

Time for Trump to Address America's Cultural Collapse

In the same way the American people have rallied against men in women's sports, they are now mobilizing against the grotesque spectacle of men "marrying" other men, an obvious perversion of the natural law and God's plan for humanity. So-called homosexual marriage is a national perversion that can be reviewed and overturned by the U.S. Supreme Court.

With a 6-3 conservative majority, including three Trump nominees, this is possible, even probable. But the Trump Administration will have to get involved, with the Department of Justice picking the right case to return to the Supreme Court and overturn "gay marriage."

An NBC story, written by a "gay" reporter married to another man, is a clear sign they are worried. He writes about how the U.S. "legalized" so-called "marriage equality" without disclosing the flawed constitutional underpinnings for this disastrous ruling that should have been met with civil resistance, especially by America's "Christian" churches.

Instead, we have in our country today children's books in libraries and schools that promote unnatural sex and celebrate "queer history," while some churches even double as hang-outs for feminist witches during "Gay Pride" events.

The reporter's phrase "marriage equality" is itself a perversion of language, since it equates the "gay" lifestyle, which can't produce children, to traditional marriage between men and women. It is the gay equivalent of "undocumented immigrants" when referring to illegal aliens.

It is imperative for them to mask the nature of what they do, and what they are.

The Court's abortion decision, Roe v. Wade, which led to more than 60 million abortions, was eventually overturned by the Court, and the 5-4 "gay marriage" decision in 2015, Obergefeld v. Hodges, can be overturned on the same grounds.

That frightens the "gay rights" lobby but the American people should greet such a development with anticipation since most of our states had previously voted to make traditional marriage between a man and a woman into a pillar of American society. This has been the way it was supposed to be since the advent of our Judeo-Christian foundations of our country and when traditional values were established into law.

"He created them male and female" is a statement that that can apply to differences between men and women, affecting issues like men in women's sports as well as marriage.

But traditional sex distinctions were wiped away in "gay marriage" schemes that were rubber-stamped by the Court and led to America's cultural meltdown, a process known as Cultural Marxism.

It should not be surprising that New York City Democrat Mayoral candidate Zohran Mamdani, a Marxist Muslim, counts "queers" and "transgenders" as essential elements of his winning coalition.

The unconstitutional Roe v. Wade decision, legalizing abortion on demand, was just as flawed as Obergefeld v. Hodges, which can easily be overturned as well.

Regarding the gay marriage decision, Justice Antonin Scalia's dissent in the case called the ruling a judicial “Putsch,” an attempt to overthrow a form of government – ours. His dissent, joined by Justice Clarence Thomas, was written “to call attention to this Court’s threat to American democracy.”

Scalia understood the power and meaning of words and he chose the word “putsch” for a specific purpose. One definition of the term means “a secretly plotted and suddenly executed attempt to overthrow a government...”

Scalia was accurately describing the plan by the homosexual movement, started by communist Harry Hay, to force social acceptance of their perverted lifestyle. Their success has led to sexual confusion over men in women’s sports and the advent of the transgender movement. Harry Hay developed an STD, left his wife and wore a dress, and then identified as a fairy.

In other words, so-called “gay rights” led to many of the problems of sexual confusion and “gender dysphoria” we see today.

To begin the process of repealing Obergefell, President Trump can revoke the national monument designation for New York City’s Stonewall Inn, a scene of homosexual riots that began when police began arresting sexual predators known as Chicken Hawks – adult males who coveted underage boys at a Mafia-run gay bar.

Defense Secretary Pete Hegseth, to his credit, has already revoked the name of “Harvey Milk” on a U.S. Navy Ship. Milk preferred “boyish-looking” young men as sexual partners.

President Barack Hussein Obama began the process of “honoring” Harvey Milk with a ship and a stamp, identifying him as an American icon and hero, despite his record “of lying, predatory behavior, and anti-Christian rhetoric,” notes activist Peter LaBarbera, who now heads up the Center for Morality. He describes Milk, who was briefly in the Navy, as a “potential statutory rapist who lured fellow sailors into sodomite encounters”

The “gay rights” lobby likes to pretend that LGBTQ rights are “under brutal assault by Donald Trump,” but the president has not yet begun to fight.

As the gay story by an NBC news gay reporter married to another man makes clear, “Over the past several months, Republican lawmakers in at least 10 states have introduced measures aimed at undermining same-sex marriage rights. These measures, many of which were crafted with the help of the anti-marriage equality group MassResistance, seek to ask the Supreme Court to overturn Obergefell.”

The term “marriage equality,” as noted, is designed to obscure the nature of gay sex, which in males leads to multiple sexually-transmitted diseases, including HIV/AIDS. This form of sex, known as anal sex, cannot produce children, only disease and early death.

MassResistance is an organization headed by Brian Camenker that has been influential on a national and global basis.

Its anti-Obergefell resolutions in state legislatures across the U.S. are “causing alarm,” with the group adding that “The MassResistance push to ultimately reverse same-sex ‘marriage’ is successfully moving across the country. Shockingly, our resolutions in state legislatures get blocked not by leftists, but by RINO Republicans.”

Opposition, as demonstrated by the NBC story, is also coming from the “news” media. The author of the story was named as a gay “Journalist of the Year” and his bio declares he was “raised more by television than his parents,” a fact that helps explain things.

Trump’s “Big Beautiful Bill” promises many economic achievements and advancements, but the cultural collapse of America must be addressed.
