

Trump protesters against creating jobs & nat'l. Security

As most Americans are by now aware, paid anarchist protesters mixed with mindless zombies aka 'Snowflakes' rioted January 20th during Donald Trump's inauguration day in Washington, DC. We saw the same in several large cities around the country.

They burned a limo, threw rocks at police, on-lookers and windows. They set fires and created the usual mess. One attendee at a Trump 'Deplorable' Ball was bloodied when some coward hit him in the back of the head. Dozens of those useful fools were arrested. No doubt bailed out by some flavor of the ACLU paid for by one of George Soros' groups.

What were they protesting? Donald Trump becoming the 45th president of these united States of America. They want to stop him from carrying out his campaign promises. And, what would those be?

1. Creating jobs. Bringing jobs home by renegotiating destructive "free" trade agreements and treaties that have cost double digit millions of jobs since NAFTA (No American Factories Taking Applications) was unlawfully signed into 'law'. Jobs for all Americans, not just Caucasians as the rancid 'mainstream' media would like everyone to believe.

2. Putting pressure on the incompetent, corrupt Congress(Americans just reelected 94% of them) to harness out of control agencies that have put so many new regulations on businesses along with the criminal, Obama, through the use of Executive Orders that have been killing businesses. Unnecessary regulations that have cost jobs, lots of jobs.

3. Securing the southern border in an effort to stop the flow of illegal aliens coming into this country stealing our jobs, resources and committing heinous crimes. And, stopping terrorists from crossing the border along with the tons and tons of heroin, cocaine and meth.

4. Clean out the corruption in Washington, DC and use the power of his office to get the U.S. Congress to get things done instead of just talk about it.

5. Destroy ISIS once and for all. A noble mission but you're talking about an ideology here not an army of some country. However, the mindless drones protesting in DC are apparently also against that effort.

That's the short list. The anti-Trump protesters on Friday are against that agenda. Yes, they are STUPID. They are also dangerous because too many of them vote and because they're so brainwashed there's no reaching them until the heavy hand of government comes crashing down on their world and they fall apart. Helpless, dependent cry babies completely unprepared for real life.

Watching Watters World this past Saturday night on FOX here and there, the viewer was treated to interviews with some of those fools. Many wore bandannas around their faces. I guess they figure if their parents are watching they won't know their own kid.

Watters ask three young males why they were there. One said their lives were in danger now that Trump is president. Watters ask how are their lives in danger? Yep. The blank face like a deer in the headlights. No clue.

One must understand how successful a dirty, disgraced 'mainstream' media and government indoctrination centers called public schools have been in brainwashing millions of Americans. Well, Trump has single-handedly handed the prostitute media their heads on a plate and he's not done with them yet. The American people, who prior to Trump's arrival and run for president, were blind to the game. Now, thankfully, tens of millions are awake and they don't like what's going on.

But, make no mistake: The whores in the media, print, electronic and networks like ABC, CBS, NBC, MSNBC and others are not going away nor are they going to stop their attacks on Trump and you and me. They have to keep pounding on Trump because if he succeeds in only half of what he's trying to get done the Democratic/Communist Party USA is pretty much finished. The well laid plans by the global elite to destroy this republic is now in tatters and we the people must NOT step back from our war against traitors both within this country and foreign influences.

On Saturday more mindless drones swamped Washington, DC for yet another silly 'protect women's rights march. Yes, the hens were out in full force. Of course none of them could tell you what rights they think have been taken away from them. Oh, no. It was all about equality, hate Trump and look at me!

I did. On Watters show a couple of chunky females had these odd shaped furry things on their heads. When Jesse Watters ask what they were the females gleefully said vaginas. Wearing a vagina on your head. Now there's class!

Suggestive sexual signs were everywhere, but Pussy seemed to be most popular. Has been actress, Julia Roberts, wore a 'pussy' hat to show her solidarity with the cows out there grazing. Lots of signs. In fact, signs outnumbered brains.

Ashley Judd, a rabid Hildebeast supporter, singer of something and absent anything between her ears proudly yelled into the microphone a 'poem' written by some 19-year old Snowflake making a truly sickening accusation against America's new president: "I'm not as nasty as your own daughter being your favorite sex symbol, your wet dreams infused with your own genes'."

Translated: Donald Trump has wet dreams about his daughter, Ivanka. Can you imagine if someone said that about Barry Soetoro aka Obama and one of his daughters? Of course it would never happen as I am firmly convinced Obama is a homosexual.

Classless Judd went on to yell to the masses:

'And our puies ain't for grabbing, they're for reminding you that our walls are stronger than America's ever will be,' she concluded.

'Our pus are for our pleasure, for birthing new generations of filthy, vulgar, nasty, proud, Christian, Buddhist, Muslim, Sikh, generations of nasty women.

'So what today means is that we are far from the end, today marks the beginning, the beginning of our story.'

'The revolution starts here, the fight for the right to be free, to be who we are, to be equal, lets march together through this darkness and with each step know that we are not afraid.'

