

The Left Uses Violence to Get Their Way

America, we have serious problems. None that God can't fix. Our nation could be restored – from lies, deception, violence, bankruptcy and destruction to wisdom, security and Godly peace. But that restoration would require unilateral national repentance. Conservatives and professing Christians have been encouraged by Donald Trump's statements regarding the need for faith in God, and the importance of religion. In February of '24, he gave a speech to the National Religious Broadcasters, stating, "with your help and God's grace, the great revival of America begins November 5th." But he wasn't talking about Christian revival. He was talking about the election and MAGA.

This year, he stated that public school students should be allowed to express their faith, read their Bibles and pray – publicly or privately – in schools. But the sad fact is, there are almost NO public school students who even know who God is, much less be inclined to talk about Him or read a Bible. After his assassination attempt in Butler, Pennsylvania, Trump stated on multiple occasions that he was "saved by God." But he was referring to his life being spared by an assassin's bullet, not his eternal salvation.

He has referenced Jesus Christ, but has only said, "Our country needs a Savior – and our country has a Savior – and that's not me. That's somebody much higher up than me...the life and death and resurrection of Jesus Christ." But he's always stopped short of calling for national repentance and a return to faith in Christ. We need to remember that "religion" doesn't always mean the one and only way to God, and that "faith" can be any faith. "Prayer" can be praying to anything; many people "pray" to the "Universe." Some "pray" to Allah. Some "pray" to Satan.

The MAGA movement, however well intentioned, will never restore or heal our land. Only repentance will. Turning back to God, our Creator, in all humility and righteous sorrow for our lack of fear, reverence, thankfulness and awe for the many blessings He's bestowed upon us, and His longsuffering with our hard hearts and our savage appetite for all forms of lust, self indulgence and wickedness.

Isaiah 59 speaks to the state of our nation: "...your iniquities have separated between you and your God, and your sins have hid His face from you, that He will not hear. For your hands are defiled with blood, and your fingers with iniquity; your lips have spoken lies, your tongue hath muttered perverseness. None calleth for justice, nor any pleadeth for truth: they trust in vanity, and speak lies; they conceive mischief, and bring forth iniquity."

Isaiah goes on: "...their works are works of iniquity, and the act of violence is in their hands. Their feet run to evil, and they make haste to shed innocent blood: their thoughts are thoughts of iniquity; wasting and destruction are in their paths. The way of peace they know not; ...we wait for light, but behold obscurity; for brightness, but we walk in darkness. We grope for the wall like the blind, and we grope as if we had no eyes: we stumble at noon day as in the night; we are in desolate places as dead men."

"We roar all like bears, and mourn sore like doves: we look for judgment, but there is none; for salvation, but it is far off from us. For our transgressions are multiplied before Thee, and our sins testify against us: for our transgressions are with us; and as for our iniquities, we know them; In transgressing and lying against the Lord, and departing away from our God, speaking oppression and revolt, conceiving and uttering from the heart words of falsehood. And judgment is turned away backward, and justice standeth afar off: for truth is fallen in the street, and equity cannot enter. Yea, truth faileth; and he that departeth from evil maketh himself a prey..."

"He that departeth from evil maketh himself a prey." Yes. The righteous in America have become prey to the wicked ones. Evil is called good and good is called evil. Madness reigns in our land – yes, even with Donald Trump in office. Violence abounds, and while Trump is attempting to quell that evil by sending the National Guard to our most violent cities, this will ultimately be no more than a "band-aid" solution to the gushing open wound our nation suffers from, until we learn, once again to fear God and obey His commandments.

In 2012, the Democrat Party removed God from their official party platform. Look what they've become since then. Look at what our nation has tolerated, "normalized," or accepted as "justified" since then...when Obama pledged to "fundamentally transform America."

Today, we have demon-worshiping Muslims occupying high places in government. And while Christianity is still vilified in our schools, students are taught to recite the Islamic Shahada, take field trips to mosques and eat "halal" food in the cafeterias. Today, though Roe v Wade was struck down by the Supreme Court, we have more abortions than ever before. Masculinity is labeled "toxic." Among children ages 13-17, one in thirty now has "gender dysphoria." Counselors and parents are affirming "transgender" children. Hospitals and doctors are maiming perfectly healthy young bodies with hormone replacement drugs and surgeries. Young boys are being castrated. Young girls made sterile. Millions of enemies have infiltrated our borders and are receiving welfare. The abomination of homosexuality is celebrated all year long. Homelessness is rampant. Bankruptcy is increasing. Not to mention drug use, along with unspeakable violence.

“Justice” is now a commodity to be purchased by those who can afford a favorable outcome. Those that can’t receive none. Marriage between a man and a woman is rare in America today, though sodomite “marriage” has increased. Those who do marry prefer to own pets rather than raise children.

And the violence. While cities like DC, Chicago, Baltimore, New York and St. Louis remain the highest in homicide rates, in every major city, murder, home invasion, car jacking, mugging – along with physical and sexual assault – is now happening daily. Leftist politicians used to call themselves “Democratic Socialists.” Now, they’re proud to openly declare themselves “Communists.”

