

To Vote for a President Who Can't Prove His Independence from "The Establishment" is Voting for Civil War!

It is imperative that voters understand the critical importance of electing a president who is independent of "The Establishment", what I refer to in more descriptive terms as the Parasitic Super- Rich Ruling Class, (PSRRC).

I will explain this problem by comparing the circumstances of Governor Ron DeSantis to those of President Donald Trump.

Donald Trump was the only president in more than 100 years to be independent of the PSRRC.

Because he was independent and could not be controlled, he was hated by the PSRRC and their minions in government, who did everything to destroy him. No man in history was so continually vilified, smeared and framed for years in every possible way in all media, so that the average Democrat sees him as Satan. His presidency was crippled by BOTH political parties, military flag officers, and government employees who were loyal to the PSRRC and not to the Republic!

The reason for this hatred was simple. Most of the people in the federal government are in the pocket of the PSRRC, which hated President Trump because he was ending their reign of theft, power, and impoverishment of the people, for the first time in over 100 years.

President Trump had the knowledge, education, and balls to do what had to be done to return the Republic to the people at the expense of the PSRRC.

President Trump was no saint, but neither was he corrupt. He speaks the language of men. As a wealthy man, he was a magnet for the wiles of women.

The proven keys to our prosperity and the viability of our Constitutional Republic are:

1. Return to constitutional tariffs that would replace income tax and protect American wages at any level from imports of foreign products.
2. Close borders and deport all illegal invaders.
3. End wars for profit of the PSRRC.
4. End the climate scam.
5. End the “green energy” scam and promote the sensibility of fossil fuels.
6. End all unconstitutional federal departments, and return usurped functions back to the states.
7. Terminate the unconstitutional privately-owned Federal Reserve Bank.
8. Force the federal government to function and spend in compliance with its Enumerated Powers under the Constitution.
9. The federal government must terminate ALL expenditures in the states, as they are unconstitutional.
10. Terminate the corrupt and lawless FBI.
11. Return to gold and silver money as specified in the Constitution, to end inflation and financial corruption.
12. Congress must cease passing laws that don't comply with the Enumerated Powers, and terminate existing non-compliant laws.

Now let's look at Governor Ron DeSantis, a most popular Florida governor who has done many good things to benefit the people. None of his actions, except perhaps his tiff with Disney, should cause the PSRRC any concern. As a governor he could take no actions on most of the key points that the PSRRC would find objectionable. But he certainly could promise to take action when elected, and he has not. Such actions would reduce his financial support by the PSRRC. Many of us have noticed that the left-wing media has supported and promoted every move that he has taken for years. Most importantly, he has failed to kick the unconstitutional federal departments out of his state. Nor has he promised to terminate these fake federal departments if elected president. These departments represent a significant power base for the PSRRC. Where is he getting his funding? Where do you think!

I doubt that Governor DeSantis can prove his independence from The Establishment, the PSRRC. So a vote for him would be a vote for civil war, as his election would change nothing, and millions of people would be counting on his election as a last hope to restore lawful government. When the People have lost hope, they have nothing left to lose...and the Founding Documents will dictate future conduct. Who can doubt this scenario?

The information in this paper is as correct and truthful as I could make it. But it will have been a waste of time if readers don't use it to hold any candidate's feet to the fire. Please forward to your friends. Our survival as a nation depends on this understanding, and taking the appropriate actions.

In simple terms, if any political candidates will not agree to take the required actions, then don't vote for them! For if you do, you are voting for Civil War. The logic is pure and simple.

May God Bless You and Our Republic
