

Socialism Is A Lie And Kamala Harris Is A Liar

Announcing her intention to seek the presidency, U.S. Senator from California, Kamala Harris, said she favored "Medicare for all," which would essentially mean the complete socialization of health care.

Asserting her ignorance about the Constitution and healthcare, Harris has tweeted in the past:

"Here's what I believe: health care is a right, not a privilege. RT [re-tweet] if you agree."

Please pay attention to what I am about to say.

Kamala Harris is a socialist. She is also a liar. This is because socialism itself is a lie.

Webster defines socialism as the "governmental ownership ...of the means of production and distribution of goods...a system in which there is no private property."

Socialist theory is antithetical to the principles on which America was founded. Under the original American view of government, private property rights are championed and protected. But in the socialist view, private property ownership is denounced and demonized.

Socialism is un-American, and socialism has always destroyed any society where it has taken root. Look at Venezuela.

While Harris, Sanders, Waters, Cortez and their ilk continue to push for Americans to embrace "new rights" like a socialist European healthcare system, they are not the originators of this concept in America.

Franklin Roosevelt, in his annual address to Congress, set the nation on this path.

Here's what FDR said in that speech:

"So to speak, [we need] a second Bill of Rights under which a new basis of security and prosperity can be established for all...Among these are:

"The right to a useful and remunerative job...

"The right to earn enough to provide adequate food and clothing and recreation...

"The right of every family to a decent home;

"The right to adequate medical care...

"The right to adequate protection from the economic fears of old age, sickness, accident, and unemployment;

"The right to a good education.

"All these rights spell security."

Please note that Roosevelt's so-called second "Bill of Rights" is not based on the same premise as the original. God didn't grant anyone the right to a decent home, a remunerative job, an education, food, clothing or recreation paid for at the expense of others. Likewise, God nowhere grants the right to healthcare.

You see, in order for government to provide healthcare or any other of the second "Bill of Rights," it must necessarily violate the original Bill of Rights by stealing the money it needs to make these phony guarantees. This directly reflects the premise and philosophy of the Communist Manifesto.

Despite this scary reality, socialism is gaining popularity in America.

How can this be?

For one thing, public schools have been indoctrinating the youth of America into the ideology of socialism for over 100 years now. They are so successful that Kamala Harris panders directly to them.

The public schools are promoting socialism. They are lying to their students.

But I repeat myself.
