

Ted Cruz, Kasich, Bush and George Soros – partners in globalism

“We have transformed ourselves into a system of government where the least capable to lead are elected by the least capable of producing, and where the members of society least likely to sustain themselves or succeed are rewarded with goods and services paid for by the confiscated wealth of a diminishing number of good producers.” –John Galt from Ayn Rand’s ATLAS SHRUGGED

Donald J. Trump is the New World Order globalists’ worst nightmare. Now even Sunday sermons are being disrupted by the Obamanistas. Many people believe the right is joining hands with the left, only to destroy the Trump candidacy, but the right has been in bed with the left and with the left’s agenda for over a century now. Today’s Obamanistas are the Soros communists as well as the false friends on the right.

It really became visible in the 1960s when Goldwater ran against LBJ in 1964, and his own party worked to destroy him, including George Romney, father of Willard Mitt. Yes, the entire Romney family voted for LBJ because they were so angry that Goldwater got the nomination instead of George Romney. The latter was a moderate who leaned left, and of course Goldwater was still representing old right Constitutional conservatives.

The avalanche against Trump shows the knowledgeable electorate just exactly who has been in bed with the left for so very long. When so-called conservative pundits tell you they’ll vote for Hillary if Trump wins the Republican nomination, then you know they are in the bag with the leftists. They prefer another globalist NWO agenda president rather than someone who will bring America back to her glory days. It is so obvious that I'm astonished at the lack of discernment by Christians and even secular voters. The hatred and lies against this man are so overt. The Democratic and Republican parties are just two heads of the same snake, and by now, even the politically uninterested should see it.

Cruz and Kasich on Free Trade

The well-researched in our electorate know John Kasich absolutely loves and embraces all kinds of free trade. He voted for NAFTA and is on board for the Trans Pacific Partnership. He's all for common core, throwing the borders open to foreign elements, and giving amnesty to the law breakers already here. And don't fool yourselves, for over 20 years the media pundits have been saying we have 12 million illegals in America. It's more like 50 to 60 million by now.

✘ The same is true of Ted Cruz, albeit he's waffled so many times, that his middle name should be flip flopper. Check out this video in Cruz's own words where he flip-flops on so many issues.

Remember Cruz voted for TPA which is fast tracking for the Trans Pacific Partnership, which, if passed, will destroy sovereignty, the Constitution, and jobs, more of which will go out the door to foreign countries.

The entire purpose of fast-track is for Congress to surrender its power to the Executive for six years. Legislative concessions include: control over the content of legislation, the power to fully consider that legislation on the floor, the power to keep debate open until Senate cloture is invoked, and the constitutional requirement that treaties receive a two-thirds vote. Legislation cannot even be amended.

By contrast, without fast-track, Congress retains all of its legislative powers, individual members retain all of their procedural tools, and every single line, jot, and tittle of trade text is publicly available before any congressional action is taken. [Link]

United Technologies boss gets \$192 million, 110 ft. yacht, as 2100 jobs move to Mexico at \$3.00 per hour. If you want more of this, just keep voting for those who love free trade.

Kasich doesn't have a chance of winning, and in reality, neither does Cruz, but these are men with establishment banking and corporate interests, men who will continue the downward spiral of the globalist New World Order.

Kasich and Soros

Oh yes, Kasich, Cruz and Rubio all blamed Trump for the riots by Soros' and Ayers' elements in Chicago. The three of them joined with the likes of communist Van Jones to excoriate Trump as though he was behind the Chicago protests. What a farce!

Both Rubio and Cruz who claim to be Christians have even praised Fidel Castro's comrade, Communist Nelson Mandela, a man who never repented, even in prison, for the torture he perpetrated on so many.

When Rubio knew he was failing as a candidate, he told people in Ohio not to vote for him, but to vote for Soros-funded John Kasich in order to keep Trump from winning Ohio.

During Kasich's 2016 presidential campaign he has received \$202,700 from none other than Soros Fund Management! Yes, you read that right— as in George Soros! But why not? Kasich loves Obamacare, Common Core, Trade agreements and amnesty, all right up Soros' alley. Soros is the Demon behind some of the most extreme and dangerous communist activism in the U.S. and worldwide. Remember Ferguson and Baltimore riots? That was Soros, his tax records show he spent $33 million in Ferguson alone bussing people in to riot in that city. [Link]

There's even more, totaling $700,000. [Link]

✘ Now a growing sex scandal linked to a major backer of Kasich has come to the fore. Venture capitalist Michael Goguen has been accused in a shocking sexual assault lawsuit that alleged he kept a woman as a sex slave for more than a decade. The super-PAC, "New Day for America," backing John Kasich's candidacy said Tuesday it will turn over a $250,000 contribution from embattled Silicon Valley investor Michael Goguen to nonprofit groups fighting human trafficking – as a result of these allegations that he "sexually abused" a woman for 13 years, including subjecting her to "countless hours of forced sodomy." [Link]

The problem with something like this however, is that it has nothing to do with the candidate. Kasich is a moderate at best, he loves what the left loves, but linking him to Goguen because of a scandal is farfetched. Goguen obviously prefers leftist Republicans, but Kasich cannot control who endorses and/or funds him.

