

The Left's Attempted Sabotage And Destruction Of AG Sessions

Protect me from the plots of the wicked, from mobs of evil men. They sharpen their tongues like swords and aim cruel words like arrows. They are quick to spread their shameless lies; they destroy good men with cowardly slander. Psalm 64:2-4

Fake News, Fake News, Fake News!

AG Sessions is the latest to be under attack for speaking to the Ambassador from Russia. The former Alabama Senator should never have recused himself from the investigation of the phony Russian connection to the election. Neither should Sessions have recused himself during the confirmation hearings of a future investigation into Bill and Hillary Clinton's affairs. With all the squawking by the democratic socialists, the liberal media, and the Soros/Obama organizers, they've latched onto this phony Russian involvement in the election story and are pumping it for all it's worth.

The media's lies are that Putin loves Trump, Trump loves Putin, and they got together to make sure Trump won the election via Russian interference...all lies. Again, media is allowed to lie with impunity because of the 1964 Supreme Court decision, NYTs v. Sullivan.

The entire Trump administration simply must not cave to any of this, and they need to completely ignore these rabble rousers. The first to fall was, of course, the brilliant and knowledgeable General Michael Flynn, a loss to this administration that will never be replaced with anyone as capable or experienced as Flynn. I really believe this was President Trump's first and worst mistake. Letting the talented Flynn resign instead of fighting the media lies was a big mistake. He should have told both Pence and Flynn to ride it out and get back to work. Flynn's replacement, General McMaster, is nothing but a CFR globalist clone.

AG Jeff Sessions is probably the finest Christian man we've had in politics for decades. Not only was he re-elected four times by Alabamians, but he was beloved by the citizenry, and that includes all races. He has spent five decades as a champion of civil rights.

There is no way the media or any investigation can prove that Trump or any of his administration have worked with the Russians to win the election. Now that AG Sessions has recused himself, an Obama lackey is in charge of the investigation into these false allegations, and that leads us to the real Trojan Horse.

The Internal Trojan Horse

There are many Obama appointee holdovers on the National Security Council affecting our military operations. There are a handful of Obama appointee holdovers at the CIA who were groomed to oppose President Trump by John Brennan and Mike Morell, both of whom repeatedly lied about Benghazi.

There are Obama holdovers in NSA, DHS, EPA, and the FBI, including some members of the Muslim Brotherhood, CAIR, ISNA, MAS, etc., who are opposing President Trump. The nine personnel who criminally released the content of General Mike Flynn's telephone conversations with the Russian Ambassador to the press were Obama holdovers...another reason Trump should have told them to go pound sand and kept General Flynn. Think I'm angry about it, you dang well bet I am...and my arrows all point to VP Pence. Flynn should definitely still be in the administration! The loss was catastrophic for the nation.

Socialist Democrats Lie Again

Democrats were aghast after learning Attorney General Jeff Sessions met twice, as a senator, before his confirmation as an AG, with Russia's ambassador to the U.S. without telling Congress at his confirmation hearing – but it turns out Sergey Kislyak is no stranger to lawmakers on both sides of the aisle.

The Russian Ambassador was seated with the democrats at the Joint Sessions of Congress meeting the other night. He is a good friend of...here it comes, Chuckie Schumer! And guess who else he's met and enjoyed...a picture is worth a thousand words.

Funny thing too, Senator Nancy Pelosi claimed she'd never met with this Russian Ambassador, but in fact, she had, and she met with other high level Russian dignitaries. Link

Then you have Senator Clair McCaskill claiming she never met with the Russian Ambassador, but she apparently forgot about her tweets in January of 2013 where she stated she, along with several other democrats, was off to meet with him. Link

During Obama's reign, the longtime Russian ambassador met with seven Democratic senators in a single sit-down in 2013.

Ambassador Sergey Kislyak appeared at the Obama White House at least 22 times...running a silent coup on Trump.

As House Speaker Paul Ryan put it last week, "We meet with ambassadors all the time."

Sessions Rejects Democrat Claims

The central issue dogging Sessions is not so much that he met with the ambassador, but that he claimed during his confirmation hearing he had no "communications" with Russian officials during his time as a Trump campaign surrogate. In a press conference, though, Sessions rejected claims he misled Congress and suggested he was answering in the context of campaign-related discussions, which he maintains he never had.

