

The Great Conservative Hope in Canada

Expelling the influence of globalism and anti-Americanism from Canada is just as important, even more so, than defeating Russian aggression in Ukraine.

While the world has been preoccupied with the war in Europe, a war has been taking place in Canada, with a national business group known as the Coalition of Concerned Manufacturers and Businesses Canada (CCMBC) warning in a special report titled “The China Syndrome” that the Chinese Communists already have major influence in Canada, that the country’s much-ballyhooed health care sector is controlled by the World Health Organization, and that its major public employee union is controlled by Marxists.

But please do not give up on Canada. Some of our friends to the north have a plan to reestablish their friendship with America and break their lies with the globalist New World Order regime running Canada through international banker Mark Carney, also known as “Marx Carnage.”

On my Rumble TV program, United Party of Canada leader Grant Abraham says communism has come to the country he grew up in and loves through attacks on parental authority, bank account freezes, political prisoners, and clear religious discrimination of Christians. In this broadcast, he proposes independence for Alberta, a conservative province, and urges American conservatives to know who its real conservative friends are north of the border.

He is battling for a seat in an August 18 by-election in Canada, against fake “conservative” Pierre Poilievre, who spouted the ridiculous “Canada First” mantra and rejected Trump’s policies designed to make both countries stronger.

Abraham says, “This election is going to make a difference in Alberta as well as the rest of Canada, as it stands as a turning point for the liberation of all Canadians and the restoration of true freedom in our nation.”

A loser and Trump basher, Poilievre lost to Carney in a national election, despite his “Conservative Party” being up 25 points in the polls at one time.

Poilievre even lost his seat in the Canadian Parliament, in a district in Ontario, Canada, which was once considered “conservative” and which he had held for 20 years. Now he is trying to get back into the parliament through a special by-election. Grant Abraham is calling his bluff.

“This By-Election is HUGELY important for what kind of Canada you want your children or grandchildren to inherit,” Abraham tells his supporters, adding, “The people of this riding [district] will decide between the two Canadas.”

The first Canada, he explains, “the one that is being broken apart and destroyed by the Liberal agenda of the last 10 years, AND by the failure of the Conservative Party of Canada to identify the threats – let alone challenge them. The second is a Canada ruled by oppressive laws, censorship, the destruction of parental authority, bank account freezes, political prisoners, and clear religious discrimination of Christians; this Canada enables the destruction of human life and hope. MAID, rampant drugs (fentanyl) and a total failure to protect the unborn. This Orwellian Canada is advancing because the Conservative Party has failed the Canadian people

Of these deadly projects in Orwellian Canada, one of the most odious is called Medical Assistance In Dying (MAID), the deliberate murder of mostly old people through “assisted suicide.” They are “life unworthy of life,” to use the Nazi phrase.

As we documented in our column, “Canada’s Descent into Globalism and Communism.” Canada went communist on a national level years ago under the control of Marxists like Pierre and Justin Trudeau. But Grant Abraham of the United Party of Canada has a plan to change that.

Abraham is pressing for independence for Alberta, the conservative province, because Canada is broken and he says people must reject the “tyranny” of the federal government.

However, Poilievre wants to take back leadership of the Conservative Party at a convention in January and run again on a national level, while opposing independence for Alberta.

Win or lose in the August 18 by-election, Abraham wants to press for independence for the province, which is rich in natural resources.

Looking back in history, recall that American Founding Father Thomas Jefferson had wanted to invade Canada. In a letter dated August 4, 1812, he referred to the “acquisition of Canada” being “a mere matter of marching” that will result in “the final expulsion of England from the American continent.”

Now, America’s survival depends on a friendly Canada.

Like the RINOs in the U.S., Canada’s “conservatives” have failed. Grant Abraham’s United Party of Canada is the best hope. Canada’s battle must be just as important as Ukraine’s resistance against Russian aggression.
