

Special Counsel Mueller Gives Final Back Stabbing To Trump In Press Briefing To Help Democrats

By NWV Senior Political News Writer, Jim Kouri

Special Counsel Robert Mueller held a special news conference on Wednesday saying he couldn't reach a conclusion on whether Donald Trump obstructed justice, as he stopped short of delivering a full exoneration of the president. Mueller, using the craftiness of a career lawyer and political operative chose his words to allow Democrats in Congress to continue their deranged pursuit of destroying the President using the criminal justice system and the impeachment process.

"If we had had confidence the president clearly did not commit a crime we would have said so," Mueller said. His briefing – which denied questions from reporters – on the investigation showed he was disappointed in not proving anything against Trump.

"That's why Mueller left open the obstruction question, something the Democrats are using to harass a President they despise," said political strategist Mike Barker. "The only good news I heard was Mueller announcing that he was closing his office and resigning from public service," he added.

Mueller sent a clear signal to House Democrats who have demanded his testimony that he won't provide any information that hasn't already been made public. "Any testimony from this office would not go beyond this report," he said.

The special counsel also said he found "insufficient evidence to charge a broader conspiracy" on election interference.

President Donald Trump's newly appointed Attorney General, while keeping a relatively low profile in his first days on the job, now appears to have hit the ground running in his investigation of what many are now calling The Trump-Russia Hoax.

On Tuesday and Wednesday, the Trump-hating Democrats and news media were taken-aback when they discovered Barr had already begun his probe of the now-famous Hillary Clinton bought and paid for "dirty dossier."

Barr selected U.S. Attorney for Connecticut John Durham to investigate the origins of the Justice Department's and the Federal Bureau of Investigation's probe of – and spying on – the Trump presidential campaign in 2016. The questionable investigation continued into the Trump transition and his early weeks as Commander-in-Chief.

John Durham, who is the U.S. Attorney in Connecticut, was appointed by Attorney General Bill Barr. He will examine the FBI's decision to open a counterintelligence investigation into the actions and motives for interfering in the election and "chasing" members of President Donald Trump's campaign team using arguably misleading or false evidence to obtain warrants. The now famous "dirty dossier" is based on lies and innuendo provided by a foreign agent, a former British MI6 officer Christopher Steele.

Deep State Suspects in Conspiracy to Overthrow an Elected President

Robert Mueller is the leader of the Trump ouster who are now trying to defend the Deep State's control over American politics from Donald Trump's assault on its tyrannical vision. In the process Mueller also hopes to atone for the firing of his friend and fellow conspirator, James Comey. Unfortunately many Americans cannot see that this man is not a "pillar of impartiality" as the corrupt media paint him. He is deeply committed to Deep State corruption while impersonating a Republican.

Rod Rosenstein is the Deputy Attorney General appointed by Obama. This is one reason for his insistence on appointing Robert Mueller as a Special Counsel to investigate Trump for alleged collusion with the Russians. His agenda is preservation of the Deep State as is Mueller's. He would have been much happier if Hillary had won. In fact he was surely expecting it, as were FBI personnel such as Andrew McCabe.

Andrew Weissmann is the primary "witch hunter" on the Mueller team assembled to investigate Russian collusion. He is a notorious pit bull prosecutor with a record of suppressing exculpatory evidence in overreaching prosecutions that have been overturned by judges. He was a "Gung-Ho" Obama supporter. He is known to use questionable tactics in bullying a target's underlings to force their testimony.

Peter Strzok was another Obama-loving FBI agent employed by Mueller because of his experience in counterintelligence. He is known as a devout Hillary Clinton supporter and one of the agents who interviewed Hillary about the email scandal, which turned out to be a phony powder-puff interview. He also edited Comey's Clinton investigation resolution by replacing the words "grossly negligent" with "extremely careless" because the former action can be prosecuted in the handling of classified information while the latter cannot. His investigation gave almost all of Clinton's subordinates blanket immunity even though none of them testified against Clinton.

Is this, as the media claims, a professional and objective team of crimefighters committed to solving an alleged crime? or was this is a coup d'etat to destroy the election of Donald Trump and and move to impeach him, which Mueller and his cronies had hoped would discredit the "people's revolution" against the Deep State that Trump has fashioned.

"This horrendous nightmare is taking place because of the collectivist corruption of the DOJ and the FBI under Obama, Clinton and the two Bushes. Corruption in practice takes place in men's institutions only after corruption of ethics and ideology takes place in their minds. Moral relativism (along with political collectivism) took over the minds of our professors, politicians and prosecutors in the aftermath of World War II and exploded throughout our culture from the 1960s to today. The chickens are now coming home to roost and usher in an authoritarian society," said Jeffrey Longeran, a former criminal/civil investigations manager.

Conservatives in Congress should show they have spines and they should counterattack Hillary Clinton a the Deep State with an investigation of the egregious "Uranium One" money grab in which she authorized the sale of 20% of America's uranium to Russia, which brought tens of millions of dollars into the Clinton Foundation from Russian sources.

The fingerprints of Mueller, Weissmann and Rosenstein are also on the Uranium One deal, for they worked assiduously to facilitate and protect its completion, knowing full well but not caring that it compromised American security. Because their stalwart political horse, Hillary Clinton, was benefiting. Thus the Deep State's aggrandizement was benefiting.

"This scenario is unbelievable. The Mueller Probe corruption is something we would expect to find in an African or Latin American country, or one of the Nazi Show Trials under judges who took an oath to serve Adolph Hitler in the 1930's. It is the result of obsessively partisan FBI leaders that have let their ideology and hatred influence their role as policemen.
