

The Return of Communist Terrorism and the New Targets

By Cliff Kincaid

The motivation of the well-educated fanatic who killed a health care CEO on the streets of New York City is clear. He is another Ivy League terrorist, cut from the same cloth that decades ago produced such Weather Underground terrorists as Mark Rudd of Columbia University. These people supported our enemies abroad and killed dozens of innocent Americans, including police.

The worst is yet to come, and the FBI is blind to the threat.

Luigi Mangione graduated from the University of Pennsylvania, a hotbed of anti-Semitism. But his motivation was to wage war on capitalism as a threat to life on earth.

In addition to the terrorist Unabomber manifesto, which he consumed, one of his scheduled books to read, as reported on his Goodreads social media platform, was Our Final Hour: A Scientist's Warning: How Terror, Error, and Environmental Disaster Threaten Humankind's Future In This Century—On Earth and Beyond. (His account was later taken down and marked "private.")

People like Luigi Mangione are the inevitable result of anti-corporate brainwashing through Marxist Madrassas, the name of our 2016 book on how "well-educated" people turn out as communists. They claim to be saving the planet from evil corporations and ushering in a world of collective compassion – communism.

Harvard-educated Unabomber Ted Kaczynski was a Luddite hiding out in the woods who staged an 18-year bombing campaign that killed three people and injured many more before his capture by the FBI in 1996. The FBI was tipped off to his location by his brother.

Equally astonishing, it took the FBI 20 years to capture Daniel Andreas San Diego, an eco-terrorist and animal rights activist just arrested in Wales. He was sought for bombings back in 2003 and added to the FBI's Most Wanted Terrorists List in 2009.

The behavior and background of captured terrorist Luigi Mangione indicate the FBI is woefully behind the curve in understanding and addressing left-wing terrorism. In the Mangione case, the FBI failed to “find their man.” He was turned in by alert people at a Pennsylvania McDonald's and discovered with a fake ID naming him as Mark Rosario.

As predicted by this columnist, his motivation was to kill Brian Thompson and provoke the overthrow of the private health care system in the United States, creating a Soviet-style panacea of “health care for all” through the federal government. This is the communist mind-set behind what appears to be a new wave of left-wing terrorism designed to target major American corporations and their CEOs.

However, in his review of the Unabomber manifesto of Harvard-educated Ted Kaczynski, we learned more about his motive for violence and terrorism. Mangione's own manifesto was hatred of health insurance companies. But Mangione praised the Unabomber as an “extreme political revolutionary.” According to his Goodreads review of the Unabomber manifesto, he hated fossil fuel companies as well, accusing them of turning the earth into a “flaming ball” through climate change.

This means those who run oil companies can be expected to be targeted, especially with President Trump promising to exploit more American energy resources.

A psychiatric report said Kaczynski's mental state had deteriorated to the point where he had "fantasies of being a female" and "became convinced that he should undergo sex change surgery."

It looks like Mangione was trying to find himself through mind-altering drugs, which he apparently thought could handle some back pain. Significantly, Mangione's reading list on Goodreads included How to Change Your Mind. What the New Science of Psychedelics Teaches Us About Consciousness.

The use of such drugs as LSD has a well-documented role in creating terrorist groups.

The book, The Harvard Psychedelic Club, discusses how LSD guru and Harvard professor Timothy Leary escaped from prison, after members of the Weather Underground "rendezvoused with the fugitive," kept him hidden, then gave him a disguise and a false identity.

The author writes. "After hiding out for a week in a farmhouse near Redding, California Leary made his way down to Utah to meet leaders of the Weather Underground, including Bill Ayers and his wife, Bernadette [sic] Dohrn."

The terrorists gave him a false identity, a forged birth certificate, and a phony Social Security card. After his escape, Leary had released a message through Bernardine Dohrn's sister urging communist revolutionaries to "turn on" and continue a campaign of violence and terrorism.

Bernardine Dohrn, who praised the drug-crazed Charles Manson gang killers, herself issued a statement on September 15, 1970, saying: "Dr. Leary was being held against his will and against the will of millions of kids in this country. He was a political prisoner, captured for the work he did in helping all of us begin the task of creating a new culture on the barren wasteland that has been imposed on this country by Democrats, Republicans, Capitalists and creeps.”

She added, “LSD and grass [marijuana], like the herbs and cactus and mushrooms of the American Indians and countless civilizations that have existed on this planet, will help us make a future world where it will be possible to live in peace. Now we are at war.”

The same statement declared solidarity with the Democratic Front for the Liberation of Palestine and Al Fatah, two Palestine terrorist groups.

Dohrn and Ayers escaped justice and went on to become professors and FBI Director Wray regards pro-Hamas groups on college campuses that glorify terrorist attacks as peaceful protesters.

Like Leary, Mangione had a false identity and phony I.D.s, probably supplied by a network of like-minded individuals. The FBI is clueless.

Because the FBI has been concentrating its investigations on Trump supporters, Christians, conservatives, and concerned parents, the Bureau has no idea what is in store for America as we move forward under a new president and the planned “resistance” against him.

More than a year ago I produced a report on how a wave of eco-terrorism was being planned and that it would include military installations and defense contractors.

In another clear and present danger, the BLM reaction to Daniel Penny’s acquittal signifies another line of attack reminiscent of the May 2020 George Floyd communist-inspired BLM riots in Lafayette Park. They turned violent, as rioters and looters smashed windows, set fires, attacked police, and almost burned down historic St. John's Church near the White House.

The arrest of Mangione demonstrate how the Unabomber's influence continues beyond his death.

The book, UNABOMBER: How the FBI Broke Its Own Rules to Capture the Terrorist, tells the story of how Kacynski spewed his venom from a secure federal prison cell, where he inspired Earth first radicals, eco-socialists, and anti-technology activists. He reportedly died by "suicide" in prison in 2023.

Luigi Mangione was inspired by this dead terrorist, whose manifesto, Industrial Society and Its Future, is for sale by Amazon and other outlets.

A new FBI director like Kash Patel, the nominee of President Trump, can refocus the attention of the Bureau on the real and present threats to America and leave law-abiding citizens alone. Patel served as the Deputy Director of National Intelligence, Chief of Staff for the Department of Defense, and National Security Advisor to House Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence.

His bestselling book, Government Gangsters, discusses how the FBI and other law enforcement and intelligence agencies are an impediment to understanding the terrorist threat.