The same goes for Donald Trump. The media yammered and yammered about former KKK nutter David Duke endorsing Trump. All of it was a lie. Duke never endorsed him, and Trump never accepted that endorsement anyway.

Kasich is not a leader I'd want in our White House, especially with his ties to Communist billionaire, George Soros.

Cruz Endorsements

The latest endorsement for Cruz is Lindsey Graham who, when he dropped out of the race, originally endorsed Jeb Bush. Needless to say, Jeb and Cruz have a lot in common.

Cruz joined the Bush-Cheney campaign in 1999 as a domestic policy adviser, advising President George W. Bush on a wide range of policy and legal matters, including civil justice, criminal justice, constitutional law, immigration, and government reform.

Cruz assisted in assembling the Bush legal team, devising strategy, and drafting pleadings in the Florida and U.S. Supreme Courts during the 2000 Florida presidential recounts.

After President Bush took office, Cruz served as an associate deputy attorney general in the U.S. Justice Department and as the director of policy planning at the U.S. Federal Trade Commission.

Recently Ted Cruz added Neil Bush to his team as a “financial advisor.” I started laughing when I heard that. Think he’s not lock step with the Bush family? Think again. Neil Bush’s decision to join Cruz’s team makes him the first Bush to join a presidential campaign after Jeb Bush’s departure from the race.  Remember the Neil Bush Silverado Banking scandal that cost American taxpayers $1.3 billion? Neil also has a rather sordid past of consorting with cultist Sun Myung Moon, just as his father did. He also is involved in education reform; the same kind of reform we’ve been fighting for decades. [Link]

And along comes Jeb Bush to endorse Cruz, but his brother George will not, because he can’t stand Cruz. “I just don’t like the guy,” said former president G.W. Bush. It’s not surprising though; these globalists stick together. Remember what Bush 41 said!

Carly Fiorina has also endorsed Cruz, which is absolutely no surprise. It was Cruz’s Keep the Promise I PAC that gave Carly Fiorina $500,000. Did Cruz PAC give Carly $500,000 to help his data mining agenda with Cambridge Analytica which creates psychometric dossiers on American citizens? Cruz Partners with Donors ‘Psychographic’ Firm. Carly KNOWS NSA data collection to a “T.” She was chairman of the CIA’s advisory board helping the NSA to develop privacy invading spy networks on American citizens after 9/11. Hewlett Packard was the private business that supplied the government with the spy hardware and software. Carly knows everything.

✘ These endorsements, along with many others, are from the establishment globalists. Add in his connections through Heidi to Goldman Sachs, the CFR, and the North American Union, and this is not a man who should lead America.

Heidi Cruz Also Worked for G.W. Bush

Ted met his wife, Heidi, when they both worked on the Bush campaign. She later worked for the Bush administration in 2003 as a top deputy to U.S. Trade Rep. Robert Zoellick, focusing on economic policy. Zoellick was counselor to Secretary James Baker. Remember Baker was the wonderful Republican who made the deal with KKK Democrat Robert Byrd which states that until December of 2017, the Republicans cannot go after the Dems for voter fraud. Zoellick heavily promotes free trade and environmental issues. He has also served on the boards of the German Marshall Fund and the European Institute and on the pro-abortion World Wildlife Fund Advisory Council. He is a member of the Council on Foreign Relations, and was co-chair of the CFR Independent Task Force on building a North American Community. He works for Goldman Sachs, just like Heidi Cruz, and he was president of the World Bank.

Heidi was then appointed director of Western Hemisphere on the National Security Council, reporting directly to CFR member, Condoleezza Rice. Don't forget that she's spent five years at the CFR helping to write the North American Community just like Robert Zoellick.

Let's go back to Cruz's Princeton days. His mentor at Princeton was CFR member Robert George, who has also served on UNESCO's World Commission on the Ethics of Scientific Knowledge and Technology (COMEST), of which he remains a corresponding member. Get that, Cruz's mentor is not only a globalist CFR member, but also is well involved with the United Nations.

The Cruz's are total GOP establishment.

Conclusion

What we need in a leader, is one who is not indebted to banking and corporate interests, or beholden to any group of lobbyists or the globalist cabal.

Donald Trump doesn't know everything he should know, but he is learning. He does listen to the American people, and it's up to us to keep him informed. He is a leader, and he is hated by the entire New World Order gang on the left, the right, and in the media. This alone should tell the American people that we need this man in our White House.
