

The people's president, Donald J. Trump

Today's ceremony, however, has a very special meaning because today we are not merely transferring power from one administration to another or from one party to another, but we are transferring power from Washington, D.C., and giving it back to you, the people. –President Donald J. Trump's Inauguration Speech

What an amazing day for America! The media and politicians said he couldn't do it, and he did! He did it in spades...he won massively. Why? Because the grassroots Americans came out and voted for the brilliant businessman who spoke their same language.

Our 45th President was sworn in with his hand on the Bible given to him as a child by his mother upon his graduation from Sunday Church Primary School in 1955, and beneath it was the Bible of Abraham Lincoln.

Our first non-globalist President in decades said, "A new vision will govern our land, it's going to be America first!" And it's because he has a connection with the working families of America, more than any other candidate who has run for decades...he's a blue-collar billionaire. He knows the pain we've suffered with free-trade, foreign labor, taxes, Islamic refugees, and illegal immigration.

Donald J. Trump said we're a nation protected by God. He talked about people in Detroit or Nebraska going to bed at night and feeling safe and blessed. He assured us that we are protected by our great military and law enforcement, and most importantly we are protected by God. He said that no matter our color, black, brown, or white, we all bleed red.

The Inauguration Speech

Short as the speech was, it nevertheless was power packed. Trump reiterated his campaign promises. And when he spoke, you knew the globalists were cringing. Our socialist media called it radical, but our new President was speaking directly to the people who elected him.

My dear UK friend, Shirley Edwards, who also writes for NewsWithViews, wrote a great note to me and our publisher. Here's a portion of what she said...

I just wanted to let you both know that some of us Brits are standing with America today and praying for God to bless your new president.

I have just watched the speech, thought it was wonderful, and even stood up in my living room for the anthem.

What a relief when the helicopter took off with Obama.

I felt his speech contained a lot of hope, and he brought back strength, dignity and grace to America. I also loved the prayers and that God was brought right back to the forefront.

He never wavered and stood strong, whilst all those twitching globalists sat around him. I enjoyed watching them look uncomfortable.

The comment about our twitching globalists had me laughing because she hit the nail on the head! Especially when it came to "We now have no hope," Michelle Obama.

Tears of Joy

Unlike other inaugurations, this one was something special. You could feel the emotion of the people, not only those who gathered in DC, but all of us around the country who supported our new President. It's because so many of us felt so passionate about this man. We cried, we prayed, and we laughed.

I watched the entire day, all through the parade, and to the Liberty and Freedom Ball where our new President and his beautiful wife took to the dance floor to Frank Sinatra's, "I Did It My Way." How perfect!

Anarchists

During the entire inauguration, there were only pockets of demonstrators. Media reported 10 or 15 people here and there.

Jeanine Pirro interviewed Chris Cox, head of Bikers for Trump, and he stated that he engaged several protestors because of their aggressive behavior. He asked them, "Is anyone here being paid by George Soros, raise your hand?" "All 15 of the guys with their ski masks on raised their hands." Cox stated that they actually engaged about five different protestors and they came out on the short end of the stick. He said, "One guy had his earring knocked right out of his nose after spitting and throwing his middle finger at the biker's face, and the police talked to him, and later he said, 'Okay sir.'"

However, following the inauguration, protesters started a fire on the street, burning what appeared to be garbage and a plastic newspaper stand. These were not protestors, but black masked anarchists, who were destroying private property, breaking windows of Starbucks, McDonalds and the Bank of America. These were the same people paid by the likes of the Socialist left and George Soros who destroyed Ferguson, Missouri and Baltimore, Maryland.

Even Democratic Senator, Claire McCaskill of Missouri, responded to the protests on Twitter, calling them "un-American.” “Nothing is more un-American than protesters who are not peaceful. Disgusting,” she wrote.

Socialist Media

At Obama’s last press conference, he told the media not to be sycophants, to be skeptics! So, despite being his sycophants, he now wants them to be skeptics with Trump, as though they haven’t railed against Trump since he announced his candidacy.

Communist News Network (CNN) host, Wolf Blitzer asked his audience, “What if an incoming president and his immediate successors were wiped out on day one?” In CNN’s analysis, most of the people who would take over in the worst-case scenario would keep the Obama administration in power, at least indirectly. This hostile and antagonistic leftist was whistling for the loons to do what Blitzer was questioning.

CNN contributor Marc Lamont Hill says that only “mediocre Negroes” support Donald Trump, this just one day after the President-Elect met with Martin Luther King the 3rd, son of Martin Luther King Jr., the famous Civil Rights leader. Media analyst Mark Dice has the story. There were many black Americans who attended the inauguration, two of whom drove all the way from Alaska to be there. I highly doubt they’d consider themselves “mediocre Negroes.” The same goes for wonderful Republican conservative and pro-life activist, Alveda King, who is the niece of Martin Luther King.

Talladega College’s marching band received more than three times what it needed to get to Washington, D.C., for President-elect Donald Trump’s inauguration celebrations. The historic black college in Alabama needed to raise $75,000 for travel, lodging and other expenses. Through a GoFundMe page, more than 7,600 people donated $420,000 in just 13 days. These are not “mediocre Negroes,” they are proud young Americans who were overjoyed to march in Donald J. Trump’s inauguration parade.

