

They Want to Kill Elon Musk

Having failed to kill President Trump, they next target Elon Musk, probably the smartest man in the world and the key to America remaining a military and economic superpower in the world. He is a leading force in the new technologies, especially AI, cryptocurrencies, and space exploration, which promise what Trump calls a “Golden Age.”

The CNN Headline was “The world’s richest man right now [is] holding the country hostage,” with the explanation being that Elon Musk was “blowing up” a “bipartisan debt deal.”

If Musk is a hostage taker, that means he is a criminal or a terrorist, and must be dealt with accordingly. This is the dangerous narrative they are selling.

He may be the richest man in the world, in terms of wealth, and he owns a social media platform, but he has no political power except for commenting on political events. Yes, he does have the ear of President Trump and MAGA Republicans.

But the last time I checked, he was exercising his First Amendment right of freedom of speech.

For CNN, the liberal media, and the Democrats who want business as usual in the nation’s capital, his speech is offensive and he must be silenced. They can’t do that so the next phase of their campaign to silence Elon Musk is to shoot and kill him. They won’t do that directly; they will stoke the fires of anger and animosity against certain billionaires like Musk.

Almost immediately, the term “President Musk” went viral, as well as references to Musk being the “shadow president.” This prompted a series of Democrats to declare Musk the president of the United States.

The message is simple: Trump survived his assassination attempts and won the election, so the Marxists must move on to another target, one of his closest advisers who is worth a lot of money and has a vision of how America can remain dominant in the world financially, economically, and militarily.

There was a time when billionaires were almost all on the side of the Democrats. They expected Musk to fall in line. But this billionaire, the guy who voted Democrat all his life, revolted over their cultural Marxist agenda which targeted one of his own children. Not only that, he appeared with Trump at campaign stops and raised money for Republicans.

Any criticism of billionaire Democrat donor and hedge fund operator George Soros is denounced as anti-Semitic, even though he is an atheist committed to undermining Israel’s right-wing government.

Another billionaire treasured by Democrats is Reid Hoffman, the founder of LinkedIn, which was purchased by Microsoft, and he is described by Peter Flaherty of the National Legal and policy Center as “being best known for being Jeffrey Epstein’s point man in Silicon Valley.”

“Hoffman introduced the pedophile to other billionaires,” notes Flaherty.

Musk, however, is now open to the worst kind of criticism, such as that he is holding America hostage because he opposed a budget deal giving pay raises to Congress.

But this is how Erin Burnett and CNN hope to generate clicks on their website and generate more viewers for their failing channel.

What we are seeing is the same kind of propaganda that preceded the cold-blooded killing of the UnitedHealthcare CEO.

Once the people following this propaganda are radicalized, they decide they want to build a socialist utopia on the bodies of the capitalists they bury under a barrage of smears. It is the Marxist nightmare, a natural follow-up to Barack Hussein Obama's "Obamacare."

The People's Action Institute, one of many groups mobilizing the resistance to Trump, had been running a campaign of harassment against UnitedHealthcare and its executives. It traces its history to Heather Tobis, who later married Paul Booth, a founder of Students for a Democratic Society. This happens to be the forerunner to the terrorist Weather Underground.

Its history also includes a link to a one-time organizer for Saul Alinsky, the author of "Rules for Radicals."

One goal of the People's Action Institute is "Health Care for All," a beautiful term meaning socialized medicine and inevitable shortages, rationing, and euthanasia.

It is advised by Tides Advocacy, an affiliate of the Soros-funded groups known just as Tides, and has been targeting UnitedHealth with protests at the firm's headquarters.

Brian Thompson was shot in the back on the streets of New York City by an assassin armed with a ghost gun who planned this and traveled with a fake I.D. provided by fellow co-conspirators or "others unknown."

Clearly, he was a member of a network of professional killers.

If you read the federal indictment of this deranged killer, you will notice that the FBI offers nothing new about how he obtained his gun and where he got his fake I.D.

But this had nothing to do with denial of a health care claim. The assassin wasn't a client of UnitedHealthcare. He was a highly-educated young man who had a surf board accident in Hawaii and was currently working out at a local gym and taking yoga classes. He came from a rich family which could have paid for the treatment of any back pain he may have had stemming from any surf board accident.

The killer was a pampered rich kid, a brat, who graduated from an Ivy League institution who was fascinated by the revolutionary terrorism of the Unabomber, believed in the power of psychedelic drugs, and went to a New Age bookstore in Hawaii to get a crystal singing bowl to heal his "chakras," or points of energy in his body, as reported by Alexis McAdams of Fox News.

It looks like he is a New Age socialist.

It was probably in college, the University of Pennsylvania, that he was initially exposed to the Bernie Sanders-Elizabeth Warren socialist ideology of "health care for all."

He is very similar to Bill Ayers of the Weather Underground, a terrorist born into a wealthy family. His father was chairman and chief executive officer of Commonwealth Edison and the Thomas G. Ayers College of Commerce and Industry was named for him at Northwestern University.

The Thompson murder was the first desperate act in what figures to be the start of anti-Trump "resistance" that could turn into large-scale terrorism against members of the Trump Administration and the business leaders and corporate CEOs who want to Make America Great Again.

The assassination was quickly followed by "Wanted" posters that showed up in New York City identifying other business leaders as marked for death.

Now we can clearly see that Elon Musk is the “Most Wanted” of all.