Mainstream and social media drive cultural trends, regardless of truth. America’s being destroyed from within, and few have the courage to speak out against it. Charlie Kirk was one of the few. Charlie launched Turning Point USA out of his parents’ garage as an 18-year-old with no money, no name recognition and only a dream. He believed in the power of argument and good-faith debate to find the truth and guide people towards, if not agreement, then at least mutual understanding.

On September 10th, he launched his “American Comeback Tour,” meant to engage college students in open debate, using reason and common sense to open the eyes of brainwashed college students, steeped in Leftist ideologies. The truths he presented were so irrefutable, liberals literally hated him. Yet, he spoke the truth in love, because he didn’t just love truth, he loved God and openly shared his faith to millions.

His first stop was Utah Valley University, near the city of Provo. He had just finished answering a question about transgender violence and was in the midst of addressing a question about gun control, when he was shot in the neck and killed. As I compile this message, the alleged shooter has been apprehended and identified as 22-year-old Tyler Robinson, who was in a “romantic” relationship with another man, “transitioning” to a woman. The shell casings recovered from the scene had words engraved on them, implying Charlie Kirk was a fascist. The mainstream media jumped on this story, calling Charlie Kirk “divisive” and “hateful.” MSNBC – as well as many public figures – went so far as to imply Kirk deserved to die.

Our American citizens – young and old alike, but particularly our school and college age students – have been brainwashed to believe that conservatives are fascists. Yet, almost none of them can define what a fascist actually is. So I’ll give you the definition. According to the dictionary, “fascism” is “a political system that aims to stamp out dissent, and seize control of every major aspect of a country’s political and social life, using censorship and forcible suppression of opposition.”

Now, let me ask you: which wing of the political “bird” aligns more with the tenets of fascism? The Left or the Right? The answer is ridiculously obvious, because Leftists have been using fascist tactics for years. All they know is force, censorship, and control – and as I’ve said before, when something must be forced on people for them to accept it, that’s how you know it’s evil.

The Leftist indoctrination on college campuses is thick. How many conservative speakers have been disinvited from speaking, violently protested or even physically attacked by liberal students refusing to listen to ideas that challenge their brainwashing? The list is endless. But it doesn’t go both ways. Liberal, Left-wing, LGBTPQP+, “trans,” and Communist speakers constantly hold rallies with no pushback from those on the right.

But a conservative – or worse yet, a Christian – speaker on a college campus, is literally putting their life on the line if they dare speak against the demonic and violent Leftist regime. You know it's true. God said, "All they that hate Me love death." (Proverbs 8:35).

We should never forget the lawlessness we saw from BLM, ANTIFA and a myriad of other violent fascist groups – cities burned; police officers shot dead in their squad cars; city blocks overtaken by radical Left-wingers. Many of our cities have still not recovered and many never will.

Last year, the Family Research Council identified 436 acts of violence, vandalism or destruction of Christian organizations in the year 2023. That was more than double the number of Christian groups attacked the previous year, when Roe v Wade was overturned, and eight times the number from 2018.

Just a few weeks ago, 23-year-old Robert Westman, who had changed his name to "Robin" when he "transitioned" to a "female," shot and killed two young children in a church in Minneapolis. Westman worked briefly at a marijuana dispensary this year, but was unemployed at the time of the shooting. This is another of many "transgenders" that have committed violent crimes and mass shootings in recent years.

The fact that people who consider themselves "transgender" are often violent and filled with inner turmoil and rage is indisputable. Two years ago, the planned "Trans Day of Vengeance" outside the US Supreme Court was cancelled, because a "transgender" had just shot and killed six people at a Christian school in Nashville. But then, Joe Biden proclaimed a "Transgender Day Of Visibility" for them instead.

Meanwhile, we should also look at the long list of Leftist politicians encouraging violence in our streets. Maxine Waters comes to mind from a few years ago, urging people to “disrupt” and attack Republicans when they see them in public.

From riots in the streets, to school shootings, to murders and attempted assassinations, to one-on-one confrontations, the aggressors are always insane Leftists. They can’t defend their political viewpoints rationally, so they become as wild animals, trapped by their own indoctrination – then, like animals, they lash out, attack, bringing violence, mayhem and devastating destruction.

Still, Pastors won’t give wise, Godly counsel to troubled, confused people. They won’t speak on any of these matters, and I know many who will vilify me for bringing these truths to light. Imagine if they had even an ounce of courage, to preach the whole counsel of God, regardless of the opinions of men. How different our society would be today. But instead, they prefer to be well liked and popular. Hirelings. Friends, if it’s to be, it’s up to “we,” the people. Don’t wait for your pastor. He’s not coming. Be a Charlie Kirk. Don’t allow the lies of Satan to stand. Be strong and courageous. Don’t worry about the violent, rage-filled liberals or the shifting winds of pop culture. Speak truth. Jesus said, “For whosoever will save his life shall lose it: and whosoever will lose his life for My sake shall find it.”

God bless you, Charlie Kirk. May we all learn from your sacrifice, and have the courage to change the things we can.
