

The Corporate News Networks Survive Off the Ignorance of the People

"Wherever law ends, tyranny begins." – John Locke

For the life of me, I have never ever understood why today's self-professed conservative show hosts will have on their television or radio programs two sides of an argument. After all, one is lawful and the other is unlawful and illegal (Psalm 94:20). Yet, this is what the American people have taken on when they take on the corporate news left vs. right paradigm. It is being played out to merely divide and conquer (Mark 3:25) the American people, in an attempt to tear down the US Constitution and re-create it into a global government (Article 4, Section 4, US Constitution).

Think about it, a police officer does not ask the criminal of his or her opinion of the law if transgressed (1 John 3:4), does he? Absolutely not! Yet, this is what these show hosts do today.

Let me show you how this works.

When a topic (bone) is thrown to the American people to further their global initiative, typically the conservatives will have two guests (One labeled a leftist, and the other labeled a conservative, rather than calling them for who and what they are, law abiders or a lawbreakers) to argue over and to debate away that which is already established law, as if to suggest that a leftist or a conservative has the power or authority to change the law that God has established through common law.

The hope, of course, is to change public opinion, which overthrows the laws of our Republic through believing that America is a democracy. This is the sole reason that president after president and administration after administration are continuously inundating Americans with the word-play of democracy to bring about change (Proverbs 24:21) in undermining the laws of our Constitutional Republic.

It is usually played up to the viewers' emotions by one that plays the victim, all the while perpetuating the crime.

Because of these debates, people have taken on the mind of the enemy, rather than holding to the mind of Christ (Ephesians 4:24) and maintaining our laws (Matthew 7:24-27).

Americans have taken on their debated talking points such as global warming (Ecclesiastes 1:4), amnesty for illegals, transgenders, etc.

These are the same debates that have, in the past, brought us "lines between church and state" (in reverse from what it originally means), abortion, sodomy, homosexual "marriage," etc (Jeremiah 5:21).

Americans must come to the realization that corporate news networks literally survive off the ignorance of the American people (Hosea 4:6). The educated do not put up with this propaganda.

Notice that their debates continue when the law is left out of their contrived debates. As truth is the first casualty of every war, so are their debates unlawful attacks on constitutional law that opens up the way for their lawless policies.

If the laws were to be brought in and referenced, there would be no debate (1 John 3:8), for the law exposes the crime (Romans 3:20), and this, my friends, is the reason both the unlawful left vs. the ignorant right survive in their debates, at least temporarily (Galatians 6:7).

Debate and compromise, in the end, is to strip Americans of their God-given rights and freedoms.

Furthermore, this is how these television and radio show hosts hold onto and keep their golden calves of sponsorships alive (Exodus 32:8). Keep the people ignorant of the law (Constitution); keep the debates alive, and keep strengthening tyranny by forging the people's chains in enslaving them through policies, all the while keeping the sponsors happy. That's their goal.

"The secret of freedom lies in educating people, whereas the secret of tyranny is in keeping them ignorant." – Maximilien Robespierre

We, as Americans, are ruled by law under God who gave the law (Exodus 20) that keeps us free (2 Corinthians 3:17), not a new administration or representative because he or she has your favorite jersey on, not party affiliation, and surely not the opinion of those who are being used to tear down law and recreate a country that is foreign to both you and me.

If there is an attempt to pass a bill running contrary to the Constitution and the laws of our Republic, and you see these useful idiots on both sides of the aisle on television or radio debating it, remember they are only being used to further the global agenda.

If it is wrong, antithetical to law, it is not wrong because I said so, it is wrong because the Law Giver (God, the Father) said so.

Remember, "Wherever law ends, tyranny begins."
