

Trump: Let's call this man president of the United States

"The fundamental problem with the immigration status quo is that it serves the needs of wealthy donors, political activists and powerful politicians," said Donald Trump. "The current system does not serve you, the American people."

On Wednesday night, August 31, 2016, presidential candidate Donald J. Trump presented the American people with the clearest understanding of the immigration invasion of America ever stated by any public figure in the past 30 years. Additionally, he told the American people his 10-point plan for solving the legal and illegal invasion of America.

"When politicians talk about immigration reform," said Trump. "They usually mean the following: amnesty, open borders, lower wages. Immigration reform should mean something else entirely. It should mean improvements to our laws and policies to make life better for American citizens."

At this point in time, politicians, mainstream media and Mexican open borders activists hurl names at anyone who stands up for secured borders and the rule of law. "Racist, xenophobe and nativist" top the list of names stamped on anyone who speaks against illegal immigration. While tens of thousands of Mexicans die from the conflicts created by drug cartels pushing for the billions in drugs being smuggled across the borders, our U.S. Congress looks the other way. While countless thousands of American kids suffer addictions from heroin, crack cocaine and other opiates, Congress sits on its hands while our southern border remains wide open.

"Drug overdose is the leading cause of accidental death in the US, with 47,055 lethal drug overdoses in 2015. Opioid addiction is driving this epidemic, with 18,893 overdose deaths related to prescription pain relievers, and 10,574 overdose deaths related to heroin in 2015.” (Source: American Society of Addiction Medicine)

An average of 350,000 illegal, pregnant women travel to the USA annually to birth their “anchor babies” that immediately collect enormous welfare benefits from the American taxpayer. An astounding 41 percent of illegal aliens overstay their visas to blend into enclaves already established. Legal and illegal immigrants send $80 billion in cash transfers back to their home countries annually—thus financially bleeding America to death. Mexico’s leaders benefit with $25 billion in cash annually—bled out of the USA.

Today, according to www.FAIR.org with Dan Stein, American taxpayers foot a $66.1 billion bill to educate, feed and house illegal alien children—year after year after year.

Each year, an estimated eight to 10 million illegal aliens work jobs normally worked by Americans. Those illegals enjoy immunity from prosecution because over 300 city councils created “sanctuary cities” to protect illegals from our laws. This practice results in degraded schools, shoplifting as a way of life; crime, rapes, drunk driving and degraded medical care for Americans.

While this nation faces a $19 trillion national debt brought to us by Congress, Barack Obama injects thousands of refugees into America who immediately enjoy welfare for the rest of their lives because they lack any education, skills or ability to work in our country. Those immigrants thrive while doing nothing, while our veterans suffer from lack of care.

Obama, Congress and Hillary Clinton haven’t and won’t change this status quo usurpation of the American people, our laws and the rights of our citizens.

“Our enforcement priorities will include removing criminals, gang members, security threats, visa overstays, public charges,” said Trump. “Those relying on public welfare or straining the safety net along with millions of recent illegal arrivals and overstays who’ve come here under this current corrupt administration—will be deported. We will enforce our immigration laws already on the books.”

Trump continued, “The immigration process has to include “an ideological certification to make sure that those we are admitting to our country share our values and love our people. Applicants will be asked their views about honor killings, about respect for women and gays and minorities. Attitudes on radical Islam, which our president refuses to say and many other topics as part of this vetting procedure. And if we have the right people doing it, believe me, very, very few will slip through the cracks. Hopefully, none.”

No more Boston Marathon’s, Orlando’s, Chattanooga’s, Fort Hood’s, San Bernardino’s, or 9/11’s with Trump at the helm!

For the first time in 50 years, Trump said we cannot continue adding 1,000,000 (million) legal immigrant refugees to America. They undercut and overload our welfare, work and medical systems. “We need a discussion to bring legal immigration back down to traditional levels annually, [i.e., 200,000 annually.]”

“Visa issuance should be suspended in any place where adequate national security screening cannot occur,” said Trump. “From 9/11 to the end of 2014 at least 380 foreign born individuals were convicted in terror cases inside the United States. And even right now the largest number of people are under investigation for exactly this terror planning, that we’ve ever had in the history of our country.”

Trump’s presentation offered 325 million Americans a new path toward a lawful, working, peaceful and prosperous United States of America—“for all of our people.”

“Since 2013 alone, the Obama administration has allowed 300,000 criminal aliens to return back into United States communities,” Trump said. “These are individuals encountered or identified by ICE, but who were not detained or processed for deportation because it wouldn’t have been politically correct.”

No matter who continues voting for the old guard, the old corrupt politicians like John McCain, Jeff Flake, Diane Feinstein, Barbara Boxer, Harry Reid or Charles Schumer, Nancy Pelosi and others—Donald Trump offers a presidency for the people, for our interests, for our benefits and for our success—not the multinational corporations, not the corporate elites, not the illegal immigrants.

For his exceptional honoring of the American people, let’s call this man our new president: President Donald J. Trump of the United States of America.
