

The Devil's Playbook: White Race Must Be Erased and Their History Denigrated

In consideration of the above matter: first and foremost, all the accomplishments of the white race must be erased and their history denigrated so as to induce white guilt at every opportunity. Meanwhile, the comparatively paltry accomplishments of the other races in the history of America – and, aside from the Asian Races – in the rest of the world as well (see the black race) must be lauded and applauded and made to be seen as the reason for the triumph of the West. Once these intentions have been accomplished, the global elites may then proceed with the Great Replacement through the use of unrestrained immigration of the peoples of the Third World into the First World both in the United States and Europe.

Second, the nuclear family must be destroyed in order to form men and women into rivals instead of partners. Convince the People that fathers are unnecessary and, furthermore that children are a burden upon individual liberties.

Third, the People must be turned into passive consumers while, with regard to political matters, they become as sheep; that is, what today are called “sheeple.” Call shame upon individual human drive and ambition, labeling these manifestations of advanced humanity as toxic and, worse, a “white thing,” to be dissed and dismissed out of hand.

Fourth, convince women that their femininity – that is, their ability and role to create and nurture human life – is a curse, that motherhood is servitude and that any involvement with a man in the family situation is acceptance of slavery. Promote abortion as normal and a healthful practice to be covered by health insurance and accepted in the culture’s religious institutions.

Fifth, confuse and befuddle children by assuring them of the “reality” of matters that are impossible. Tell them that they can be, by simply “willing it to be so,” any gender from a menu of gender-benders. Also, encourage them to inflict their will in these matters upon parents and the culture via temper tantrums and claims of “child abuse” until they get what they see as “their way.” This will result in legally permitted chemical and surgical sex changes, while eliminating the requirement of parental consent.

Sixth, create and install sterile lifestyles by presenting them as “moral ideals.” Encourage same sex and other non-traditional unions while treating the traditional family as a model of the unacceptable Western Civilization (Christian) “patriarchy.”

Seventh, reward the consequences of vice while punishing the values of virtue. Demand and promote equality of outcomes as de rigueur. Ignore failure by patronizing its outcome as little different from success while belittling actual success. Protect and excuse irresponsibility. Dismiss excellence and competence as a “white thing.”

Eighth, turn civilization and its political underpinning into tribal warfare. Denounce the populace working together to attain common goals as slavery and a lack of or assault upon individual freedom.

Ninth, denounce national sovereignty as slavery and work in favor of an international world order run by distant bureaucrats, NGOs, and corporate bodies that the nation's voters can neither install nor remove and who never have to answer to the People.

Tenth, force Western nations to import incompatible and unassimilable Third World populations unwilling to and incapable of supporting themselves without massive welfare programs not available to that nation's citizens. Placate those citizens with platitudes and outright lies claiming that we are forced either by need or empathy to co-exist with those who care nothing for their or their nation's future.

Eleventh, poison the food supply while selling the populace pills and potions assured to provide relief from their ongoing, never ending health problems. Meanwhile, pocket the outlandish profits that ensue while making sure that those involved cannot be held accountable by law for their actions.

Twelfth, demonize so-called "fossil fuels" claiming that they are poisoning the atmosphere and affecting the climate. Pass laws demanding "sustainable energy" by means that are neither good nor sustainable. This will force the people to reject progress and regress to a pre-industrial existence in the quest to remove carbon dioxide from the air. Of course, as that gas provides nourishment for all plant life on the planet, if it is sufficiently reduced, plants, the foundation of the world's food supply, starve and thus animal life – including mankind – is also starved. (Note: the extinction of the dinosaurs was caused by an asteroid whose consequences ended first the majority of plant life on the planet. Once that happened, the plant-eating dinosaurs died off along with the carnivores who subsisted on them. Modern "climate warriors" just want to do the same thing without the asteroid.)

Thirteenth, continue to corrupt the information stream with establishment narratives and narrow what is considered acceptable thought, punishing any who refuse the new narrative. Make censorship of undesired viewpoints legal in order to further the expanse of government punishment.

Fourteenth, continue the campaign making people chronically distracted by saturating every waking moment with narrative noise, unbearable social media chatter, and AI applications that reduce the line between what is “real” and what is “manufactured.” Such an ongoing campaign of illusion will assure that “truth decay” becomes terminal.

Fifteenth, detach people from their past including their ancestors and the history of their civilization and culture. By doing so, they become unable to discern their future. Create an historical narrative as a means of studying actual history. Make foresight and forethought futile. Author George Orwell put it best when he said, “Those who control the past control the future; those who control the present, control the past.”

Sixteenth, deride and denigrate anything “good” or “spiritual,” especially religious faith – unless, as with Islam, it is useful for government control. This is done as a means of convincing people that there is nothing that is truly worthy or that truly matters. It all becomes a matter of choice. Once this is achieved, social chaos is not met with resistance, but with indifference. After all, what does it matter when nothing is truly right or wrong, good or bad?
