

Traitors, Haters and Demons

By Rob Pue

November 10, 2024

This is a tough message for me to write. Because of my production schedule with our printing plant for Wisconsin Christian News, and the deadline I have there, I must write this message prior to election day on November 5. Even worse, this issue of Wisconsin Christian News won't come out until after the election. Such are the challenges of publishing a monthly newspaper.

So I must comment on the situation ahead of time – now – not knowing how things will go on the most significant day America has faced in a very long time. What do I say? What can I say? By the time you read this or hear this message on the radio, we'll all know much more, but I'll tell you what I do know now. I fully expect some very bad things to happen at a rapid, speed-of-light pace.

I try my utmost to not get caught up in the political theater of it all, but it's both a disturbing time and an exciting time. For many, it's an emotional time. All have hope for the future, but after a good 25 years of division, intentionally instilled into our minds, the future some Americans hope for is polar opposite to what others hope for.

Let's begin with a few words from Daniel 2. “Blessed be the name of God for ever and ever: for wisdom and might are His. And He changes the times and the seasons: He removes kings, and sets up kings. He gives wisdom unto the wise, and knowledge to them that know understanding. He reveals the deep and secret things. He knows what is in the darkness, and the light dwells with Him."

I remember when we had "election day." One day to cast your vote and that worked pretty well. Now it's all so different. Voting is drawn out for weeks, and you can vote so many ways. You can vote absentee in person; you can vote by mail; you can vote using drop boxes. These alternative options have proven not only unreliable but very dubious. Votes used to be counted by hand. Now machines are used, which we know are easily manipulated to provide a false outcome.

Already, during early voting, there've been so many problems. Fraudulent voter registrations have been discovered in multiple states. The Biden Regime's DOJ has sued the state of Virginia after it removed the names of 6,303 illegal aliens – and Alabama after it moved 3,251 aliens to an "inactive" list.

Keep in mind that it's a felony under several federal statutes for an illegal alien to claim to be a citizen so they may register to vote or to vote in U.S. elections. Not to mention the fact that Democrats in many states have been caught illegally registering non-citizens to vote, and "helping" them to vote. Most recently in Pennsylvania, a large group of illegal aliens was escorted to the front of the line to vote early. They were allowed to cut in line, ahead of American citizens who had waited their turn for two hours already – and then they were "helped" to fill out their ballots. This was captured on video.

It should be a "no brainer" that non-citizens should not be allowed to vote in American elections. As I mentioned, doing so is a felony, under multiple federal statutes. So, there can be no valid argument on this. Yet the Biden DOJ and all those on the Left are using our new "neighbors" to stack the deck in their favor, and make no mistake, they're getting away with it. Yes, there will be endless and needless court battles over this, but it's doubtful that "justice" will prevail, and yet millions of dollars and countless hours will be wasted in a battle that should never have happened in America. Voting as an illegal alien is a felony. Facilitating and orchestrating that makes you a traitor.

There is also so much hateful rhetoric coming from the Communist ticket. On October 29th, Biden called Trump supporters "garbage." Obama called Conservatives and Christians "bitter clingers to guns and Bibles." Hillary Clinton called us "Deplorables." Now Biden has called us "Garbage." That's how they see us. That's how they've always seen us.

As I compile this message, it's just been reported that containers with hundreds of ballots in Miami-Dade County, Florida, were found on the side of a road after they fell out of a county truck. This was confirmed by the Elections Department there. Also overnight, the Colorado Secretary of State's Office posted a spreadsheet to its website with a hidden tab that included voting system passwords. What could possibly go wrong there?

In Oregon and Washington State, ballot drop boxes have been set on fire, in areas that were formerly "Democrat" but have apparently now swung over to the Trump camp. And in Tarrant County, Texas, electronic ballots have been found to be printing incorrectly, effectively changing votes.

These are only a few examples, but we know things like this are happening in every state. The Left cannot win popular opinion in America on their policies, their plans or their record. So, in an effort to make this election "too big not to rig," I have no doubt that every single one of the millions of illegals that have been settled into this country by the current Regime in power have been registered to vote in this election and in most cases those illegal felony votes will be counted.

But there's such a stark contrast between the two campaigns. The Harris campaign offers only hatred and vitriol, demonizing Trump in every press release, every campaign stop and every single interview. They offer no solutions. The primary thing they're excited about is more abortion on demand with no limitations, under the phony guise of "women's healthcare." They also offer more transgenderism, under the phony guise of "equality." And more censorship, tyranny and communism, under the phony guise of "equity." They can put lipstick on a pig, but most of us still know it's a pig.

