

The Only Family I Knew... Bradlee Meets The Cast From “Little House on the Prairie”

“A father to the fatherless...” -Psalm 68:5

Many probably do not know, unless they have read either my testimonial book or my comic book, that I grew up in a family without a father in the home.

One of the things that I am so very grateful for was Little House on the Prairie.

The Lord used Micheal Landon, aka “Pa,” to convey to me what the family unit is all about (Psalm 68:6). Not only that but also what a father is to be to his children. I bet these actors and actresses all have heard this a million times over. The fact is, the Lord used him to be a “Pa” unto me, no doubt.

I cannot remember a day that I did not wake up empty and aimless when going to school only to come home to the only family I could relate to on so many levels. Well, last week, I had the opportunity to not only meet them but also to share the Gospel with them, based on Galatians 3:24.

Here is a collage of pictures from the event. Enjoy.

Bradlee on the set of Little House on the Prairie back in 2021. Simi Valley, California.

Bradlee with "Almanzo", Dean Butler

Bradlee with "Nellie" Alison Arngrim

Also, met with "Miss Beadle" Charlotte Stewart, Little "Grace" Wendi Lou Lee, "Carrie" Sidney Greenbush, and Micheal Landon Jr.

“Carrie” Sidney Greenbush

Michael Landon Jr.

Everyone one of them was exactly what was perceived and extracted from the series: Sincere, courteous, and genuine. Thank you, Lord (Psalm 103:1).
