

The Assassins of the FBI

By Cliff Kincaid

In the video game, Assassin's Creed, the gamer can play the role of a legendary samurai and a shinobi assassin in feudal Japan. In real life, President Trump's alleged would-be assassin in current-day America was facilitated in his mission by the FBI and then, after he was terminated, the FBI sanitized the crime scene, burned his body, and has failed to tell us what was in his encrypted overseas accounts.

One must conclude the FBI is on a mission to kill Trump and covered it up when Trump survived.

But it's not just Trump's life that is in jeopardy. Robert F. Kennedy, Jr. was denied official protection for months, even though his father and uncle were both killed by assassins. Now that he has endorsed Trump for president, his Secret Service protection has been withdrawn.

Of course, considering the "security lapses" in Butler, Pennsylvania, on July 13, when Trump was almost killed, such "security" does not guarantee survival. In fact, it could mean a death sentence.

Remember that FBI agent Peter Strzok, who worked on the special counsel's Russia-gate probe, declared in August 2016 in text messages with his FBI mistress that "We'll stop" Trump from getting elected president.

Incredibly, the release of these messages was deemed an invasion of privacy and Strzok and his mistress were awarded

$2 million by the Department of Justice.

Now we have learned at a forum at the Heritage Foundation, Ben Shaffer, a Washington regional SWAT operator who took part in the security on July 13, acknowledged the FBI engaged in evidence tampering after the attempt to murder Trump. The event was carried live on Rumble.

In response to questions from Rep. Cory Mills (at 1:03:16) in the Rumble recording of the session, Shaffer acknowledged that the Secret Service refused to take basic steps to protect Trump and then how (at 1:36:42) the FBI has covered-up the forensic evidence, including ballistics. This was “destruction of evidence,” noted another witness, Erik Prince, a former Navy SEAL and founder of the private military contractor Blackwater.

After a career of 40 years covering official corruption, I am astounded by the notion that we can have a “normal” presidential election during a year in which the Secret Service and the FBI are implicated in the attempted murder of the Republican presidential candidate and the cover-up of their roles.

We already know the FBI facilitated the election “victory” of Biden/Harris in 2020 by directing social media censorship of the Hunter Biden laptop that contained evidence of impeachable offenses against Biden. Mark Zuckerberg just confirmed that.

Now, with Trump running again, after the coup against Biden replaced him with Harris, the FBI has resorted to the “assassin’s creed” of terminating Trump.

We still don’t know for sure if Thomas Crooks was the only gunman. But assuming he was at least responsible or a factor in some way, the FBI’s conduct already stinks to high heaven.

To understand how we got to this point, consider one of the most outrageous cases of official corruption in FBI history:

Weather Underground terrorist Mark Rudd, who was invited to the FBI Training Academy in Quantico, Virginia, and asked to “speak to a terrorism class at the academy.” Interestingly, his appearance was confirmed as fact by Rudd’s own blog post.

He was invited by Andrew Bringuel, a former FBI Agent Supervisor, Instructor & Researcher at the FBI Academy’s Behavioral Science Unit, who left the agency and could not be located for a comment for this article.

I revisit this “incident” because of what we know now about the FBI’s targeting of Trump.

FBI deputy director Paul Abbate testified at a hearing on the Trump assassination attempt that the FBI believes a bullet hit Trump, and always has believed that. If so, why did Director Christopher Wray say the opposite?

In this case, they didn’t use an FBI sniper, such as when they killed the wife of Randy Weaver at Ruby Ridge. They used a patsy, or else enlisted a group of still unknown foreign assassins.

To me, it looks like the FBI has incorporated the strategies of the Weather Underground in its operations. That is, bombings and assassinations. They are the essence of the KGB.

Remember that Crooks had explosives in his car.

At the time of Rudd’s appearance as part of a book tour, I had offered some suggested questions:

1) Your fingerprints were found in a Weather Underground bomb factory in San Francisco. What bombs were constructed there and how many people did they kill?

2) Where was the bomb constructed that killed Police Sgt. Brian McDonnell at the San Francisco Park Police Station on February 16, 1970? (A report about the case is available here).

- 3) Have you ever volunteered to tell authorities what you know about the bomb that killed Officer McDonnell?
- 4) Do you have any reason not to believe former FBI informant Larry Grathwohl's sworn testimony that Bill Ayers told him that Bernardine Dohrn planted that bomb?
- 5) You admit approving the construction and placement of a bomb designed to kill or hurt hundreds, perhaps thousands, of servicemen and their wives and girlfriends at Ft. Dix. Since you believed in "offing the pigs," did you sanction the bombing of the Park Police Station in San Francisco as well?
- 6) Why won't you come clean and tell the truth about your role in the Park Police Station bombing?
- 7) Your comrades wrote the Prairie Fire Manifesto dedicated to the assassin of Robert F. Kennedy. Why did Ayers and Dohrn want RFK dead? Is it because they (and you) were not anti-war but pro-war and in favor of a communist victory in Vietnam and around the world? Were you proud of 1-2 million dying in neighboring Cambodia under the Khmer Rouge?
- 8) The Weather Underground told Grathwohl that as many as 25 million Americans would have to be killed if they took over. Do you agree with that estimate?
- 9) Your comrade Bernardine Dohrn praised mass murderer Charles Manson. Do you know if she has ever sought psychiatric help? Have you?
- 10) Since it's clear you don't care about the lives of police officers, why didn't you stop the Ft. Dix bomb plot and save the lives of your comrades who died when the bomb accidentally went off?
- 11) Have you ever expressed remorse to the parents of your comrades Robbins, Oughton, and Gold?
- 12) Have you ever expressed remorse to the victims of

Weather Underground terrorism and their families?

13) How much of a cash advance were you paid by Rupert Murdoch for your blood-soaked “memoir?” Shouldn’t you give that money to the families of those you injured or killed?

14) On your trip to Cuba, how many Cuban intelligence officials did you meet with? Besides Julian Torres Rizo, what were their names? What kind of training in terrorism did you receive?

15) Are you proud of your sponsor Fidel Castro for giving political asylum to convicted cop-killer Joanne Chesimard?

In a postscript, we have published a special report on how Kamala Harris, then a District Attorney in San Francisco, failed to prosecute the Weather Underground terrorists for killing Sgt. McDonnell.