Just a look back at the past four years tells you where their priorities lie. While calling Trump a dictator, they've weaponized our justice system, hunted down patriots and Christians and tossed them in prison, usually without allowing them to even present a reasonable defense. And they've relentlessly persecuted Donald Trump, by every means possible, including attempted assassinations.

What's more, many Leftist politicians, social media influencers and even mainstream media talking heads – not to mention Kamala Harris herself – have all vowed "violence and vengeance" if they do not win this election.

Speaking of the mainstream media, did you catch the reaction to Trump's October 27th rally at Madison Square Garden, where he filled the arena with 20,000 people and 70,000 more rallied and watched from the streets? MSNBC stated, "Trump's rally comes 85 years after a pro-Nazi rally at the famed arena." A headline at NBC read, "Trump's Madison Square Garden event turns into a rally with crude and racist insults." The Democratic National Committee put out the message, "Trump praised Hitler." The New York Times described the event as "a closing carnival of grievances, misogyny and racism." I watched the whole thing, thinking critically while doing so, and didn't see any of that.

Of course, the mainstream media is wholly owned by the Left and has been for decades. It's no wonder that they've now earned the lowest confidence rating among Americans they've ever had. It's become Orwell's "Ministry of Truth," and while they accuse Conservatives and Christians of being conspiracy theorists and the source of all disinformation, the Left has earned multiple blue ribbons for exceptional lies and deceit.

So now, according to them, you and I are Nazis. You and I, in their eyes, are "garbage." But it's always been this way. This is how the Left has always viewed us. Only now, they're not afraid to say it out loud, they're not ashamed of openly rigging elections, and using illegal voters, and they're openly planning for violence and vengeance. To me, this makes them, not us, the haters.

As I write this, less than a week before election day, I'm getting all kinds of "intel" from professing insiders who claim to know what's being planned. Some of these sources I trust, some I don't really know, but all are telling me the same things: 1) Trump will win regardless of the cheating. 2) the Leftists will then riot, burn and go to all-out war, and 3) if Trump is declared the clear winner, Kamala Harris, as sitting Vice President, will refuse to do her duty and certify the election, thereby setting off even more violence and requiring martial law and perhaps even UN "peacekeeping" forces to occupy the US.

One "insider" correspondent sent me the following, from which I quote: "the enemies of this Republic have developed a very sophisticated and multidimensional plan for chaos likely beginning on November the 3rd...two days prior to the official day of the election."

This man has been told what's being planned. Since this message will be released after the election, there's no point in going into those details here. Let's just wait and see, but I'll just say the implications are extremely concerning.

It should be clear to all who've paid any attention to the state of our nation over even just the past year, that once again, we've been presented with two polar opposite choices. Communism versus freedom. While Donald Trump rallies have drawn record numbers of patriots, and ordinary Americans who are just simply fed up with the "wokeism," he's only been able to do that because he offers positive solutions, common sense, and a return to Conservative Christian values. His rallies are upbeat, full of enthusiasm, respectful, patriotic, and hopeful. He downplays the negative and accentuates the positive. It gives us hope, while Harris only instills hatred and rage.

We've had enough of the division, hatred and rage. Enough of the fake news. Enough of the "woke" nonsense. Enough of the indoctrination of our children. Enough of lawbreakers in power and pornography in schools. Enough of "America last," while our elected officials become rich from shady backroom deals and money laundering through foreign governments and wars that never had to happen.

Ultimately, this is not a physical battle, it's a spiritual one. The dark side is so wicked and evil we can't comprehend the depths of depravity they're willing to sink to, because they are of their father, the devil. Yes, we truly are fighting demons here – and people in power who are demonic. It's spiritual warfare and we must ready ourselves, because the war is real.

Ephesians 6:11 & 12, "Put on the whole armor of God, that you may be able to stand against the schemes of the devil. For we do not wrestle against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the cosmic powers over this present darkness, against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly places."

2 Corinthians 10: 3-5, "For though we walk in the flesh, we are not waging war according to the flesh. For the weapons of our warfare are not of the flesh but have divine power to destroy strongholds. We destroy arguments and every lofty opinion raised against the knowledge of God, and take every thought captive to obey Christ.”

Friends, in the days ahead, understand that it is God who sets up and removes kings. As Christ-followers we have power, love and sound minds. Defend your family and neighbors, stand for righteousness, don't let any untruth go unchallenged – but don't let yourself get caught up into violent conflicts if there's any way you can avoid it.

1 Peter 5:8, “Be sober-minded; be watchful. Your adversary the devil prowls around like a roaring lion, seeking someone to devour.” So, do your part but always understand, it is now and always has been up to God. May His will be done.
