

Take Heed To Who & To What You Are Listening

“They are of the world: therefore speak they of the world, and the world heareth them. We are of God: he that knoweth God heareth us; he that is not of God heareth not us. Hereby know we the spirit of truth, and the spirit of error.” -1 John 4:5-6

The other day while listening to my intro feed on the radio broadcast, I was hearing another show host talking about what the bad guys were doing to the country. He was conveying to the American people the wicked deeds that are being committed against them by less than 1.7 percent of the population. He called them the elites, which he said, “ruled the world.”

Remember, the only people that can rule you are those to whom you submit yourself. Furthermore, nobody rules this world but the Living God (Isaiah 40:22; Jeremiah 32:27).

He was promoting their lawless deeds by highlighting their crimes, which is the fear of man that brings a snare (Proverbs 29:25). He wasn't teaching the Scriptures where they teach us to to “Keep His commandments and live” (Proverbs 7:2). He wasn't teaching from the Scriptures that we are “well able to overcome” (Numbers 13:30). Yet, he was professing to be a Christian when he is clearly not (Matthew 23:3).

“For he whom God hath sent speaketh the words of God.” -John

3:34

This broadcaster was driving a “doom and gloom” narrative to teach the men and the women of this country to submit to the wicked rather than to lawfully stand up and deal with them the way that the patriarchs that are found within the Word of God and our forefathers (The Declaration of Independence) have taught us to do (Psalm 94:16).

His objective, while teaching his listeners to fear other men, would then be to drive the people to his site to buy his product, not to the Lord.

Friends, we are to buy the truth and sell it not (Proverbs 23:23). This isn't the truth, nor am I buying it, and neither should you. We are to fear the Lord, not men, and this with strong confidence and much boldness (Proverbs 28:1).

Yet, how prevalent this is today among professed Christian conservative broadcasters and their listeners (Matthew 5:13)!

This is a clear judgment upon the people who have taken heed to these types of broadcasting hirelings (2 Timothy 4:3-4).

In contrast to these carnal men who teach such things, the Lord educates His children, which are those who have ears to hear. Our faith overcomes this world in trusting the Living God (1 John 5:4). Greater is He that is in us than he that is in the world (1 John 4:4).

We are made more than conquers through Him that loved us (Romans 8:37), period!

“Hear me, O Judah, and ye inhabitants of Jerusalem: Believe in the LORD your God; so shall ye be established. Believe His prophets; so shall ye prosper.” -2 Chronicles 20:20

Of course, this is the result of their adherence to the Word of God, in every aspect, every jot and tittle, and taking diligent heed to His commandments (Deuteronomy 28:1-15; John 14:21).
