

Sessions, Rosenstein And Mueller: Destroying America To Bring Down Trump

Espionage, for the most part, involves finding a person who knows something or has something that you can induce them secretly to give to you. That almost always involves a betrayal of trust. –Aldrich Ames, Central Intelligence Agency officer turned KGB mole, who was convicted of espionage in 1994

Sharyl Atkinson has been at the forefront of investigative reporting. She has a timeline of the Collusion against Trump. This timeline gives us the devious plans of the socialist left to destroy a duly elected candidate who represents and symbolizes our freedom and liberty and wants to Make America Great Again.

Planted Spies

An FBI mole was planted in the Trump campaign before our President even won the Republican nomination. Now former Trump advisor Mike Caputo is telling us it wasn't just one FBI mole, there were more. Were the other Republican candidates deserving of an FBI mole in their campaigns or was Trump the only one not approved by the establishment ruling elite? It is reasonable to conclude the rest were/are owned by the globalist insiders as are all but a few in Congress and DC.

Link

Former Trump campaign advisor, Michael Caputo commented on Fox News' Ingraham Angle, "When we finally find out the truth about this, Director Clapper, Brennan and the rest of them will be wearing some orange suits. The FBI is not the only Obama agency who came into the campaign. I'm looking for clearance from my attorney to reveal this to the public. This is just the beginning.”

Personally, I have a hard time believing the Obama sewer rats in the DC cesspool will allow any of their socialist players to end up indicted or in orange jumpsuits. The power they wield can only be shut down by President Trump and I don't see his advisors moving him in that direction. Michael Caputo, like General Mike Flynn, Paul Manafort, Roger Stone, Michael Cohen and others are facing horrific legal bills, bills that are financially bankrupting them. This is par for the course from the Obama loving partisan globalist insiders working for Robert Mueller, and it is Mueller's typical modus operandi. Rep. Louis Gohmert's expose of Mueller makes it clear that he is an unscrupulous and unethical snake. Take the time to read Gohmert's expose, or read my condensed articles on same here and here.

Secret surveillance was conducted on no fewer than seven Trump associates: chief strategist Stephen Bannon; attorney Michael Cohen; national security adviser Lt. Gen. Michael Flynn; adviser and son-in-law Jared Kushner; campaign chairman Paul Manafort; and campaign foreign policy advisers Carter Page and George Papadopoulos. Don't forget the ever present and insidious use of media leaks to help drive and shape the news narrative surrounding the investigation.

How can the American people ever ensure that all of the DC sewer rats will be held accountable when those who are in charge of upholding our laws are part of and involved in the corruption? The DOJ/FBI cannot investigate itself...we need another outside investigation and we need massive firings of these Obama intel holdovers.

The Criminal Deep State

Other than his supporters, very few people thought that Donald J. Trump would win, Hillary was a shoe-in according to the democrat socialists in media, and of course had she been elected, we would know nothing of the Obama intelligence community corruption. But now we do and entrenched Obama bureaucrats clearly tried to cover for Hillary and destabilize the new president. This is obviously just the tip of the corruption iceberg. There is no precedent for the scale of these actions. We are entitled to know who authorized this attack on our Republic, and thank God Trump won or we would never know any of this.

The President is on the attack regarding the issue of spying on his campaign. Trump tweets, "If the person placed early in my campaign wasn't a spy put there by the previous administration for political purposes, how come such a seemingly massive amount of money was paid for services rendered – many times higher than normal." Trump was right when he tweeted, "Follow the money! The spy was there early in the campaign and yet never reported Collusion with Russia, because there was no Collusion. He was only there to spy for political reasons and to help Crooked Hillary win – just like they did to Bernie Sanders, who got duped!"

The New York Times is now saying the spy embedded in Trump's camp wasn't spying; he was there to protect Trump from the Russians. Unbelievable. The Democrat-media complex is acting blasé about one of the biggest scandals in US political history in an effort to downplay the seriousness.

So why the hell hasn't Sessions un-recused himself and jumped into the fray? Because he's part of the problem. It is my belief that Sessions was an establishment shill from the very beginning and was put into the Trump campaign to help to destroy him should he win. This Senator from Alabama has been a huge disappointment and now we know why...because he is fully part and parcel of the establishment who wants outsider Trump destroyed.

In mid-April, the Attorney General told the White House he might have to leave his job if President Donald Trump fired his deputy, Rod Rosenstein, who oversees the investigation into Russian interference in the 2016 election.

Sessions made his position known in a phone call to White House counsel Donald McGahn as Trump's fury at Rosenstein peaked after the deputy attorney general approved the FBI's raid April 9th on the president's personal attorney Michael Cohen.

Sessions and Rosenstein are good buddies, and we all know that Rosenstein and Mueller are very good friends. Link Those three are the main DOJ problems, get rid of them, and you cut the head off the snake. Then go after all the little rattlers.

Russia, Russia, Russia

The Russian Collusion investigation all began long ago by Obama's administration. It has always been suspicious that the anonymous current and former government officials who leak classified information to their media friends have been unable to coordinate their spin on the start of "Crossfire Hurricane," the name the FBI eventually gave its Trump-Russia investigation.

Thankfully, Donald Trump is turning the tables on the Mueller investigation. For a year he's played defense while the left distracted the entire world with, "Russia, Russia, Russia." One year into this investigation and there is no sign of any collusion. Instead there are signs, actually proof the other side was infiltrating and spying on Trump, and they were the ones colluding with the Russians.

The left and the media are in panic mode. They know the tables are being turned, and they know the American people also know that we may be looking at a scandal for the ages...one far bigger than Watergate. So now these corrupt losers are saying the President's attacks are undermining the rule of law and integrity of the FBI. What absolute chicken sh! It's not the President doing it, it's the corrupt cops in the FBI itself. In America you don't spy on any presidential campaign. Trump is right when he tweets, "Spygate could be one of the biggest political scandals in history!" If we had real journalists instead of Soviet style media hacks, all of America would know it.

