

This Squad Certainly Doesn't Play For America

Samuel Adams, known as the "Father of the American Revolution," once made the statement: "If ever a time should come, when vain and aspiring men shall possess the highest seats in Government, our country will stand in need of its experienced patriots to prevent its ruin."

In his farsightedness, Adams defined the infectious political climate of Americans today.

In this current day and age, we have individuals swearing an oath to uphold our American Constitution while espousing and openly working for an anti-American Socialist government that is in contradiction to the Constitution.

Once in a while, some Patriots are given a large enough microphone to call this insanity out, but tragically many Americans have developed an erroneous mindset: conflating calling out names for name-calling.

But there is a difference.

A prime example is the recent disputes between our President and a few congresswomen now known as "The Squad."

In this instance, I believe you will find that "The Squad" is "name-calling" on behalf of its agenda. They use fake arguments to leverage fake logic.

The President, in response to their fake logic, is "calling names" on the behalf of protecting America, inviting those who hate America to move.

He tweeted: "Progressive" Democrat Congresswomen, who originally came from countries whose governments are a complete and total catastrophe, the worst, most corrupt and inept anywhere in the world (if they even have a functioning government at all), are now loudly and viciously telling the people of the United States – the greatest and most powerful Nation on earth – how our government is to be run.

Trump added: “Why don’t they go back and help fix the totally broken and crime-infested places from which they came? Then come back and show us how it is done.”

Rather than condemn the words of the President, real logic would ask, “Why do we have representatives that espouse big Government and anti-American sentiments like those on Alexandria Cortez’s Twitter Account:

Medicare for All

A Living Wage & Labor Rights

K-16 schooling, aka Public Colleges

100% Renewable Energy

Fixing the pipes in Flint

Not Hurting Immigrants

Cortez recently implied that border agents are running concentration camps, and if we support border security...we are Nazi sympathizers.

Cortez was also filmed saying immigrants attempting to enter the country, many of them illegally, are “more American than any person who seeks to keep them out ever will be.”

Fellow Squad member, Minnesota Representative Ilhan Omar, was recently identified as the “first member of Congress to ever describe terrorists who killed thousands of Americans on 9/11 as ‘some people who did something,’” by Rep. Dan Crenshaw of Texas, a former Navy SEAL who lost his right eye in Afghanistan.

The Squad supports abortion up until the point of birth, partial-birth abortion, and refuse to mandate care for babies accidentally born alive.

They desire to abolish the Immigrations and Customs Enforcement (ICE) and the Department of Homeland Security (DHS). They advocate policies that will eliminate private health insurance and force Americans to pay for healthcare of undocumented immigrants. They desire the elimination of the Electoral College and support packing the Supreme Court.

Cortez, Omar, and Tlaib all refused to condemn a recent Antifa terrorist attack against an Immigration and Customs detention center in Tacoma, Washington.

I leave you with the following question, “Who’s team is this squad playing for?”