Shameful Behavior

Unable to admit defeat nationwide, and unable to accept the rejection of their entire globalist plans, the Democratic Socialists stooped to childish and unpatriotic behavior, ignoring their Constitutional oath to our representative Republic and their own constituents. Their world has been turned upside down because an outsider destroyed them, and is on his way to destroying their globalist plans and Socialist media. Their actions are those of childish spoiled losers.

Sixty-Seven Democrat Representatives refused to go to the inauguration of our 45th President, failing miserably to accept the peaceful transition of power. The majority of them are from the Socialist blue state of California. [Link]

In a shameful act of political theatre on a day designed to be non-partisan and uniting for America, Representative John Lewis refused to attend the inauguration claiming he's never missed one during his three decades of public service. He even stated Trump was an illegitimate president because of Russian hackers, of which there is absolutely no proof, and is fake news. Problem is, Lewis was lying. He said and did exactly the same thing with George W. Bush's inauguration. Adding to the fact that he lied, he has also allegedly failed to pay taxes on his pricey DC townhouse. Voter ID would stop it...it's all insanity.

Only two nominees have been confirmed so far, Generals Mattis and Kelly. The Democrat Senators and many of the left leaning Republicans are childishly immature and whiny over every confirmation. They are purposely slowing the process when they know they don't have the votes to derail Trump's choices. Obama had six nominees and George W. seven nominees confirmed the day of their inauguration.

Senator Cruz Excoriates Democrats

During Senator Jeff Sessions' Attorney-General confirmation hearing, Senator Ted Cruz pointed out numerous Democratic hypocrisies that have been manifested in the past few years and during the hearing. Democrats on the committee, especially Dianne Feinstein, had been grilling Sessions on whether he would uphold abortion laws if he becomes Attorney General. Senator Patrick Leahy interrogated Sessions on LGBT rights, questioning whether Sessions would uphold civil rights laws as Attorney General.

But did the Democrats care when Obama routinely flouted the law? We know the answer, and Ted Cruz wasn't having any of it, and shot back. This is a must see video to truly understand how bad and hypocritical the Democrats are.

I'm not a fan of Senator Cruz, but he did a great job with this, even if he was rebuilding his own reputation after the RNC Convention. Credit where credit is due.

Tolerance Only Applies to Leftists

We've got the so-called tolerant leftists of Hollywood applying pressure to anyone who meets with President Trump. Of course, their tolerance is only for those who spew the same doctrines they believe in. The real fear of the globalist Socialist left is that our new President will succeed, and sadly, even half the Republicans feel the same way. The Socialist left is already feeling their irrelevance, and with Trump in our White House, they're more than afraid for their futures. [Link]

The Democrats have made fools of themselves by not showing up at the inauguration, and Hollywood has made fools of themselves by thinking we care one whit what they think about their liberal politics. Hopefully, Trump supporters will stop going to their movies.

We Won, Get Over It

Look you sniveling Socialists, we suffered through eight years of one of the worst Marxist and pro-Islamic presidents this country has ever seen. We never rioted, we never destroyed towns, we never marched and burned. We dealt with it. You need to now do the same.

I think you all conveniently forget that race relations were far better prior to Barack Hussein Obama. He has put us back farther than the 1950s. Remember Ferguson and Baltimore, both were created by Obama's own actions and inactions.

Don't forget Fast and Furious where to this day, more than 1,000 guns remain missing as a result of this scandal.

How about Benghazi, where other countries withdrew their diplomatic presence from the region, but Secretary of State Hillary Clinton forced Americans to stay in a compound that did not have adequate security measures. She also ignored multiple requests for additional security from Stevens in the final moments of his life while he and his companions were in the midst of a deadly terror attack.

And how about when Obama pretended the massive Louisiana oil spill wasn't happening and headed off to vacation. Remember when eleven Deepwater workers died, and Governor Jindal declared an emergency?

What about the Hurricane tragedy in Louisiana? Trump was there, Hillary and Obama were nowhere in sight.

Obama took two weeks to visit San Bernardino after terrorists killed 14 people, and how about calling Ft. Hood “Islamic terrorism,” instead of “workplace violence.” In February of 1992, Donald J. Atwood, deputy secretary of defense under President George H.W. Bush, signed Department of Defense \(DoD\) Directive 5210.56, making military bases gun free zones. God help us...why???

And don't forget Orlando, Florida, where a Muslim convert murdered 50 folks in a gay bar, and Obama said it was because of gun violence and homegrown terrorism. Right Obama!

What about the rollout of Obamacare...nationalized healthcare that destroyed our chances of keeping our doctors, our health insurance, and now soaring costs and huge deductibles? It is so much more now that many cannot pay the premiums, and we have death panels, and a website that never worked properly because Michelle Obama's Princeton friend was given the contract.

I suppose too that the leftists think it's just swell that Obama's tax collectors targeted conservative groups and got away with it.

What about unlimited immigration, Obama's lack of seriousness about terrorism, his release of Islamic terrorists from Gitmo, his Iran deal and giveaway of billions of dollars to the number one terrorist promoting country in the world, our national debt doubled under Obama, his permanent changes to society, his packing the courts with leftists, his lack of care for our veterans, and on and on.

Our New President

Donald J. Trump is the 45th President of the United States of America because we were sick of decades of leftists on both sides of the aisle, and Barack Hussein Obama was the catalyst that put us over the edge. In rode Donald Trump on a white horse to save the day, and the American grassroots rallied to support him. It's up to us to help him reach the goals he's promised, and that means we must be in the war with him. The battle has just begun! So, Dear Lord, give our President protection, strength and Your Wisdom!