The Buck Stops with Barack Hussein

To quote James Freeman in the WSJ, he asked, "Where in the world was Barack Obama?" What did President Obama know about the spy inside the Trump campaign, and what did then Attorney General Loretta Lynch know about it?

Are we to believe that James Comey, James Clapper, and John Brennan acted on their own and never told their political masters about it? Really? The bottom line here is that top officials from the Obama team spied on a presidential campaign which they feared and hated. That kind of surveillance is unconstitutional.

The FBI says it was done for national security reasons, defending the country, in which case President Obama obviously was briefed on what was going on. Obama needs to be asked what he knew and when he knew it, and if he was told about it, what did he do. Did he tell them to stop the illegal spying or did he say okay?

Bush press secretary Ari Fleischer told Fox News, "I guarantee the answer is yes" to whether Obama knew Halper and others were deployed to spy on Trump campaign. Fleischer explained that no FBI director would put informants inside a presidential campaign without the president authorizing it.

Link

Obama must have thought all of this spying on Hillary's opposition was necessary to keep his legacy intact. After all, he used his influence and hundreds of thousands of taxpayers' dollars to build a political campaign infrastructure that was deployed against the leader of our closest ally in the Middle East, Israel's Benjamin Netanyahu.

Stefan Halper British Spy

A Cambridge professor with deep ties to American and British intelligence has been outed as an agent who snooped on the Trump presidential campaign for the FBI. The Brits sure seem to have their fingers in our politics, including former British intelligence officer with the Secret Intelligence Service MI6, Christopher Steele, author of the spurious Trump dossier. Steele was the one who told Glenn Simpson, founder of the research and intel firm of Fusion GPS that the FBI had a “human source,” i.e., a spy, inside the Trump campaign as the 2016 presidential race headed into its stretch run.

Two months before the 2016 election, George Papadopoulos received a strange request for a meeting in London, one of several the young Trump adviser would be offered and he would accept during the presidential campaign. Link

The meeting request, which has not been reported until now, came from a foreign policy expert with connections to the CIA and its British counterpart, MI6.

That FBI spy was Stefan Halper who met with Carter Page, George Papadopoulos, and Sam Clovis. It is now 100% confirmed. The Obama administration placed a spy inside the Trump campaign before their witch hunt was even officially started.

Four decades ago, Halper was responsible for a long-forgotten spying scandal involving the 1980 election, in which the Reagan campaign, using CIA officials managed by Halper, reportedly under the direction of former CIA Director and then-Vice-Presidential candidate George H. W. Bush, got caught running a spying operation from inside the Carter administration. The plot involved CIA operatives passing classified information about Carter's foreign policy to Reagan campaign officials in order to ensure the Reagan campaign knew of any foreign policy decisions that Carter was considering.

Link

Halper has close personal and professional ties to the CIA reaching back decades. He is the son-in-law of a former deputy director of the agency, Ray S. Cline, and worked on the 1980 presidential campaign of form CIA Director George H. W. Bush. Think Brennan and Clapper weren't involved? Think again.

Link Let me remind you that Brennan had voted in 1976 for the candidate of the US Communist Party, Gus Hall, and that he was then greatly relieved to find that this information didn't cause rejection of his CIA-application. Brennan converted to Islam years ago. Link

Twitter troll, John Brennan lashed out at Trump after the President ordered the DOJ to investigate the FBI's infiltration of his campaign. Brennan also fired a warning shot to House Speaker Paul Ryan and Senate Majority Leader Mitch McConnell, claiming they will "bear the majority of the responsibility of the harm done to our democracy" if they don't stop Trump. Sorry Brennan, but we're a representative Republic, not a Democracy!

Halper is not only one of Bill Clinton's college friends but served as an advisor in the Clinton White House. Link The Department of Defense's Office of Net Assessment, a shadowy think tank that reports directly to the secretary of defense, paid Halper $282,000 in 2016 and $129,000 in 2017.

Stefan Halper is all over the Washington establishment, he's an accepted member, an elitist. He's part of the Deep State, and he has dual citizenship. He's taught at Cambridge and Harvard. He is from academia, which is where these spies come from. He is tight with the former director of MI6, the British version of the CIA, and he goes all the way back to David Gergen, who's now an analyst at CNN.

During the time Ronald Reagan was president, one of Halper's primary weekly contacts was David Gergen, a Council on Foreign Relations and Aspen Institute member. Halper and Gergen were colleagues. Deep State all the way.

Conclusion

On Sunday, 21 May 18, Rod Rosenstein asked the Inspector General Horowitz to investigate whether there was "impropriety or political motivation" into the FBI's infiltration of Trump's campaign. This came just hours after Trump's tweet, "I hereby demand, and will do so officially tomorrow, that the Department of Justice look into whether or not the FBI/DOJ infiltrated or surveilled the Trump Campaign for Political Purposes – and if any such demands or requests were made by people within the Obama Administration!"

Rosenstein agreed happily...why? Because as former US Attorney Joe diGenova said, "Here's the problem with Mr. Horowitz. He cannot interview any of the people who have left the DOJ or FBI. He has no subpoena authority. All of the people who were part of the plot and were in DOJ and FBI are gone. He cannot talk to them."

Chuck Grassley's May 11th letter to Director Wray and Deputy AG Rosenstein demanded they produce the transcript of Flynn's intercepted calls with Russian Ambassador Kislyak and the FBI's 302's by May 25th. I doubt they'll comply.

Furthermore, it is my opinion that the hostile and antagonistic FBI should be shut down by Congress who not only gave them license to exist but funds them.
