handle the reins of power. The other team would crush her. In other words, you don't toss someone into a position whose only qualifications are "Diversity, Inclusion, Equity."

America escaped having someone who didn't know what they were doing other than vacant speeches with bromides and platitudes of emotional "garbage." The American people saw through it from every angle.

Morning Joe Scarborough and his side kick should be renamed, "Mourning Joe." Joy Reid should take on the moniker, "Joyless Blabber." Jack Tapper might be renamed "Jake the Snake." Whoopi Goldberg might be called "Well Shut My Mouth, Mama." And Al Sharpton might enjoy being renamed "Executive Liar and Thief Race Baiter."

Whatever you want to call it, the mainstream media got their butts kicked. An enormous 98 percent of their cover of Trump ran to the negative. An enormous amount of reporting for Kamala ran positive. But in the end, the American people would not take the bait. They would not swallow the Kool Aid. They would not succumb to how “dumb” the power elites thought of them.

The farce of the Russia Hoax, the New York Hoax Trial with the “D.I.E.” lawyer didn’t work, the Fani Willis hoax in Georgia fell apart, Attorney General Merick Garland was exposed, and the entire Biden-Harris facade of “competence” dissolved into a puddle of rancid balderdash.

While America faces endless challenges, we won't see another 20 million illegal aliens invading our country beginning January 20, 2025. We won't see 250,000 drug overdose deaths from all the drugs invading our borders. We won't see more criminals raping and killing our women. We won't see our schools turned into linguistic and educational horror shows with kids from 180 different countries. We won't get midnight flights from third world countries to bring in over 350,000 illegal aliens by our own president. No more Springfield, Ohio's. We won't have all that power in the U.S. Senate being used to cover up the corruption going on in that “Swamp.”

For all of us, we are watching the greatest political phenomenon to rise into the White House in all of American history. He couldn't be law-fared into submission. He couldn't be broken. He couldn't be killed by two snipers. He didn't bow to the pollsters. He stood up in the face of deadly danger, pumped his fist, yelling, “Fight, fight, fight.” He embodied America.

When Kamala was asked what she would change after four years in the White House and in power during a soft interview on the TV program, The View, she said, “Nothing comes to mind.”

That did it for million upon millions of Americans. She proved she was incapable of becoming president of the United States.

The fact remains: Biden and Harris broke the U.S. Constitution at every juncture. When the history books are written, both of them will be written up as Constitutional criminals. They broke our laws. They broke our cities. They broke our bank accounts. They broke our drug laws. They enabled criminals to kill and rape our kids. They cost us billion to house criminals and cartels. They encouraged Jihadists to enter our country to blow us up.

In the end, Harris finished herself with her own hubris, her own incompetence, her own inability to be a leader. Emotions only carried her so far.

As a full blooded American, I love my country. I love the U.S. Constitution. I love my fellow Americans. I love legal immigrants. Too many men and women have died serving our country. Kamala did not and would not serve our country. That's why she will never rise to any national prominence again.

Thankfully, the Founding Fathers knew what they were doing with the three branches of government. They knew what they were doing with the Electoral College. They knew what they were doing with the Supreme Court.

And now, we have a leader who knows what he is doing. And, he works tirelessly for all Americans. Whether you're a liberal or conservative, be thankful she didn't take over the quarterback slot when Tom Brady was injured. In the case of our team, she would have lost the Super Bowl. We would have lost our country.