'That we are not alone, that we will not back down, that there is power in our unity, and that no opposing force stands a chance in the face of true solidarity.'

'And to our detractors that insist that this march will never add up to anything, "f you",' she proclaimed.

"Madonna also performed two of her classic hits, Express Yourself and Human Nature, changing one of the lyrics in the latter song to 'Donald Trump suck a d'."

Sadly, too many of those females brought their children to watch and hear such filth.

One very popular sign once again displayed the complete and total ignorance of the female carrying it:

Way back in 1994 when I ran for Congress, Democrats would salt the audience during debates with females whose job was to try and bait me with that same stupidity. "You're trying to take away my reproductive rights!!!" My response was always the same: Getting pregnant is reproducing so no one is taking away your reproductive rights. What I'm against is you killing what you have reproduced – your own baby. A dear friend of mine said it perfectly: Abortion is the exact opposite of reproduction.

So, you see, signs like the one above is an oxymoron held up by a moron. I almost feel sorry for them except they support murdering unborn babies in the womb. Unborn babies with a beating heart detected at 18 days, long before a female knows she's even pregnant. A human being with a beating heart ripped out of a mother's womb and disposed of as waste or sold for body parts.

'Big' names from Hollywood were there. The ultimate slutty pig long past her expiration date, Madonna, said she has thought seriously about blowing up the White House. The Secret Service are opening an investigation. Cher, Scarlett Johansson, Cate Blanchett; Charlize Theron was moved to tears. Slutty Miley Cyrus, Olivia Wilde, Natalie Portman, Amy Schumer, poster boy for gluttony, Michael Moore, Blake Lively, Alicia Keys, Pink, Helen Mirren, Katy Perry; an endless list.

'A-list star' butterface Chrissy Tiegen said she was sickened by Trump winning the election. Who is Tiegen? Well, she appeared on the annual Sports Illustrated titty issue with two other females; that would be the laughable 'swimsuit' issue. The cover featured all three of them naked head to toe from the back. All three exhibitionists for that cover had a string up their butt crack for everyone to 'admire'. I wonder how her father felt looking at his daughter's bare ass on the cover of a magazine sold at Barnes & Noble Bookstores that considers women sport.

Sorry, but I find Tiegen quite unattractive, however, she became an instant 'star' just by showing off her bare ass to the world. She married a highly successful song writer/singer named John Legend. Her goal a couple of years ago was to 'free the nipple'. Yep. She'd whipped out one of her nipples for photo ops to show everyone they should be liberated! A talentless nothing who now 'stars' in some joke on the stupid tube – a lip-synching 'talent' contest. Her wimpy husband showed his solidarity by marching with the empty-headed hens in Park City, Utah.

As for the males marching with that legion of mindless sisters of victim hood, give me William Wallace any day of the week.

Are you ready to throw up yet? Well, here's a news flash for all of those 'stars' who turned out on Saturday whether in DC, Hollywood or some other city: I do not see your movies. I don't buy your products, your perfumes, clothes or make up. I don't buy your records. I don't watch you on the boob tube. I don't go see your concerts. You don't get one nickel from me.

The same goes for the liars for hire called the 'mainstream' media. Newspapers like the NY Times, the Washington Post and the alphabet soup networks. I don't watch you or patronize your advertisers because I don't watch ads on your networks. The same goes for newspapers.

The last time I went to the movie was in 2012 to see ARG0. I made an exception. The movie starred Ben Affleck, a rabid Obama/Hillary supporter. But, I had never heard or read the story of how those hostages made it out of Iran and so I went to see that movie and it was very well done.

A real nail biter based on a true story very few knew anything about; history and an amazing rescue. Haven't been to a movie theater since. I would have gone to see Mel Gibson's move, Hacksaw Ridge, but the nearest showing was 40 miles away in Midland, Texas.

It's a shame about Hollywood and even the music industry. Some truly great films have been made in Hollywood with real actors without the T & A and F-word. For decades it's mostly junk, recycled sequels and special effects.

Hollywood employs a lot of people and I want to see Americans keep their jobs. Over the years I've received a fair amount of email from good, decent Americans who work in some capacity in the film industry and/or television. They hate the toxic environment and tell me they keep their mouth shut or lose their job. If you're for unborn babies, against the filthy sexual habits of homosexuals (having sex in each others poop) and Christian you keep your mouth shut. Very, very wrong.

Sadly, those big shot 'stars' and music heavies reproduce and brainwash their children with the same toxic messages they barfed up on Saturday. They are dangerous because they vote and because too many gullible Americans look up to them as role models. They are the 'new Soviet man and woman' Jerri Lynn Ball wrote so eloquently and forcefully about nearly two decades ago. A must read of only 20 pages: Masters of Seduction

Perhaps someday the useful fools out there wasting their lives and sacrificing their souls to Satan will finally wake up and realize they've been nothing but slaves to the masters of the game out to destroy this constitutional republic.
