

To Elect an America-Hating Communist to Office Is To Betray America

Socialism is defined as a system of social organization where the ownership of property and the distribution of income are subject to social rather than private control. This definition reflects the early understanding of socialism as a form of social democracy, where the government plays a role in the economy and distribution of resources.

It's interesting that we see on the horizon those who have come into America asking for asylum from the oppressive and destructive measures of the government that they allegedly sought asylum from. Then, they attempt to implement the very government here in America that they fled from while they run for office (Deuteronomy 28:43).

How ignorant, self-inflicting, and blind can they be (Proverbs 13:13)?

More importantly, how ignorant are the American people in letting them attempt to do so (Hosea 4:6)?

Again, they flee their war-torn nations, poverty, government abuse, etc., and then, while running for office here in America, they mean to establish the same un-American system of government from which they claimed that they needed asylum.

First off, understand that they are not qualified to run for office here because they are not upholding, but rather tearing down, our system of government that the Lord has established (Exodus 18:25).

If only the people in this country would, for their own sakes, take the time to know the difference.

When our said representatives swear, with their hand on the Bible, to serve the people, what are they swearing to do? They are to uphold the laws found within the U.S. Constitution. This is to be done against all enemies, both foreign and domestic!

Therefore, our representatives, operating in a limited form of government within the confines of the Constitution via delegation, are to serve "We the People" according to God's Law (Exodus 20).

They are not a law unto themselves in the way Americans have been led to believe. Americans are not serfs operating at the arbitrary, lawless pleasures of their rulers (Numbers 30:2; Deuteronomy 23:23).

Yet, this is what they mean to establish today. In fact, it is what they have been doing for a long time now, which, constitutionally, is an act of treason (Article III, Section 3).

Therefore, to have a socialist run for office is to reverse the roles of government. "We the People", under God, are the government in this country.

Our representatives receive delegated authority from us to them, not them to us. They work for us; we do not work for them.

Our rights, which come from the Lord, are now being lost as if we are under a socialist system of government, and our privileges, coming from the state, which has now become a god to the people.

This would go from receiving our rights from the Lord and then delegating authority to our said representatives to having our privileges come from the state at the good pleasure of our masters.

How does this work? History teaches us that it does not work!

“If a socialist knew what the end of being a socialist would become, he would not be a socialist.”

Just ask those who should know better.
