

The Systematic Killing of America, Part 4

Our government up to the early 1900s was not perfect by a long shot but it was about as Christian as a nation can get. After that the demons and the power of darkness curses moved into our nation. Our strong American culture, not perfect, was fine from our Founding Fathers days through the 50s until the beginning of Saul Alinsky in the early sixties. During the time of the Houses of Carnegie, Morgan, and Rockefeller, the common man did not know what was going on because of the secrecy of the CFR and Company. Some of our politicians spoke out but the power and influence of the deep state, establishment, shadow government, led by the Council on Foreign Relations, was so astronomical, that to make a serious effort to speak up would immediately cost you the next election or your life.

I'll make my point – ever heard of Executive Order #11110 by President John Kennedy? JFK was a socialist who belonged to the Fabian Society, who during his presidency made many enemies. Included among them were the “capos” of America's leading mafia families, who lost their holdings in Cuba, the CIA for his failure to ensure the success of the Bay of Pigs invasion and last but not least, the Rockefeller Family. In prompting the Alliance for Progress, Kennedy said he was sick of the US government acting as the representative of private businesses, including the interests of the Rockefellers – who headed the deep state of subterranean network of financial, intelligence, and military interest that guided national policy no matter who occupied the White House.

In a speech to the American Newspaper Publishers' Association, that may have sealed the fate of the President as he spoke in a veiled reference to the House of Rockefeller and the money cartel, "of a monolithic and ruthless conspiracy" that sought to rule the world.

Then the matter of Executive Order #11110 by which President Kennedy instructed the Treasury Department rather than the Federal Reserve "to issue silver certificates against any silver bullion, silver, or silver dollars in the Treasury." This meant that for every ounce of silver in the US Treasury's vault, the government could introduce new money, with actual value, into circulation. In compliance with this order, US notes in the amount of $4,292,893,815.00 were produced in two-and-five-dollar denominations. This was not fiat money. It was paper currency with actual value. And, since it was issued by the government rather than the Federal Reserve cartel, the money came interest free.

An event of alarming proportions had taken place. Kennedy with one stroke of the pen, threatened to put the Federal Reserve out of business. It no longer could manipulate the economy by producing and withholding money. No longer could it create depressions or prosperity, no longer could it manufacture money out of nothing and no longer could the money cartel, including the House of Rockefeller exact billions in interest for lending the money to pay off the national debt. When Kennedy "actually minted non-debt money that does not bear the mark of the Federal Reserve; when he dared to actually exercise the leadership authority granted to him by the US Constitution," according to Colonel James Gritz, he had "prepared his own death warrant. It was time for him to go."

One week after President Kennedy's brains were blown away in board daylight, President Johnson established a commission and declared that Kennedy had been killed by a lone gunman, Lee Harvey Oswald. But it failed to provide anything from Oswald's past that could serve as a motive for the crime. The lesson was learned. In the wake of the killing, no more silver certificates were issued and no other American president dared to defy the Fed and its secret shareholders.

The late D. James Kennedy of Coral Ridge Ministries, the late Jerry Farwell of Moral Majority, the late David Wilkerson, many other brave pastors, and many brave writers have warned America of the evil in our government and our nation. I was on their mailing list in the 80s and began to carry their message to whoever would listen. But most pastors and church members weren't listening, and did not want to listen. We were branded by the press and church leadership as "radical" while those who would not hear our message and refused it, were considered "main stream" Christians. I was fired from three Southern Baptist Churches as were other pastors, and boycotted.

We learned some hard lessons in those days. The church is asleep, is not listening, and ignores the evil before us. We learned the hard way that if pastors and churchgoers cannot see something, you cannot make them see it. Be faithful in giving the message but only God can ultimately open eyes. We learned most pastors and churchgoers do not know the God they worship or the Bible that helps one to get to know Him. Pastors and churchgoers will not only ignore the message but they will attempt to destroy the messenger. We learned that churchgoers say they will go where Jesus leads them until they find out where He is leading them.

We learned, much to our surprise, that many of the best and learned Christians, are no longer in these denomination and sectarian organizations but are meeting in homes or in ministry outside of the organized church and every one of them who heard our message, received it, and acted on it. We also learned that religious people, when living in comfort and ease, seldom if ever change. We learned to never be moved to indignation over what people do or say but be moved with compassion toward them. Those days were very painful and frustrating for many of us but I give thanks to God every day for every minute of this most valuable learning experience, and for the Glory that showed up.

Like Jeremiah of old, I cry a lot these days because I know from, God's history written in the Word of God, what happens to His People when they no longer listen and are disobedient. If the Body of Christ in America does not wakeup, repent, and receive afresh the Holy Spirit, and commit to the obedience of our King – the LORD Jesus Christ, we shall continue to be overcome with evil, along with their curses, and the ministry and the doctrine of demons, and the schemes of Satan, will produce untold pain and suffering to the citizens in America and will continue to destroy what is left of our once righteous nation!!!! We now lead the world in sickness and disease and suicide is common with 22 veterans committing suicide every day and our children, ages 14-25, commit suicide every 90 minutes.

We are a nation of violence, rape, murders, immorality, sexual perversion, abortions, idolatry, strife, disobedient to parents, disobedient to authority, lawlessness, divisions, dissensions, factions, and outburst of anger. Who do you think carries these evil deeds out but none other than Satan and his demons? Yet the church sleeps, remains silence in the face of evil which is evil in itself, provides no moral compass to the nation, and refuses to resist this evil. The scary part is God sees that His Body is content with what we have in this nation, so He will continue to allow us to have what we desire!!!! Until we come to our senses, humble ourselves under His mighty hand, repent, seek His face, and show up on the battlefield, God will remain silent Himself and the judgment will increase!!!

May God bless you to hear what the Spirit is screaming to us in these last days, I remain His servant and watchman, Glynn Adams (Blessings and grateful thanks to Pastor Rodney Howard-Browne and Paul L. Williams in the writing of their wonderful and truthful book, "The Killing of Uncle Sam." Hopefully God will use it to wake us up to the evil upon us.