But some Sessions critics nevertheless portrayed meetings with Kislyak, whose country was accused of meddling in the 2016 campaign, as a rare summit, particularly for a member of the Senate Armed Services Committee like Sessions.

And no, Jeff Sessions didn't perjure himself. It's not even a close call. All of this is bunk, or as Limbaugh calls it, Barbara Streisand (B.S.).

Democrat Involvement with Russia

The Russian link to Obama is the real investigation. When Obama said to Russian Prime Minister, Medvedev, "You tell Vladimir, I'll have much more flexibility after the election," about reducing America's nuclear stockpile, anyone with a brain knew what was going on. The question arises again, what party is in bed with the Russians? Sessions is certainly not alone. The democrats love Russian dignitaries is an open book.

Let's look at history, because it's worth remembering the reprehensible behavior of Senator Ted Kennedy in 1984. While Senator Al Franken and other Democrats have the vapors over a truthful, complete, and correct answer AG Jeff Sessions gave in his confirmation hearing, it's worth remembering the reprehensible behavior of Senator Ted Kennedy in 1984.

This behavior didn't involve launching a vehicle into a tidal channel while drunk. (The Bridge at Chappaquiddick by Jack Olsen) This reprehensible behavior was collusion with America's most deadly enemy in an effort to defeat Ronald Reagan's reelection.

The memorandum was addressed to Yuri Andropov, the top man in the entire USSR. The subject: Sen. Edward Kennedy (P.J. Media):

Kennedy's message was simple. He proposed an unabashed quid pro quo. Kennedy would lend Andropov a hand in dealing with President Reagan. In return, the Soviet leader would lend the Democratic Party a hand in challenging Reagan in the 1984 presidential election. "The only real potential threats to Reagan are problems of war and peace and Soviet-American relations," the memorandum stated. "These issues, according to the senator, (Kennedy) will without a doubt become the most important of the election campaign."

Among the promises, Kennedy made the Soviets was that he would ensure that the television networks gave the Soviet leader primetime slots to speak directly to the American people, thus undermining Reagan's framing of the sinister nature of the USSR. Even then, the Democrats had the power to collude with the legacy media. Kennedy also promised to help Andropov penetrate the American message with his Soviet agitprop.

Exactly right! Even 30 years ago, Democrat senators were colluding with America's enemies to bring down Republicans.

Limbaugh has said the real scandal is that a "silent coup" is underway against President Trump. "There is the execution of an attempt at a peaceful coup," said the radio talk show host last week. "A peaceful coup to oust Donald Trump is what we are witnessing. It's been orchestrated by Obama and the Democrat Party. It's that simple."

Obama Collusion with Russia

The real collusion between our government and the Russians happened with Barack Hussein Obama. How far back do you have to go to find where Trump and Putin were allegedly buddies...I'll tell you. It went all the way back to when Trump made a joke about Russia finding Hillary Clinton's lost emails...the left grabbed onto it as though Trump was aligned with Russia. Link Anyone with a brain knew he was making a joke!

Remember when Clinton and Loretta Lynch met for a half hour on the plane before the AG was going to look into charging Hillary Clinton? And Schumer is calling for Sessions' resignation, for colluding with Russians, but according to Schumer it was okay for Clinton and Loretta Lynch to meet, with the story they were talking about their grandchildren. Right...we all really believe that! These are two-faced hypocrites, and everyone knows it.

The Russian Ambassador is at the core of this entire false narrative promoted by the Democratic socialists and their leftist owned media. Sergey Kislyak has lamented that Washington, D.C. "has become lonely." He has told associates that, "he is surprised how people who once sought his company were now trying to stay away."

Remember that Kislyak was a frequent visitor to the Obama White House, according to the Daily Caller. Kislyak has always been a staunch defender of Russia and has at times attempted to undermine America's foreign policy. Link

Kisylak's alliance with the left is far greater than it was ever established with the right, but the left wants to destroy Trump with their claim that Trump and Russia colluded to win the election and steal it from Hillary Clinton. And there's no evidence for this. They haven't found any evidence, because there isn't any and that's because it couldn't have happened!

Conclusion

Before he left office, Obama elevated insiders to political positions where they could not be fired. This was done in order to work from the inside to destroy Trump. The President needs to find a way to get rid of them. They've already done a great deal of damage, and now we're hearing about massive wiretapping and spying on the new president and his administration.

At this point, Trump is probably eating his words. On November 11, 2016, he called Obama a "very good man," and said he would seek his counsel in the future.
