

The President and the False Apostate Prophetess

A couple of weeks ago, on Jan. 21, 2025, the “Right Reverend Bishop” Mariann Budde spoke at the National Prayer Service at the Washington National Cathedral and used her pulpit as an opportunity to guilt trip and shame President Donald J. Trump from doing the job that We The People overwhelmingly elected him to do.

As part of her lecture to President Trump, who was seated with his wife, First Lady Melania Trump, his sons and daughters, Vice President Vance, and his wife Usha, Bishop Budde said the following:

“In the Name of our God, I ask you to have mercy upon the people in our country who are scared now. There are gay, lesbian, and transgender children in Democratic, Republican, and independent families. Some who fear for their lives.”

“The people who pick our crops and clean our office buildings, who labor in poultry farms and meat-packing plants, who wash the dishes after we eat in restaurants and work the night shifts in hospitals. They may not be citizens or have the proper documentation, but the vast majority of immigrants are not criminals.”

Budde asked Trump to “have mercy” on those “in our communities whose children fear that their parents will be taken away and that you help those who are fleeing warzones and persecution in their own lands to find compassion and welcome here.”

Budde has a long history of being a leftist activist. In her statement, “the vast majority of immigrants are not criminals,” she purposely left out the term “illegal” when describing the vast majority of immigrants. The truth of the matter is that every illegal immigrant is a criminal. They do not have citizenship status to live or work in the United States and have not entered the United States legally. Another twist is that she is claiming that many of the immigrants that have come here are fleeing war zones. Just because a person from another country is living in a war zone, let’s say Ukraine, that does not give them the right to enter and remain in the United States illegally. Such persons must go through a U.S. port of entry and request religious and/or political asylum, showing just cause that if they returned to their country of origin, they would be unjustly persecuted or killed. Otherwise, any time there was a war in some part of the world, the United States would be obligated to take in all of the citizens of all nations who wished to flee and escape from their war zones.

Ah, liberals... They love to be charitable with other people’s (taxpayers) money, lives, and well-being. Remember the time the Biden administration opened the borders for illegal immigration into the country at large, and Florida Governor Ron DeSantis flew 50 of them into Martha’s Vineyard in Massachusetts? How quickly the liberal elites in Martha’s Vineyard acted like conservatives and swiftly relocated the majority of those illegal immigrants off of the island.

President Trump, never one to back down from confrontation, quickly rebuked Bishop Budde in a tweet, stating, “The so-called Bishop who spoke at the National Prayer Service on Tuesday morning was a Radical Left Trump hater. She brought her church into the World of politics in a very ungracious way. She was nasty in tone, and not compelling or smart. She failed to mention the large number of illegal immigrants that came into our Country and killed people. Many were deposited from jails and mental institutions. It is a giant crime wave that is taking place in the USA. Apart from her inappropriate statements, the service was very boring and uninspiring one. She is not very good at her job! She and her church owe the public an apology!"

I'm certain President Trump would have liked to have said, "You're fired!" to Bishop Budde as well, but he did not have the authority to fire her. That being said, Marianne Budde has no business being a Bishop of the Episcopal Church in the District of Columbia and Maryland or of any Christian church.

1 TIMOTHY 2:11-14:

Let a woman learn in silence with all submission. And I do not permit a woman to teach or to have authority over a man, but to be in silence. For Adam was formed first, then Eve. And Adam was not deceived, but the woman being deceived, fell into transgression.

Mariann Budde is deceived, as are many in the various Christian faiths. She does not follow the instruction manual of her proclaimed faith, the Bible, that she claims to rightly represent. Budde's heart is misplaced. Budde's heart bleeds for the wicked at the expense of the righteous. Budde cares more about the LGBTQ+ community and their rights to influence children than the rights of people who oppose their non-Christian sexual lifestyles and wish to live free from them peddling it. Budde's heart bleeds for the immigrants illegally entering the United States over and above the rights of U.S. citizens to live free from the crime, drugs, rapes, and murders that come along with them and the added strain on state and local governments in caring for them.

But doesn't Jesus love everyone and want us to love everyone unconditionally? No, He doesn't. Jesus may "Get Us," but He didn't call on sinful people to live and remain as they are.

"I tell you, no; but unless you repent you will all likewise perish."

– Yeshua (Jesus) – Luke 13:3,5.

Yeshua (Jesus) did not give a pass to the sexually immoral LGBTQ+ community, saying that He gets you. Budde is doing a disservice to the LGBTQ+ community by embracing them and unconditionally loving them, instead of warning them that they should be afraid, not so much of President Trump, but of the King of kings who will judge them, lest they repent.

What about the Christian Churches? Shouldn't they open their doors to the LGBTQ+ community and love them unconditionally, as Marianne Budde does? No.

ACTS 15:19-20 [WITH INTERPRETATION]:

Therefore I judge that we should not trouble those from among the Gentiles who are turning to God [WITH ADULT MALE CIRCUMCISION WITHOUT ANESTHESIA], but that we write to them to abstain from things polluted by idols, from sexual immorality [INCLUDING LGBTQ+, FORNICATORS, AND ADULTERERS], from things strangled, and from blood.

One could preach to the sexually immoral outside of a congregational fellowship, but It was originally a prerequisite that before a person set foot into a Christian house of worship, that said person was to abstain from all forms of sexual immorality before entering. And if they didn't, and it was discovered that someone in a body of believers was living in sexual immorality?

1 CORINTHIANS 5:1-5:

It is actually reported that there is sexual immorality among you, and such sexual immorality as is not even named among the Gentiles—that a man has his father's wife! And you are puffed up, and have not rather mourned, that he who has done this deed might be taken away from among you. For I indeed, as absent in body but present in spirit, have already judged (as though I were present) him who has so done this deed. In the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, when you are gathered together, along with my spirit, with the power of our Lord Jesus Christ, deliver such a one to Satan for the destruction of the flesh, that his spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord Jesus.

There are many self-righteous “puffed up” modern Christian churches today, opening their doors to every perversion and making no judgments (verbal rebukes) about any sin. Just say the sinner’s prayer and you will be saved and can live however you please.

But didn’t Jesus eat with tax collectors, sinners, and prostitutes? Yes, He did, to convert them to have faith in Him and to convince them to sin no more (John 8:11). Yet, not everyone did repent, and such persons were not in fellowship among His inner circle of disciples.

What would Jesus say about the modern-day Christian churches?

MATTHEW 21:13 [WITH COMMENTARY]:

And He said to them, “It is written, ‘My house shall be called a house of prayer,’ but you have made it a ‘den of thieves’ [AND A HAVEN FOR ILLEGAL IMMIGRANTS AND THE SEXUALLY IMMORAL]”

“As of today, it will henceforth be the official policy of the United States government that there are only two genders: male and female.”

– President Donald J. Trump, Inaugural Address, Jan. 20, 2025.

False prophetess Mariann Budde’s heart bleeds for the wicked as she loves sinners unconditionally. She does not have the moral high ground over President Donald J. Trump or We The People who elected him to restore law and order, morality, and sanity to America, an America that was just subject to four years of an illegal migrant crime wave and unrestrained, insane indoctrination from the LGBTQ+ community.
