

Whatever Happened to Fight, Fight, Fight?

The Maryland headline says it all: “Kilmar Abrego Garcia can remain a free man for the holidays, judge rules.” The alleged gang member and wife beater has beaten the Trump Administration. Trump won’t fight the judges. He is bending over backwards to accommodate them. Sad.

Reaping What We’ve Ignored

Let’s start in my own town here in Wisconsin. Last summer, two 41-year-old parents were finally charged with felony child neglect after years of reports, but no charges. Incidents at this home date back to 2017 when a 3-year-old child, with shoes on the wrong feet and clothes unsuitable for the weather, was found wandering the streets late at night by a stranger who called police.

I Am Sickened at What’s Happening Across America

Remember this: if you import endless millions of Third World immigrants, you turn your country into a Third World Country. Look no further than all of Europe. They have “Crossed the Rubicon” of their inevitable self-destruction. At some point, you will be sickened at what has happened to your country, America.

Guess What? You're Jewish!

Historian and writer Eric Buesing says that the Spanish Inquisition, which began in 1478, "forced Jews to adapt or perish. Many chose secrecy, becoming crypto-Jews who practiced their faith in hidden cellars, or adopted Christian rituals publicly while whispering Hebrew prayers in private."

Happy Constitution Day: To Those Who Know What That Is

Midterm elections are a short 14 months away, and we owe it to ourselves, our families and our nation to KNOW how those we sent to Washington DC are doing in their efforts to save our Constitutional Republic. Many are failing. If yours is one of those, let them know YOU know, and that you will be leading the charge to replace them as soon as possible.

I'm Sad to the Core of My Being at What Happened to Charlie Kirk

While I see boiling aspects of "Clashing of Civilizations" bubbling up all over America, i.e., Antifa, Black Lives Matter, Muslim Brotherhood, C.A.I.R., MS-13, Sinaloa Cartel, Crips, Bloods and more. Some 33,000 people are members of some really bloody gangs in America. They distribute drugs, kill people for fun, rape for more fun, and defy our laws.

The Assassination of Charlie Kirk: What Do We Do Now?

So today, I plead with those who cherish American freedom – do not back down! If anything is to die now let it be the tyrannical WOKE agenda of lies deceit, and theft. Stand up with a determination that those who have been elected by the people truly represent the people. They must feel your pressure to ensure our society remains the beacon of freedom

What Must be Done for America

to Survive as a Constitutional Republic?

This return to Constitutionality also requires effective Federal law enforcement, for our government has evolved into mostly a Criminal Enterprise. Also, you must accept the reality that a majority of Congress is corrupt. But on the bright side, the unconstitutional departments, agencies, and programs can be terminated with the stroke of President Trump's pen.

It's all Downhill From Here, 'Cept What's Up

That's the way the snaking road treated me on Route 89 heading into Jerome, Arizona. What made it even more maddening was the incessant up and down—all that morning. By the time I reached the cobbled streets of the town, I was tired. It was hot and sticky from not taking a shower the night before. I stopped at a small park.

What You Have to Compromise in Order to Be Part of The # Club

If ever the church needed to hear that afresh, it's today. We live in a time where the agenda of the church is focused on everything but the truth. Why? It's because truth inevitably divides, truth causes controversy, and truth creates uproars and tumults.
